Your Educational Investment

Bellevue College is an excellent educational value, providing high academic quality and affordable tuition.

A college education:

- Secures your economic future: the earnings gap between young adults with and without bachelor's degrees has stretched to its widest level in nearly half a century
- Provides an expanded understanding of the world and personal growth
- Exposes you to new subjects and discovery of an interest, passion or aptitude you did not know you possess

Attending Bellevue College helps you:

- Pay lower tuition rates for your first two years of college
- Get the basic classes completed before transferring to a university
- Reduce and/or postpone student loan debt, potentially saving thousands of dollars for those who need financial assistance

How much will it cost?

Attending BC costs about one-third the cost of attending a four-year Washington state college like the University of Washington, based on the average cost to attend for two years (about 90 credits) and you can earn an associate's degree in the process!

1/3

Educational Institution	Tuition for Two Years
Bellevue College (Associate Degree)	$8,958 & fees*
Public Four-Year University (~90 credits)	$23,678 & fees

Please check www.bellevuecollege.edu/tuition/ for Non-Resident, International and Bachelor's degree rates.

*Rate based on resident tuition and mandatory fees effective at time of publishing. Figure does not include summer quarter. Always check the college website for the most current information. Figure based on the average cost for Washington residents to attend a Washington state college for two years.

Lower cost does not mean lower quality.

Research has shown that our transfer students do as well or better than students who start directly at a four-year university.

"My parents saved more than $100,000 by sending me and my siblings to Bellevue College for our first two years of college."

How to Become a BC Student

Bellevue College is an open enrollment school so getting started is easy! Your first step is applying for admissions.

We do not require SAT, ACT, high school transcripts or a minimum GPA.

We accept all students who meet requirements in one of the following categories*:

- Any applicant who has graduated from high school, or is 16 or 17 years old with a proof of a GED completion, or is 18 years of age or older.
- Currently enrolled high school students who successfully assess into college-level English. However, these students are admitted quarter-by-quarter and are not considered “continuing students” unless they have been admitted through the Running Start program.

- If you are still in high school, you may be eligible for one of BC’s High School Programs such as Running Start.

ENGLISH—COMBINATION CLASSES

ARTS & HUMANITIES DIVISION

The English Department's "combination classes" give students the opportunity to approach two topics at the same time to improve their skills and understanding of both. For example, in a 10-credit composition and literature combination, students read, discuss, analyze, and write about significant literary works. The Department recommends that students in combination classes have college-level placement unless otherwise specified.

ENGLISH COMPOSITION AND INTRODUCTION TO ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES • 10 CR

In this combined Cultural and Ethnic Studies and English composition course, we will examine the racial formation of Asian Americans in the U.S. within global and comparative contexts while working on writing assignments that focus on Asian American issues. From South Asians who arrived under the coolie system to Chinese laborers of the Gold Rush to Southeast Asians refugees, Asian America consists of diverse immigrant communities and histories, cultural practices, and political interests. Special attention will be paid to the history of Asian immigration to the U.S., class and gender relations, education and the model minority myth, and community activism. We will examine the ways in which Asian Americans have not only been racialized in relation to whiteness but also in relation to African Americans. To this end, we will take a closer look at Asian American participation in the struggles for civil and political rights and discuss comparative framework to explore Asian Americans' role in contemporary issues such as the Black Lives Matter movement. Interdisciplinary StudiesARTS & HUMANITIES DIVISION

Interdisciplinary Studies combines the study of several subjects into one integrated course or "learning community," usually for ten or more credits. Each IDS course features a theme that forms a common thread across disciplines. The focus of these courses is you. Students learn with each other and from each other by discussing readings in small groups (seminars), taking part in group activities, and, in some courses, by taking field trips. These programs emphasize the process of learning as well as course content. The student centered, discussion-oriented format encourages and supports different points of view and creates a social climate that promotes collaborative learning.

FIGHTING FOR THE PLANET: THE POLITICAL ECONOMY OF CLIMATE CHANGE • 10 CR

The science is in. Climate change is threatening life on the planet. Unless humans radically reduce the burden we place on the earth, we are headed for disaster. Unfortunately, the global community has done little to battle climate change. Indeed, key policy decisions of the last decade push us in precisely the wrong direction; calling for faster economic growth and higher levels of consumption. How is this possible? Are we in denial? Why are our leaders ignoring the facts? And, most importantly, what can you do to become more knowledgeable and engaged with environmental issues? This class will address these questions and explore the relationship between capitalism, our political system, and the nature of the environmental crisis.

Receive 10 credits from the following courses:

- ECON& 202 Macroeconomics (5 CR) OR
- ECON 250 Economics of Sustainability (5 CR) AND
- POLS& 101 Introduction to Political Science (5 CR) OR
- POLS 175 Contemporary Global Issues (5 CR) OR
