Course Description:

ASL 121 is a five credit, transferable, college level, language course. It is an introduction to American Sign Language (ASL) and the community of people who use it. As a second language, ASL 121 also covers fundamental issues of basic human language, grammar and communication. Above all, it is a class that requires your attendance, involvement, and practice if you plan to succeed. Success in this class will bring you valuable skills that will enrich your life significantly, by introducing you to a unique, diverse, rich culture that coexists throughout North America, namely Deaf community, empowering you to connect with members of that community by means of a natural language, and broaden your understanding of human communication, culture, and language.

Required Texts: You must bring these texts to class daily!

Signing Naturally Units 1-6. Smith, Lentz, Mikos (2008) Dawn Sign Press
1001 Signs for ASL Students, Volume 1 (ASL 121 Course Packet & DVD)

Web Resources: Many of your class guidelines, assignments, homework, and handouts are accessible to you only through the internet. You will need to check frequently to find the resources you need. You can find these important materials in CANVAS: check it frequently for class handouts, study guides, homework, and more.

Winter Quarter: January 2 – March 20

NO CLASSES:

Monday January 21- MLK Day
Monday February 18- Professional Day
Final Exam: March 18 11:30am- 1:20pm

Your first Assignment is hidden in this document. You will find your instructions as you read through your SYLLABUS.

ASL CLASS REALITY CHECKLIST

READING: Be ready to commit to your class reading!

Because our classroom will be striving for a voiceless environment, your access to information about Deaf culture, ASL Grammar, and tools for learning ASL as a second language will depend upon your reading proficiency and commitment to your study schedule. Reading is a vital part of your success; this is not a light reading class.

SCHEDULE: Stay on top of the class schedule!

Don't let major assignments, quizzes, and homework assignments sneak up on you. The schedule may change through the quarter, if you miss class, you may miss a schedule change. Your instructor will inform you due dates of assignments, homework, and/or projects throughout the quarter.

SIGNING, CULTURE & RESPECT:

ASL: If you want to learn it, you have to earn it. Use it every day, and get to know the people who call it their own.

DEAF-WORLD! You are earning college credit for learning the language of the DEAF-WORLD... you cannot expect to do that without contact with Deaf Folks. Your culture contact requirements are designed to encourage you to venture out into the DEAF-WORLD, but only YOU can make it happen for yourself. You will explore and step out into the world of ASL users...you cannot master ASL by limiting your exposure to the language to the time you spend sitting in the classroom. Your success in this class depends not only upon your experience with ASL, but also upon your experience with people who use it fluently.

Respect: I expect you to respect this language and the people who use it. Learning in the DEAF-WAY means maintaining visual awareness, keeping a silent environment (it's incredibly rude to speak in the presence of Deaf people without signing) and learning how to learn in that environment. If you plan to be successful in this class, you will work actively on your ability to communicate manually/visually and to increase your knowledge of DEAF social etiquette to the point where you feel safe enough to approach and converse with Deaf people.

Cheating: I expect you to respect the integrity of your education. As per college guidelines, any student suspected of cheating will receive no points for that test or assignment. Multiple occurrences will result in expulsion. The most common form of cheating is glancing at your neighbor's paper during a quiz. It is not only your responsibility to avoid cheating, but avoiding the appearance of cheating as well. Remember, this is an ASL class. ASL teacher's look into your eyes as part of the language; we will notice if those eyes are focused on another's work. You can best protect yourself by keeping space between yourself and your neighbors during quizzes.

SYLLABUS assignment: Write me a short paper answering the questions that you find on the next pages.

Course Outcomes: In the course of this class the student will develop and improve basic knowledge of grammatical constructs, rules, and functions of American Sign Language through usage, responses, translations and application in classroom conversation, receptive exams and expressive assignments.

At the end of this course the students will be able to...

