Information Technology & Administrative Management Bachelor of Applied Science Degree

Articulation Agreement Between Central Washington University & Bellevue College

This Articulation Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into by and between Bellevue College (hereafter referred to as “BC”) and Central Washington University (hereafter referred to as “CWU”), each individually a “Party” and collectively the “Parties”. This Agreement shall have an effective date (“Effective Date”) as of the last signature received.

The Parties wish to collaborate in order to facilitate the transfer and degree completion of students earning the following an Associates of Applied Science (“AAS”) and/or Associates of Applied Science – Transfer (“AAS-T”) degrees at BC to the Information Technology and Administrative Management Bachelor of Applied Science degree (“BAS-ITAM”) at CWU:

- Accounting AAS, AAS-T
- Artificial Intelligence AAS-T
- Business Management AAS, AAS-T
- Business Analysis Technology AAS
- Digital Marketing AAS-T
- Digital Media Arts AAS
- Information Technology AAS-T
- Marketing Management AAS-T
- Software Development AAS-T

This Agreement will increase flexibility and educational opportunities for students, allow for the maximum transfer of credit between the schools, aid in a transition from one program to another, and uplift enrollment for BC and CWU. The Parties enter into this Agreement in the spirit of cooperation and mutually recognize each other as quality, postsecondary institutions.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties agree as follows:

- 1. Transfer Credit. CWU and BC agrees to transfer credit using the criteria outlined on CWU’s Transfer Equivalency Site \(TES\)

2. Admission to CWU. It is agreed that those students who receive a degree listed on page 1 at BC and meet all of the criteria listed below will be accepted, contingent upon completing program requirements at CWU into the BAS ITAM program. Final admission to CWU will also be dependent on the BC student's timely submission of all required application materials, including proof of completed program prerequisites.

3. Participant Criteria. The criteria that shall be met by students seeking to participate in the Agreement are as follows:

- Students must meet all program requirements prior to transfer into the above mentioned AAS, AAS-T, and BAS degrees. BC students are eligible upon completion of the AAS or AAS-T degree with a grade point average of 2.0 or higher in all required courses. All prerequisites must attain a grade of 2.0 or C.
- All students must fill out the suitable CWU application by the institution's prescribed deadline to be reviewed for admission into CWU. Additional BC students who are eligible may be granted acceptance on a space available basis after the application deadline.
- All students must fill out the suitable CWU BAS-ITAM application by the institution's prescribed deadline to be reviewed for admission into the program.
- Students who elect to pursue a different degree program at CWU will be subject to re-evaluation of transferrable credits and will forfeit any credits not transferrable to CWU outside of this Agreement per standard policies on credit transfer.

4. CWU's Obligations. CWU agrees to use reasonable efforts to:

- Make promotional materials and information available to its students regarding the AAS and AAS-T degrees at BC, including flyers, invitations to campus events, application information, and advising contact information.

5. BC's Obligations. BC agrees to use reasonable efforts to:

- Make promotional materials and information available to its students regarding the CWU BAS-ITAM program, including flyers, invitations to campus events, early admissions plan letter, application information, and advising contact information.
- Provide opportunities for a representative from CWU to interact with potential students.

6. The Parties' Joint Obligations. CWU and BC agree to use reasonable efforts to:

- Encourage and maintain a high degree of cooperation between their staff members in the implementation of the terms and provisions of this Agreement. This may include the exchange data and documents in compliance with all FERPA and other privacy guidelines that will contribute to the maintenance and improvement of this articulation Agreement and promote effective cooperation between the two institutions.
- Communicate the conditions of this Agreement to their respective stakeholders - external and internal.
- Provide links on their institutional websites indicating the existence of this Agreement.

- Undertake a three (3) year evaluation of the partnership supported by this Agreement and use the findings to improve the transfer process for students.
- Maintain their respective individual accreditation with the understanding that this Agreement shall be binding only so long as accreditation is maintained by both Parties.
- It is agreed upon and understood that each party has the right and responsibility to make changes to its curricula and enrollment standards to maintain its academic integrity and meet accreditation standards. Such changes, if any, will be communicated in writing between respective administrators as they occur.
- Grant the right to use each other's names, marks, logos in print and media advertising for the purpose of marketing the program described herein. All materials must be approved by the respective communications and/or marketing offices at the partner institution prior to the publishing and distribution by BC and/or CWU which specifically references this Agreement or makes any general representation of each other's institution.

7. Review & Termination. The term of this Agreement shall be for three (3) years, beginning on the "Effective Date". The Parties agree to review this Agreement and the program once during this period at a time mutually convenient for the Parties, but aiming for during the 2nd year of this Agreement's term. Notification of revisions to BC's current and anticipated course offerings will also be sent to the other college during the above review period. A Letter of Review will be sent between 30 and 60 days prior to contract expiration to ensure both parties can continue to fulfill the terms of this Agreement or if contract revisions may be required. This Agreement can be terminated by either party by giving written notice to the other party's designated representative at least 60 days prior to the commencement of a new academic quarter.

8. Notices. All notices concerning this Agreement and understanding shall be in writing, and will be considered to have been given at the time of receipt of notice by the other Party.
