

Cultural Anthropology ANTH& 206 ON-LINE

FALL QUARTER – 2013 BELLEVUE COLLEGE

SYLLABUS

Welcome to Cultural Anthropology!!! Cultural Anthropologists are social scientists who study living peoples around the world. Knowledge and understanding about the diversity of cultures is obtained through first-hand observation, or fieldwork, where anthropologists live among the people whom they study. Every aspect of being human is of interest to anthropologists, including how we make a living, how we feed ourselves, marriage and family, kinship, gender and sexuality, political organization and social control, spiritual beliefs, art, and much more. The evolving world is examined through the processes of globalization and culture change.

WHAT IS THIS COURSE ABOUT AND WHAT ARE ITS OBJECTIVES?

Anthropology 206 is a 5-credit course that introduces you to the sub-discipline of cultural anthropology. You are exposed to the basic underlying principles, theories, and methods of the field through lectures, textbook readings, discussions, activities, and quizzes. Numerous contemporary cultures, as studied by the ethnologist, will be discussed in a comparative fashion. We will also discuss how cultural anthropologists as ethnographers go about collecting their data, and the rewards and challenges of conducting fieldwork in anthropology.

COURSE OUTLINE The following topics will be covered throughout the quarter:

COURSE CATALOG DESCRIPTION

Cultural anthropologists are social scientists who learn first-hand about other cultures by living with the people under study. Topics may include social organization, economics, power and politics, race and ethnicity, language and communication, technology, religion and ritual, and sex and gender. Wide geographic coverage provides a basis for global comparisons of cultural similarities and differences between human groups.

WHO IS TEACHING THIS COURSE?

Hello! I'm Dr. Nancy Gonlin. I have a Ph.D. in Anthropology from Penn State University and have been trained in all four fields of anthropology. I have taught for 26 years; 15 at BC, and also at Eastern Washington University, The University of Georgia, Kennesaw State University, and Penn State. My fieldwork has been primarily in Latin America, but I have first-hand knowledge of dozens of different countries through my extensive travels around the globe. As a Registered Professional Archaeologist, I am an expert on the pre-Hispanic Classic Maya civilization of Mexico and Central America. Hablo Español. My research focuses on households, gender and class, ritual and ideology, tropical adaptations, and cultural ecology. You can find some of my publications in BC's library.

In the photo, I am enjoying a "dosa", a South Indian specialty with all the condiments. I was visiting relatives in Chennai, India.

HOW DO YOU CONTACT THE PROFESSOR?

Contact information: The best way to get in contact with me is through our class mail on our course site. I make every effort to return your correspondence in a timely fashion. In an emergency only, you can either call my office 425.564.2347 or send me an e-mail: nan.gonlin@bellevuecollege.edu. Be sure to provide your full name, course number & section, contact information, and details regarding the nature of your crisis.

WHAT IS THE RHYTHM OF THIS COURSE?

READ THIS SECTION VERY CAREFULLY. IF YOU CANNOT ADJUST YOUR SCHEDULE TO THE RHYTHM OF THE COURSE, YOU WILL HAVE A VERY DIFFICULT TIME SUCCEEDING IN THIS CLASS.

DEADLINES AND DUE DATES ARE NON-NEGOTIABLE. NO EXCEPTIONS FOR ANY REASON.

The on-line class has a very different rhythm from on-campus classes, and each on-line course is different from other on-line courses. In this class, the first day of the 'on-line week' begins on a Monday morning at 12:01 AM and runs until a Sunday night at 11:59 PM when all work for that week must be completed.

There are six major components to the course: 1) reading the textbook; 2) 'attending' the PowerPoint lectures; 3) discussions; 4) activities; 5) quizzes; and 6) a final comprehensive exam.

1) Reading the Textbook: it will be extremely difficult to pass this course without reading the textbook. It is up to you to decide the best time to complete each week's assigned readings.

2) 'Attending' the PowerPoint lectures: For each major section of the course, there are accompanying PowerPoint lectures that you can download and/or print. Additional information and resources are contained in these lectures, which are similar to those given in the on-campus version of this course. The PowerPoint lectures from the textbook publisher are also included in each week's material.

3) Discussions: There are two main parts to discussion. First, you must do an initial commentary (your informed analysis and scientific consideration about the discussion topic) by Friday morning, at 9:00 AM. After this first step of discussion, each student is to make a minimum of two (2) different replies on the postings of other students' initial commentaries by the end of the on-line week by Sunday, by 11:59 PM. You are NOT allowed to comment on other students' postings before Friday morning at 9:00 AM. Early replies will not count for points. All replies must be submitted between Friday 9:00 AM to Sunday 11:59 PM for credit. No late discussion commentaries or replies are accepted.

4) Activities: Fieldwork is a hallmark of anthropology so you will have your chance to complete four fieldwork activities, the times and due dates of which will be posted in the calendar. No late activities are accepted

5) Quizzes: Each quiz opens on a Thursday morning at 12:01 AM and closes on a Sunday night at 11:59 PM. There are multiple choice questions in each of the four quizzes. One hour is allotted to complete a quiz.

6) Final Comprehensive Exam: The final exam is comprehensive and covers all course materials. It will consist of multiple choice questions. It will be due no later than the first official day of final exams by 11:59 pm, within a 2-hour time frame.

WHAT TEXTBOOK & MATERIALS ARE REQUIRED FOR THIS COURSE?

1. REQUIRED TEXTBOOK (hard copy or e-copy)

Nanda, Serena and Richard L. Warms

2012 Culture Counts: A Brief Introduction to Cultural Anthropology, 2nd edition.

Wadsworth, CA. ISBN: 978-1-111-30153-8 (You MUST use the 2nd edition.)