- + Demonstrate understanding of fundamental definitions of deaf culture and knowledge of the deaf community through interactions and written work.
- + Demonstrate knowledge of basic issues common to American deaf culture, its history and values, through written work (reports, tests, group work and videos). Also identify elements of deaf culture that are different from or similar to their own and identify elements of deaf family life that are different from or similar to their own family lives.
- + Explain and illustrate the substrates of a natural language as opposed to artificial languages or codes.
- + Demonstrate knowledge and comprehension of fundamental ASL language functions, grammatical structures and general principles of human language functions that apply not only to ASL but also to various natural languages. (Grammatical Elements -noun, verb, adjective, adverb, pronoun, preposition, subject, object, topic, comment).
- + Demonstrate knowledge and comprehension of the rules governing the use of fingerspelling and ASL numbers by correct responses and translations in conversations and exams and correct application in conversations and expressive assignments.
- + Translate ideas from ASL to English and English to ASL and demonstrate their skill through quizzes, exams, class presentations, and interactions.
- + Recognize and understand correct use of ASL through daily practice of core vocabulary by correct responses, translations and application in classroom conversation, receptive exams and expressive assignments.
- + Start your SYLLABUS assignment paper with the following sentences:
“Everything I need to know about this class is right here in my syllabus!
I can look up the answer just as easily as I can ask my instructor. ”

I strongly suggest that every effort is made to meet outside of class to practice elements of the language and Deaf culture introduced in class. Students who use the language in a natural setting outside of the classroom improve their receptive and expressive skills much more quickly than those who do not.

Fact: “A” students join study groups.

Respect & Diversity

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination.

MY CLASSROOM is an LGBTQ Safe Space where I welcome your individuality, and I will defend your right to be yourself in the spirit of learning and in an environment of mutual respect.

We are all here to learn. I am committed to maintaining an environment wherein we all feel safe to do so

On your syllabus assignment paper, tell me what you like about ASL so far and what grade you expect to get in ASL 121. What percentage do you need to get that grade?

Grading: Your grade is a numerical reflection of the effort and dedication that you invest toward your learning of this subject and your ability to apply what you have learned. You are the only person responsible for your grade. The sum of all of your work points comprises this numerical value that is your grade. As per BC policy, you will receive a letter grade after the completion of the quarter. This letter grade is assigned as an equivalent to your total earned numerical points. You must have no less than 60% of all possible points to receive a passing grade in this class.

You must achieve a minimum of a C grade to transfer to the next level of ASL.

Your Class Schedule is available on-line.

It will be posted and periodically updated on CANVAS.

Attendance: Your attendance is required if you are to succeed in any language class. ASL 121 is no exception. Because the language is visual and manual, your eyes, body and mind must be present or you cannot learn. Your participation in class activities is a required part of your attendance. American Sign Language is all about communication and communication is the interaction between individuals sharing information. A book or videotape can never provide this communication environment. If for any reason you miss a class, it is your responsibility to contact a classmate and find out what was missed. If you missed a handout it is your responsibility to make a copy of that handout from a fellow student or to contact the instructor for a copy. Make-ups are not possible for missed tests or quizzes. Your attendance will be recorded by your name and signature on the Attendance sheet at the beginning of class. You will be counted present with your signature AND if you are present for the entire class period. Your percentage of attendance will be factored into your final grade and will earn you part of your Participation percentage. Showing up late and leaving early are disruptive to the class. Please be on time! You will be allowed to use your free passes, if needed. If you will miss more than one class due to any medical reason, please bring a doctor's note.

Quizzes: 10 % of your grade will be earned through quizzes that will occur regularly throughout the quarter. Every quiz is an opportunity for you to accumulate more points toward your total grade. Your quizzes include:

Signing Naturally Units 1-4	4
Culture & Grammar	4
Fingerspelling	10

Signing Naturally is the main text of this class. A combination workbook and video, it gives you out-of-class exercise in reception, translation, and understanding not only of American Sign Language, but of the culture that uses it: American Deaf Culture. It is your responsibility to work and re-work the lessons until the information becomes completely understandable to you. You MUST stay abreast of scheduled workbook assignments and bring to class any questions that arise. Not all exercises in the chapter will be done in class, nevertheless, you will be responsible for all of the material in the assigned chapter. Reading and practicing is your responsibility. Your ability to follow through on this responsibility will be measured by means of regular Signing Naturally Quizzes. These quizzes will include vocabulary and grammar from the assigned chapters of your workbook. There will be a total of four Signing Naturally quizzes. We will cover Units 1-4.

Cultural/Grammar Quizzes: Throughout the quarter, you will be quizzed on information from class lecture information and your assigned text readings directed at the exploration of issues in the culture of Deaf Americans and the Grammar of their language. There will be four multiple-choice quizzes.

