

CMST 141: Introduction to Media Writing Fall 2012

Course Description: This course emphasizes observation skills and choice of language, structure, and source material to communicate events and ideas to selected audiences. Students learn interviewing, basic research, effective expression, and editing through note taking, interviewing, drafting, and revision. CMST 141 meets a written communication course requirement at BC.

Course Outcomes:

- Describe and practice the journalistic process.
- Gather data from various sources.
- Write a coherent and accurate news story.
- Understand and synthesize ideas for others
- Refine punctuation, grammar, spelling and proofreading skills to achieve error-free text.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the ethics involved in interview methods, the history of journalism and audience awareness.
- Analyze and evaluate professional journalistic writing.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the advertising and business components of news publications.
- Collaborate and communicate as a professional team to meet deadlines

Classroom Behavior: Comments or behavior disparaging another based on race, ethnicity, religion, abilities, beliefs, appearance, or sexual orientation will not be tolerated. Articles, including opinion pieces, must meet this standard. Cell phones should be set to silent and laptops should be used only for note taking and coursework. Mp3 players should not be used during class.

Special Needs: Any student with disabilities or other special needs who needs additional accommodation in this course is invited to share these concerns or requests with the instructor as soon as possible. Disability Resource Center, Room B132, Telephone 425.564.2498

Articles for Publication: Articles handed in as course assignments may be submitted for publication to the BC student newspaper or other publications. All articles must be handed in for course credit prior to submission for publication.

Attendance Policy:

1. Work handed in after class ends on the due date will lose one letter grade for every day late. Assignments will not be accepted after they are four days late.
2. In-class assignments and quizzes cannot be made up except in the cases of university-sanctioned absences. Students who show up late to class are not eligible to make up missed in-class work or quizzes once they have begun.
3. Students may receive one free pass to hand an assignment in one day late with no penalty. This free pass will only be given once during the quarter and covers papers late due to illnesses, forgotten assignments, and missing class. This does not apply to class work, quizzes, or exams.
4. Students must notify the instructor of university-sanctioned absences ahead of time and make arrangements for a new due date prior to the absence in order to make up in-class work.
5. In the case of extreme circumstances (hospitalization, family tragedy), students may make a written request for an extension within one week of the assignment including reason for request, extensions requested, and proposed new due date.
6. Students who miss more than 10 class sessions will not be eligible for a passing grade, per Arts & Humanities policy. Students who routinely show up late for class may also see a grade penalty following a warning from the instructor.

Academic Honesty: "One kind of academic dishonesty is plagiarism [...]including, but not limited to, using a paper written by someone else, using printed sources word-for-word without proper documentation, and paraphrasing or summarizing the ideas of others without acknowledging the source. [...]Participating in academic dishonesty in any way, including writing a paper or taking a test for someone else, may result in severe penalties. Dishonestly produced papers automatically receive a grade of "F" without the possibility of make-up. --- BC Student Procedures and Expectations Self-plagiarism is considered plagiarism and will be subject to the same procedures and punishments.