This textbook is ideally suited for a 10-week introductory course. It is student-friendly, well written, concise, and offers a free student companion website.

2. REQUIRED STUDENT COMPANION WEBSITE

Directions are posted on page xxii of your textbook. First, go to this URL: <http://www.cengagebrain.com>

Second, search for the textbook by the title name "Culture Counts." Make sure you access the 2nd edition.

Third, press the button that says "Access." The student companion website should come up. Choose which chapter you'd like to review from the dropdown menu. You'll find quizzes and other resources here.

3. RING-BINDER NOTEBOOK (if you choose to print course materials-See Eco-Conduct below)

If you find it difficult to continuously work online, you may want to print the syllabus, calendar, each week's assignment page, and various other supporting documents. Place them in a 3-ring binder and buy a set of section dividers, with one divider for each week's assignments. Alternatively, you may want to download course materials onto a thumb drive or other device for quick reference. Print only what you feel is necessary.

4. SOFTWARE

Word Processor: Microsoft Word is the only word processor supported at the college. You must use Microsoft Word to prepare any documents to be submitted by attachment. Documents submitted in any other format cannot be read by Word and will not be accepted.

5. WEB BROWSER

You must use a Web browser supported by Canvas and it must be properly "tuned." Information about supported browsers and how to tune them is posted on the Distance Education Website (www.bellevuecollege.edu/distance/). Acceptable browsers are Google Chrome and Firefox, as well as others.

WHAT ARE THE ASSESSMENTS FOR THIS COURSE?

PLEASE NOTE: All items in a module must be completed before one can advance to the next module.

The Syllabus and Course Materials: You are required to review this syllabus, course materials, and the Procedures and Guidelines of the Social Science Division. Enrollment in the course constitutes an agreement to abide by the policies set forth in these items. By the end of the first week of the course, you should submit the Course Agreement to your professor; see Week 1 for this document. Please review all materials in the 'Start Here' module.

Reading: It is absolutely essential that you read the textbook and all assigned materials. You are responsible for your own learning and should take a vested interest in doing the best you can.

'Attending' PowerPoint lectures: Additional course information is available in a series of lectures that you can view on-line or download as you wish. These lectures are very similar to those provided on campus. They are not narrated. If you have documented medical reasons for narrated materials, contact the professor.

Discussions: In order to create a learning environment, this course will involve discussions with your classmates. For each section, you will have a discussion material to consider and two replies to contribute. Posting of your initial commentary and responding to others is critical for classroom participation and for excelling on quizzes. Please refer to the Discussion Guidelines (posted in the START HERE module) for more information.

Activities: Anthropologists are known for obtaining first-hand knowledge of humans. You will have the opportunity to do so as well through a series of activities. There are four activities that provide you the opportunity of conducting fieldwork in cultural anthropology.

Quizzes: A major part of your course grade will be derived from four quizzes. Questions are derived from assigned readings, class 'lectures', handouts, discussions, activities, and any other instructional material presented in class. It is in your best interest to be prepared and to complete each quiz in the allotted time and by each deadline. No late quizzes are accepted.

Final Exam: A comprehensive final exam will be administered at the end of the quarter. It is due no later than the first day of the final exam period at 11:59 pm. You will have two hours to complete it.

WHAT GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS ARE FULFILLED BY THIS COURSE?

The General Education requirement of "Connections" is fulfilled upon successful completion of this course.

WHAT ARE THE LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY?

If all components of this course are successfully completed on time, students will be able to:

1. Articulate an understanding of the breadth of cultural anthropology and its ties to the sciences and humanities.
2. Recognize, identify, and employ the scientific method in cultural anthropology, and to distinguish coherent arguments based on such principles from other claims.
3. Identify critical components in anthropological thought, especially in regard to ethnocentrism and cultural relativism.
4. Demonstrate knowledge of the range of contemporary human cultural variation.
5. Identify and analyze various subsystems of culture, such as subsistence, political organization, kinship, religion, etc.
6. Explain the relevance of the anthropological perspective to global issues and cultural diversity.

WHAT ACCOMMODATIONS FOR DISABILITY DOES THE COLLEGE HAVE?

"If you are a student who has a disability or a learning challenge for which you have documentation or have seen someone for treatment and if you feel you may need accommodations in order to be successful in college, please contact the Disability Resource Center staff as soon as possible. The DRC office is located in D125 (1st floor of the library) or you can call our reception desk at 425-564-2498. Deaf students can reach us by video phone at 425-440-2025 or by TTY at 425-564-4110. Please visit our website for application information into our program and other helpful links at www.bellevuecollege.edu/drc" Please let me know how I can help you; I'll be glad to do so.

HOW CAN STUDENTS BE ENVIRONMENTALLY-FRIENDLY?

Student Eco-Conduct: Students are expected to make decisions that have the smallest environmental impact while maximizing student learning. This includes:

- Think before printing documents for this class, adjust printable margins, print double sided, and reuse paper for scrap paper. Recycle all paper, bottles, and cans on campus, at home, and at work.
- Turn in papers electronically, or when necessary, turn in printed assignments double sided, single spaced and using narrow margins of at least .75 inches.
- Adjust the power settings on your computer so the monitor and CPU will sleep after 20 minutes of inactivity. Turn off all electronic devices such as computers and printers, when you are finished with them.

WHEN AND WHERE CAN YOU GET YOUR FINAL GRADE?

Students must complete all course requirements within the quarter in which the student enrolled before a final course grade will be issued. "Official grades are available approximately one week after the quarter ends. There are several ways to learn your grades: 1. BC website: www.bellevuecollege.edu/services/schedule.asp; 2. Kiosk in the Student Services Building or the Campus Info Center; 3. In person at the Student Service Ctr."
