We die. That may be the meaning of life. But we do language. That may be the measure of our lives.

- Toni Morrison

Mission Statement:

My purpose as a Spanish teacher in the World Language Department at Bellevue College is to provide a welcoming and supportive atmosphere where learning and using Spanish is challenging, interesting, creative, intuitive, accessible and fun by encouraging my students to take intellectual and emotional risks, to develop empathy and to travel abroad using language to expand their views of themselves and their places as world citizens.

I love the Spanish language, the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world, the experiences speaking Spanish has afforded me and the people who have come into my life because of it. As I learned Spanish, I learned about myself and about the human condition. I came to understand how many ways there are of being in the world and how many ways there are of thinking and of expressing the human experience. I find deep satisfaction in leading students to do something so inherently human – that is to communicate – but in a new way, with different words, a different mindset, and a new world view. That we can do all these things through language constantly amazes me.

Course Information

The course covers four lessons each quarter designed to strengthen the students' language skills and further develop their cultural competency. This is an Intermediate level course and is taught as a "cluster" in which students in Spanish IV, V, and VI attend. The course is conducted entirely in Spanish so you are encouraged to use Spanish at all times.

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate comprehension of the target language spoken at an average speed by native and non-native speakers, which may include some idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms within any context. Comprehension increases at the 222 level, achieving more accuracy and precision at the 223 level.
- Demonstrate understanding of class lectures and authentic audio/video material (radio, TV programs, interviews, news broadcasts, documentaries, or films) in the target language with ease, where materials are introduced by pre-listening or viewing activities where new vocabulary and/or background information may be provided to aid the oral comprehension. At the 222 and 223 levels, both verbal and non-verbal messages are more easily decoded.
- Demonstrate the ability to take part in discussions communicating effectively in mostly informal, openended situations, with adequate control of grammar, using a variety of sentence structures and appropriate vocabulary related to topic at hand with clear pronunciation and intonation.
- Demonstrate the ability to express thoughts and ideas in writing in an organized manner, using syntax appropriate to target language, employing a variety of sentence structures, with adequate control of modes and tenses, with increased elegance of style, complexity of expression, originality of ideas, and precision in spelling and punctuation at the 222 and 223 levels.

- Demonstrate ability to understand authentic edited or unedited written material of popular or literary texts of various genres: describing, and summarizing content, discerning main idea, author's tone, purpose, audience, message, and cultural value, formulate a simple critique. Demonstrate more effective use of reading strategies (cognates, prior knowledge, visuals, etc) in aiding comprehension.
- Demonstrate awareness of the similarities and differences among Hispanic cultures, with increased sensibility and appreciation of their customs, ideas, and values as compared to one's own. Demonstrate increased awareness and appreciation of Hispanic contribution to culture and civilization in all fields.

How Outcomes will be met

You will meet the above outcomes if you complete your assignments, participate in class, and do the following:

- Follow the 221, 222, 223 sequence of courses without interruption beginning in the Fall if possible.
- Study something related to Spanish every day of the week for 1-2 hours per day. Try to hear, speak, read, write, and memorize vocabulary every day.
- Always begin with the assigned sections in the Textbook before coming to class. Prepare them so you can discuss, ask questions and participate. Write out vocabulary and take notes on paper or in the margins of your book.
- Go next to the Workbook. Complete all the activities in the assigned section for that day after class. Use your textbook as a reference tool to complete the workbook exercises.
- Do Lab Manual assignments after the workbook. Listen to the Lab MP3s online as many times as it takes. You are training your ear, and that takes time and repetition.
- Do the Video Manual early in the chapter or later when you have a better grasp of vocabulary. You can check your comprehension by occasionally using the Spanish subtitles while watching the video.
- Keep up with the worksheets, verb tables, and Power Points lectures posted on the Canvas site. I will post answer keys to some of the worksheets and verb tables too.
- Explore the extra stuff that will make this language fun and interactive conversations with native speakers, web sites, music, movies, newspapers, magazines, radio AM 1360/Radio Sol. Consider joining the Latin American Culture Club (LACC) at Bellevue College. Visit Student Programs in C building to inquire about it or their website.

If we spoke a different language, we would perceive a somewhat different world. - Ludwig Wittgenstein

Classroom Learning Atmosphere

Instructor's Expectation

In the event that I must cancel class, I will leave instructions and homework assignments on our class website on Canvas. You must check the website on days when class is cancelled, and you must keep up to date.

Language is a social endeavor, and so I expect that you engage with me and your classmates in a way that provides the practice you will all need to succeed. Also, in order to make our class time the most efficient and enjoyable possible, I have certain behavioral expectations for my students.

- Please turn off music listening devices, pagers and cell phones during class. Texting in my class is strictly forbidden.
- You may bring drinks or food into class but you must dispose properly of the trash.
- The following are disruptive behaviors which will negatively affect your grade and may even get you kicked out of class if they become a habit:

texting during class, forgetting to turn off cell phones, arriving late, yawning loudly and/or sleeping, constant chatting with classmates, studying for another class

Affirmation of Inclusion

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination. We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect. http://bellevuecollege.edu/about/goals/inclusion.asp

My classroom is an LGBTQ safe space where I welcome your individuality and will defend your right to be yourself in the spirit of learning and in an environment of mutual respect. I am here to teach and you are all here to learn, and I am committed to maintaining an environment wherein we all feel safe to do so.

Division Statements

For a detailed guide to policies and expectations, please read the Arts and Humanities Division Handbook at http://www.bcc.ctc.edu/ArtsHum/studentinfo.html

Drop Procedure:

If you decide to drop a course, you are responsible for doing the required paperwork at the Student Services Center. Should you fail to do so, your name will appear on the final roster and your instructor will be required to assign a grade for you—in most cases, that will be an "F." Many instructors, in fact, feel strongly that students who take up seats in this unproductive way are keeping more serious students from getting an education, so they use "F" grades for "phantoms."

Student Code

"Cheating, stealing and plagiarizing (using the ideas or words of another as one's own without crediting the source) and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to: talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Vice President of Student Services for possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College. Specific student rights, responsibilities and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct, available in the office of the Vice President of Student Services." The Student Code, Policy 2050, in its entirety is located at: http://bellevuecollege.edu/policies/2/2050_Student_Code.asp j Bienvenidos a clase y muy buena suerte !

"Ahora ella podía decidir qué se decía y qué se callaba. Qué se afirmaba y qué se negaba. Qué se daba a conocer y qué se mantenía en secreto, y en ese momento ése era su principal problema. No sólo se trataba de decir o no decir o de sustituir un nombre por otro, sino que al hacerlo se corría el riesgo de cambiar el significado de las cosas. Al traducir, Malinalli podía cambiar los significados e imponer su propia visión de los hechos y, al hacerlo, entraba en franca competición con los dioses, lo cual la aterrorizaba."

"Muere lentamente

quien se transforma en esclavo del hábito repitiendo todos los días los mismos trayectos, quien no cambia de marca, no se atreve a cambiar el color de su vestimenta o bien no conversa con quien no conoce." Pablo Neruda