Fingerspelling: Fingerspelling quizzes require your attendance. A total of 11 quizzes are scheduled throughout the quarter. Each quiz is worth 10 points. Your lowest score will be dropped. Missed quizzes cannot be made up. On your syllabus assignment write this sentence: "I understand that fingerspelling quizzes are my responsibility and if I am absent I may miss one and it cannot be made up, but I do get to throw out my worst score!"

Home Work: Homework will be assigned to you as a take-home learning/practice experience. Homework assignments are designed as a learning tool for students rather than a testing tool of ability. Points are assigned by timeliness and effort put into the assignment rather than being graded for right or wrong. All homework are to be submitted electronically via CANVAS and are due before the next class by 11:30am. Late work will not be accepted for full points.

Receptive Skills Exams:

Your receptive skills exam will take place during the last week of the quarter. The instructor will produce signed sentences (in person or on video tape) using vocabulary and grammar presented in class. Students will be expected to translate these passages into written English.

Expressive Skills Exercises & Exams:

Expressive skills are your ability to produce understandable sign language. To demonstrate your improving ability you will work in small groups. You will prepare your exercises outside of class and practice with a partner. Each assignment will be clearly defined as it is assigned (see CANVAS). Points are earned for following instructions, preparation and participation. Exams will be explained as they are assigned.

Papers:

You will be writing several papers this quarter. As we know, ASL is not a written language; therefore you will be writing your papers in English. You are expected to be familiar with college level writing and will be held to that standard.

Cultural Contact Paper: A Cultural Endeavor!

Practical application of your sign language skills is required this quarter. You are required to have a minimum of 3 contacts totaling 6 hours of Deaf/ASL contact this quarter to provide you first-hand experience with American Deaf culture, and hopefully to introduce you to new friends. These contacts are designed to build your confidence in your ability. You will keep a journal of these experiences, and write a brief reaction/reflection paper analyzing your contact experience. It is due at the end of the quarter and is worth 100 points. You will find the requirements and guidelines for this assignment on CANVAS.

Expressive Project Self-Evaluation Paper Following your expressive projects, you will integrate the feedback of your peers through a self-evaluation of your learning experience.

Classroom Protocol (what I expect of your behavior):

Please Read the Arts & Humanities Student Expectations and Policies:

<http://www.bcc.ctc.edu/artshum/policy.html>

Participation Points: On your SYLLABUS assignment paper tell me 3 ways that participation points can be lost. A total of 20% of your grade will be earned by being in class (Attendance), following directions, participating in class activities (Participation), doing your homework (and turning it in on time), and satisfactorily completing Expressive Exams and self-assessment assignments such as self-graded practice quizzes. These points can also be taken away by speaking in class without permission (see "Voiceless-ness") or for disrespectful or disruptive behavior (such as texting or falling asleep).

Voiceless-ness!: During the class, the use of voices is prohibited. Your voice is not invited to the class. The Instructor will allow voice only when necessary for discussions and students may be invited to do likewise; however, one cannot learn ASL by practicing spoken English. That is why a silent environment will be maintained throughout the class, unless otherwise established by the instructor. Upon the teacher's discretion, a penalty of 5 points per infraction may be implemented for students who speak in class without the teacher's permission. Whispering is not allowed. On your SYLLABUS assignment, write the sentence: "Whispering and side conversations are disrespectful to my teacher and fellow students; I am a respectful citizen!"

You are expected to assist your classmates and facilitate their effective learning by letting them wrestle with their own questions. Whispering answers to them does not help them learn anything. And it irritates your instructor!

When you have questions... ASK RYDER!
Not the person sitting next to you!

Respect of Others: I expect courtesy, attentiveness, maturity, and a willingness to learn. In demonstrating these traits you will earn my respect as a responsible adult, and be treated accordingly. I will not tolerate your interference in another student's learning experience. That includes, distracting noise or behavior, cell-phone use, texting, whispering, insults, cruelty, harassment (of any kind), or ridicule. I am sure that you as a responsible adult will not tolerate these things either. I whole-heartedly believe that learning requires trust and courage. My classroom is a place where your well-intentioned errors are welcomed. Sometimes, mistakes are funny and laughter follows naturally, good-natured laughter is welcomed, especially where we learn to laugh at ourselves -- with our classmates, but not AT them. Keep in mind that no one feels free to take risks in an environment where they fear being ridiculed or criticized and learning requires risk-taking. You are responsible for creating the kind of open environment where you, yourself, feel free to make mistakes, and find understanding, and support from those around you.

