- eLearning Instructional Design Office Hours during the quarter: Monday to Friday – 10am to 4pm
- Contact the eLearning staff using the Request Center and eLearning email Or at 425-564-4210

April 29th Monday: Canvas 201: Taking your Course to the next level!
Facilitators: Mandie Nash (Faculty, Mathematics) and Ann Minks (Faculty, Allied Health)

Registration Link | Faculty will earn 22 hours of PD time

Start date: April 29th | End Date: June 7th

Learn how to update your course navigation, organize your site to improve student experience, explore ways to review and analyze student participation in your course.

The workshop is set up to take participants through intermediate tools used during the life cycle of a course each quarter--from setup at the beginning of the quarter, to closing activities at the end of the quarter. Topics include:

Module 1: Canvas 101 Refresher | Module 2: Course Setup | Module 3: Communication and Collaboration tools

Module 4: Assessment tools | Module 5: Analysis tools (of the course and of student engagement)

Module 6: Housekeeping and End of Quarter Procedures | Module 7: Resources and Examples

This is a facilitated workshop that can be completed with minimal assistance.

Assessment, Teaching and Learning (ATL) conference May 1-3, 2019
Mandie Nash, will represent eLearning and Bellevue College. Mandie will be presenting on Improving Student Success: Using Content and Course Design to Teach Students How to Learn.

Save the date: May 31st Friday: eLearning presents an all-day Online Webinar on Canvas tools: 11am – 3pm
Join our eLearning team Online on ZOOM. We will be offering 6 sessions every 30 minutes, starting at 11am. Stay tuned for more details on this exciting Friday afternoon on ZOOM.

Our Instructional Designers and our Digital Learning staff wear many hats at Bellevue College. Our multi-talented designers and eLearning staff assist you with being creative as you develop your Canvas course, teach you the tools you need to build a student-centric home page, help you locate open education materials, get you started on recording a video or hand hold you as you prepare for an online meeting tool.

Save the date - Announcing the eLearning Summer Institute! Aug 20th and Aug 21st
Register for the 2 day event
Date: Tuesday August 20th & Wednesday August 21st | Time: 8am - 4pm | Maximum number of participants: 40
Meals: Breakfast and lunch will be provided. Breakfast will begin at 8am. The first presentation will begin at 8:30am.
Stipend: $200 for attending both days.

We will have four concurrent sessions. Facilitators will demonstrate a concept and share effective examples of activities in Canvas. Each session will have a hands-on component where you will get time to update your current Canvas course.

eLearning Committee: Applications due May 15th
We have one seat open for an eLearning Committee member position for the year 2019-2020 representing the Arts & Humanities division. Applications will be reviewed by the eLearning Director and the Faculty Council members.
The eLearning Committee members for faculty positions are selected based on the following criteria:
•Experience with online and/or hybrid teaching •Demonstrated interest in online pedagogy and instructional technology

•Demonstrated interest in participating in professional development that pertains to online learning and technology

eLearning Committee Role and Purpose:

Provide guidance and expertise necessary to develop a rich and rigorous eLearning ecosystem that produces a consistent, cohesive, quality learning experience for students; examine innovative eLearning models and initiatives, based on the most current national and local eLearning trends; and ensure the eLearning direction is directly linked to the Vision, Core Values, Mission, and Core Themes of the college.

Term: Membership term is for three years. The committee meets once a month. We have teaching and non-teaching positions. eLearning Committee members can be either part-time or full-time faculty/employees. All new applications are reviewed by the eLearning Director and the Faculty Council members. New members will notify their Program Chairs, Divisions and their Deans of their selection to serve on the eLearning Committee. If you are interested, please send us a one page letter of interest via email to Sukirti Ranade