Academic Regalia

Academic regalia refers to the clothing worn during academic ceremonies at colleges and universities. It's historically traced to 12th century English universities. In the United States, from colonial times until the civil war, students wore gowns to class on a daily basis. In 1893, a system was established to create a uniform code for caps, gowns and hoods which designate various degrees and the sources of the degrees. Today's academic dress is established by the American Council on Education which approves the Intercollege Commission guidelines on academic costume.

Gowns

There are three types of gowns: bachelor's gowns, master's gowns and Ph.D. gowns. Associate degree students wear bachelor's gowns. The sleeve style distinguishes the three types of gowns. A bachelor's degree gown has typical straight bottomed sleeves. A master's degree gown features an unusual sleeve style with oblong sleeves and an arc cut away with a slide for the wrist opening. Doctoral robes are characterized by a bell shaped sleeve that is trimmed with three bars of velvet across the sleeve.

Hoods

Hood types are distinguished by their length. Master's hoods are three and one-half feet long, and Doctor's hoods are four feet in length. The lining of the hood represents the official colors of the school from which the wearer earned their degree. The velvet colors indicate the field of study.

Caps

There are two styles of caps worn at academic ceremonies. An academic tam is a type of flat cap worn with doctoral regalia. It may come with four, six or eight sides and is made of velvet. All other degree regalia is worn with the mortarboard.

Honor Cords

Honor cords are two intertwined lengths of gold cording. They are awarded to Bachelor degree students who have achieved a 3.6 GPA or higher, and to Associate degree and certificate students who have achieved a 3.5 GPA or higher.

Red, white and blue cords are worn by graduating veterans who are recognized for their academic achievement and service to the country.

Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society members have the option of wearing Phi Theta Kappa cords or wearing a Phi Theta Kappa stole.

Stoles

Recognized student associations and programs that support academic achievement may use stoles to denote student participation.

Tassels

Tassels are worn on the right side until after a degree has been conferred, upon which time graduates move them to the left.

About the Speaker

Justice Mary I. Yu

Mary Yu was appointed to the Washington Supreme Court on May 16, 2014, and subsequently elected in 2014 and 2016. Justice Yu joined the Supreme Court after more than 14 years as a trial court judge in King County Superior Court where she presided over a wide variety of criminal, civil, and juvenile cases, and presided over hundreds of adoptions and other family law matters.

Prior to becoming a judge, Justice Yu served as Deputy Chief of Staff to King County Prosecutor Norm Maleng and as a deputy in the Criminal and Civil Divisions. Before attending law school, Justice Yu worked in the Peace and Justice Office for the Archdiocese of Chicago first as staff and later as Director of that office following her appointment to the position by Cardinal Joseph Bernardin.

Justice Yu has an extensive record of service both on and off the bench, mentoring young attorneys, law clerks, and students; co-chairing the Court's Minority and Justice Commission; chairing the Board for Judicial Administration's Public Trust and Confidence Committee; teaching at Seattle University School of Law and serving as Jurist in Residence; and co-chairing the Washington State Bar Association/University of Washington Law School Leadership Institute. Justice Yu has served on the board of FareStart from 2009 - 2018, and the advisory board for the University of Washington School of Law's Gates Public Service Program from 2014 - 2018. She was personally devoted to the Seattle Girls' School Mock Trials, serving as their judge for 17 years. Justice Yu is a member of the American Law Institute. In 2021 Seattle University School of Law established the Justice Mary I. Yu Endowed Scholarship Fund.

Justice Yu was raised in Bridgeport, a South Side neighborhood in Chicago, by immigrant parents; her mother came from Mexico and her father from China. She is the first in her family to graduate from college. She received her B.A. from Dominican University, her M.A. in Religious Studies from Mundelein College of Loyola University in Chicago, and her J.D. from the University of Notre Dame Law School. Justice Yu is the first Asian, the first Latina, and the first member of the LGBTQ community to serve on the Washington State Supreme Court.
