

Community Education – Instructor Availability

Bellevue College Community Education provides personal enrichment classes to adults in the Greater Eastside area. Bellevue College is a vaccinated campus and all instructors will be required to provide proof of vaccination status. Instructors will also be subject to a background check prior to hiring.

Instructors who have not been employed by the college within the last year may be required to provide a resume and three references for review, interview with the director, pass a background check, and complete new employee paperwork.

Please answer all questions, save the document and then email your availability to:

ce-programs@bellevuecollege.edu.
