BELLEVUE
COLLEGE

Why Computer Science?

This high-paying, high demand field provides challenging and exciting opportunities affecting all professions from medicine, clean energy, automotive technology, e-commerce, entertainment, mobile apps to name a few areas. Students will gain a strong foundation along with practical application experience in a senior capstone design project.

Career Opportunities

Graduates with a Computer Science BS from Bellevue College may work in many industries as:

- Artificial Intelligence Engineers
- Computer Scientists
- Data Scientists
- Database Administrators
- Machine Learning Engineers
- Network Architects
- Software Engineers
- Systems Analysts

Application Process

Admissions into computer science is competitive and completion of the minimum prerequisites does not guarantee admissions into the major.

The application process includes two-steps:

- Application to Bellevue College
