Description

This studio focuses on a public gallery space—The Maryhill Museum's Rodin Collection. You are expected to produce a creative design solution which meets the space, light, acoustical, and thermal needs of a fine art collection. You will develop concepts to meet these design goals and apply theoretical knowledge and technical skills to your design solutions.

Content

- · Lectures and demonstrations within the design studio environment
- · Student presentations of design projects
- · Formal and informal design reviews
- · Oral presentations throughout the class
- · Site specific research and sketching

Outline

Research

Establish the Project Requirements and Context Research Auguste Rodin & Maryhill Museum Research site, code, and project constraints

Concept Design

Establish a core design concept based on your research Express your design concept through a series of models

· Design Development

Develop designs for space, lighting, thermal and acoustical requirements Adapt your concept models to meet all of the project requirements

Final Presentation

Fully reconcile your concept with the project requirements
Drawings and models documenting your concept and design solution

Outcomes

- · Identify and solve problems, issues and concerns of non-residential environments.
- Understand and apply codes, zonings, laws, and regulations appropriate to building type and location.
- Develop and communicate design intent for non-residential interior environments.
- Apply and identify products, materials, furnishings, fixtures and equipment that are appropriate for non-residential use.

Academic Honesty

The principle of academic honesty underlies all that we do and applies to all courses at Bellevue College. One kind of academic dishonesty is plagiarism, which may take many forms, including, but not limited to, using a paper written by someone else, using printed sources word-for-word without proper documentation, and paraphrasing or summarizing the ideas of others without acknowledging the source as well as submitting work from a prior class. Plagiarism can also occur when non-written ideas are taken without documentation--using someone else's design or performance idea, for example.

In short, plagiarism amounts to intellectual theft--whether or not it was your intention to steal. Participating in academic dishonesty in any way, will result in severe penalties. Dishonestly produced papers and documents automatically receive a grade of "F" without the possibility of make-up. The Dean of Student Services will also be notified of such conduct. Individual instructors will clarify documentation requirements for specific assignments. If you have any doubts as to whether you are documenting properly, do not hesitate to consult your instructor.

Grading

Each student will come to the class with a certain skill set, hopefully you will leave with a considerably larger one. Quality of work and grading is not gauged according to other students, rather it is determined from the individual skill sets of each student. I will however gauge the amount of effort and participation a student shows against other students, so in a sense you are competing against others for 10% of your grade. Your final grade in this class will be calculated based on the percentages and numerical values listed below. I will grade each assignment based on outlined project requirements and return it to you in a timely manner as a record of your status in the class. I will hold the grading of attendance, effort and class participation until the end of the quarter to allow for an overall perspective. Work is to be turned in on time, as scheduled. Late work will not be accepted, graded or commented on. If you have a conflict with any deadline, I usually ask that your project be submitted ahead of time. LATE WORK WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED GRADED OR COMMENTED ON - NO EXCEPTIONS.

Syllabus

Grading (Continued)

If you have any questions or concerns about your grades, please see me as soon as possible. Please be aware that simply attending class and completing the required assignments will not entitle you to a "A" in this class. Doing what is required of you is not outstanding, it is satisfactory and will thus entitle you to a "C" in this class. If you have any questions, please review the grading policy of the school at: http://bellevuecollege.edu/catalog/enroll/grades.asp An "Incomplete" grade may be awarded only in cases where extenuating circumstances have prevented the student from completing no more than one of the projects or tests for the quarter. To be eligible for an "I" grade, the student must have prior approval of the instructor. Questions about grades, including an approximation of the letter grade earned to date, will be welcomed at any time during the quarter.

Grading Breakdown

- · Attendance, effort, class participation 10%
- Research Projects 15%
- Midterm Project & Presentation 35%
- · Final Project and Presentation 40%

Studio Requirements

This is a professional program that demands a professional attitude. Your attendance is mandatory. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class with a sign-in sheet, you are responsible to sign-in at the beginning of each class period. You should be on time for class, as it shows respect for yourself and fellow classmates. Later in the quarter, if you choose not to review your progress with me, you must still sign in on the list and simply note "no talk" next to your name. LATE WORK WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED, GRADED OR COMMENTED ON - NO EXCEPTIONS.

You should be prepared to present your work at the beginning of every class, your participation in class is required, you all have opinions and I wish to hear them. There are no wrong questions or wrong answers in this class. If you do not understand an assignment, concept or method, it is your responsibility to let me know. My office hours are posted on My office door, use them or lose them.

IF A VERBAL PRESENTATION IS PART OF AN ASSIGNMENT, YOU MUST PRESENT IN CLASS IN ORDER TO HAND IN THE ASSIGNMENT. NO ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED IF YOU HAVE NOT PRESENTED THE WORK IN CLASS AS SCHEDULED

In order for your work to communicate your true intentions it is vital that you bring a complete concept to class each week -whether or not the whole of the project is finished. Your work must be well thought out and appear neat and professional. Good craft is critical. Anyone dropping this course beyond the time allowed by the college will receive a failing grade and will have to repeat the course at a future time. This is to save everyone wasted time and effort. This is a studio course, and therefore very time and labor intensive. Please be realistic about your class scheduling. Please be aware of and review all other requirements for both the Arts and Humanities Division and Bellevue College found online at: http://bellevuecollege.edu/artshum/ahgdlns-stdntgrwth.htm and http://bellevuecollege.edu/artshum/policy.html

Recognition of Syllabus

The syllabus is a contract between the student and instructor, establishing the learning outcomes and context, as well as the expected conduct, rights, and responsibilities of students in this class. It is important that you understand and are prepared for the learning experience ahead by understanding the syllabus contents.

Please sign below, as confirmation that you've read the syllabus and that you will discuss with the instructor any issues that you consider confusing, problematic, or open to dialogue with the entire class. If your discussion is of a personal nature, please make an appointment with me, rather than discuss it during class.
