The Office of Global Initiatives (GI) is pleased to announce a new program that promotes international professional development for BC faculty through participation in the CIEE International Faculty Development Seminars.

CIEE International Faculty Development Seminars (IFDS) provide faculty with access to diverse intercultural experiences and innovative approaches to the learning and problem solving that enhance syllabi, internationalize curricula and increase global understanding on campus.

GI has selected two CIEE summer seminars and is soliciting proposals from faculty who wish to attend the seminars. Through a merit based, competitive process, GI will select two faculty who can then apply to participate in the Paris and Madrid summer programs (one faculty for each program).

Seminar dates:

Paris Jul 10 – 16, 2018

Madrid Jun 10 – 16, 2018

Seminar Cost: $ 2,750

Fee includes:

- Academic program
- Accommodation in single rooms
- Two meals daily, usually breakfast and lunch.
- Welcome and farewell receptions with dinner.
- Transportation to included activities.
- Entrance fees for included excursions.
- International medical and travel insurance and 24-hour worldwide assistance provided through iNext.
- One CIEE airport pick-up and drop-off coordinated around the majority of arrivals and departures.
- Pre-departure support (including IFDS staff assistance and detailed online pre-departure).
- A comprehensive on-site orientation.

What is not included:

- Costs associated with passports, port of entry visa fees (if applicable).
- International departure taxes
- International airfare
- Ground transportation beyond one organized airport pick-up and drop-off
- Most dinners
- Baggage charges
- Incidental expenses

What will be covered by the Office of Global Initiatives award?

- CIEE application fee
- Seminar fee
- International airfare

To be considered for these opportunities:

1. Complete Section A-D of the application
2. Visit the CIEE website for more detailed description of summer programs. Specify your first choice in section B of the application. Do not complete the online CIEE application form.
3. As part of the application process, please submit a one- to two-page response to the following:
 - a. Why did you decide to apply for this program and what are your objectives for participating in the program?
 - b. How you expect to benefit professionally as a result of participating in the program?
 - c. Describe how participation in the CIEE seminar will increase your ability to effectively lead students through intercultural learning experiences.
 - d. Explain how will you continue to build on knowledge gained at the seminar and share this knowledge with the broader BC community.
 - e. Explain how you will apply the knowledge gained at the seminar.
4. Sign your name and obtain your division's chair signature in Section D.

Selection Criteria:

- Applicants must have supervisor approval for participation in the CIEE seminars and follow-up activities.
- Applications will be judged based on the relation of selected seminars to the applicant's position within the college, involvement in internationalization activities and goals of the applicant.
- The applicant's essay will be evaluated on the how thoroughly the usefulness of the training is articulated when responding to essay questions.

Selection Process:

- A competitive, merit based process will be used to select faculty who can then apply for acceptance into the CIEE seminars by March 16, 2018 deadline.
- Selection by BC does not guarantee admission to the CIEE seminar. If selected by BC the applicant becomes eligible to apply for acceptance into the CIEE seminar and will have to follow CIEE application guidelines.
