HOUSING OPTIONS @ BELLEVUE COLLEGE

BC does not have on-campus housing at this time. If your home university or sponsor organization does not assist with housing, it is your responsibility to find it. It is best to secure your housing option before you leave your home country. BC students and scholars live in a variety of housing arrangements including apartments, homestay, and hotels.

APARTMENTS

› COST OF RENTING AN APARTMENT NEAR CAMPUS

There are several apartments near the campus within walking distance of the college or a short bus ride away. It is best to apply at least two months before you arrive as the apartments are in great demand. If interested, you should contact the apartments listed to the right for more information. Please note that furniture is not included in apartment rentals.

AVERAGE APARTMENT COST*

Studio:	$1,200-$1,500/month
1 Bedroom:	$1,300-$1,600/month
2 Bedroom:	$1,500-$1,800/month
3 Bedroom:	$1,700-$2,000/month

Does not include utilities.*

When you rent an apartment, be sure you understand the lease agreement before you sign. Many lease agreements are for six months or one year. In addition, you will probably have to pay a cleaning and damage deposit, and first and last month rent.

Bellevue College is not endorsed any particular companies or apartment complexes. These (next column) are few examples for your reference. Look online for more apartment options that meet your needs, such as Apartmentsearch.com, Apartment Guide, Apartment For Rent.

HOMESTAY

If you are interested in living with a host family, the following are agencies that work with BC. Please email the Housing Agent directly for more details about the placement fee, homestay stipend, and airport pick-up service. Do not send your housing application and placement fee to BC. It is best to apply at least two months before your arrive as it takes time to find the closest match of the host family with your request for you. It is your responsibility to communicate closely with your housing agent to arrange your own accommodation.