“It is very wrong to say that you understand a thing when you do not.”

~Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, 1836

Mistakes: “Dare to be wrong!” I expect all students to make mistakes in the process of learning a new language. The mistakes that you make while learning any language are not only inevitable, they are invaluable! Do not hold yourself back for fear of being wrong! Your best efforts speak for themselves. The errors you make in understanding, or producing sentences show me which properties of the language you have conquered successfully and which ones are still under development. Do not assume that other students in the class have an advantage over you. Most of them are probably right in the same boat rowing (or sometimes fishing) right along side of you. Your mistakes can be learning experiences for your classmates as well. Although you probably won’t be making any mistakes that I haven’t seen before, errors that you make in a good faith attempt may seem novel to your classmates, and understanding the mistakes of another can be a very useful way of getting to the root of a concept with which you, yourself, are struggling. Always do your best. Apply what you have learned, but set yourself free to learn more than you know by letting yourself try your best. In short: “Dare to be Wrong!”

“Listening” Skills: □ Stay alert and follow all conversations that take place in and around the classroom. Remember that exposure to the language is your best opportunity to learn it. Whether the conversation is involving you directly or not, it is another chance to practice your receptive skills. In other classes, we have learned to ignore exchanges between other students or between the instructor and another student when the issue does not concern us, in fact, it’s considered impolite to “eavesdrop”. But in ASL, since it is a visual language, any conversation held in the presence of signing people is considered to be public in nature. Every exchange in class is an opportunity for you to follow a conversation and practice your new skills.

Active Listening Behaviors: Certain “active listening” behaviors are expected as part of American Sign Language. That is, certain manual (Oh-I-See; Huh?; Wow; Really?) and non-manual signals (Nodding; Facial Expression; Mouth Movements) are not only ways of showing the signer that you understand, but also it is a Social Norm! ~ Part of the culture. Blank looks or lack of active listening behaviors will not only interrupt the conversation (such as causing your instructor to stop and ask if you understand, or needlessly repeat the information), but can be interpreted as rudeness in many social situations.

Try to understand every thing that you are reading or learning, or that anybody says to you, and then you will improve fast; and then you will become wise, and I hope also, good and happy. I am your friend.

How to fail this class:

Failing this class is no simple task, but it is possible. To fail this class, all you need to do is miss class often. Material comes quickly and is comprehensive. You miss one day and there's no telling how far behind you will fall, and there is a "snowball" effect. Information missed in one week can come back to haunt you weeks later. Here are some things other students have done to help fail this class:

- + Miss class and you'll miss important information and practice time.
- + Cheat
- + Do not practice outside of class.
- + Don't participate in class.
- + Do not read your texts on time.
- + Turn in work late.
- + Be disrespectful of ASL, Deaf Culture or your fellow students.

How to get an A:

Getting an A in this class is no simple task, but it is possible. In years of watching students with all kinds of learning styles, personality types, and study habits, I have seen many students succeed in ASL classes. I have noticed that "A" students have certain behaviors in common. Here's what they'd tell you to do if you want to get an A:

- + Maintain excellent attendance; miss no tests, quizzes or homework.
- + Read your SYLLABUS—know what's expected of you.
- + Read your class schedule, know what's expected and when.
- + Read your texts and bring questions to class.
- + Practice ASL outside of class: study groups; interact with ASL students, Deaf Friends.
- + Fall in love with ASL.

Resources/Class Website: It is the Student's responsibility to frequently check CANVAS for resources and class materials. Study guides and other documents that will help you succeed in this class are also posted on CANVAS.

SYLLABUS Assignment: If you have not found your SYLLABUS assignment instructions, go back to the first page and look again. Some of the instructions are hidden in the descriptions of other assignments. There are 6 things that I have asked you to include in this assignment paper. This paper is due Wednesday, September 26 at the beginning of class.

Lastly, on your syllabus assignment, type the following statement:

“ I, (your name here), acknowledge that I have read and understood the syllabus of this ASL course. In particular, I have read and understood the sections on class participation and the use of voices in the classroom.”
