195 Teaching and Learning Methods

We will use a variety of teaching/learning methods to achieve the goals of this course, to keep things interesting and to accommodate various learning styles. The methods may include:

200 Instructor presentation and lead discussion;

- 201 Large group discussion and problem solving;
- 202 Small group discussion and problem solving;
- 203 Speakers (when available);
- 204 Peer Learning;
- 205 Student presentations; and
- 206 Video/ multimedia. 207

208 Roles

- Within the context of the above learning methods it is expected we will generally function in the following roles.
- 212

209

- As your instructor, I will:
- 214 Work hard to help students succeed in the course;
- 215 Share knowledge and insights;
- 216 Model skills and values;
- 217 Provide feedback to students;
- 218 Lead in the course and class design;
- 219 Lead in maintaining a positive, challenging learning environment; and
- Evaluate and grade students.
- 222 I expect students will:
- 223 Work hard to achieve the goals of the course;
- Assist me in making the course a more comprehensive learning environment;
- Actively contribute to maintaining a positive, challenging learning environment;
- 226 Share knowledge; and
- 227 Cooperate and collaborate with other students.

229 Faculty Expectations

228

A survey course, like this one, is an opportunity to both learn about a number of topics you may not be familiar with, and have some fun along the way. Business law can be one of the most interesting classes you will ever take! In general, we should have some fun doing it. As you can see from above, I view my role as your instructor in a variety of ways i.e., facilitator, mentor, etc. Come to class prepared, with your questions, and draw on what experiences I can share with you. Consider this an early step in developing both knowledge and skills that will serve you and you will use in the future.

238 Class Participation and Contribution

True learning and the understanding that comes with it requires hard work, discipline, and commitment. It is not an easy task. I urge you to work regularly on our course. For a five credit course as this one is, I expect you to spend an average of 2 hours outside of class for each hour in the classroom studying which includes reading, preparing assignments, and analyzing, synthesizing, and intergrading the information of the course.⁸

245

Class participation improves your learning process and in my view is critical for this course. Through class participation, you have the opportunity to express yourself and your ideas. This process improves both your retention and your abilities to analyze and synthesize the information. Class participants are encouraged and will be rewarded for regular, thoughtful, and on point class participation.

Class contribution is different that participation. Contribution is defined in Webster as - to play a significant part in bringing about an end or result. The results for this class are noted in the leaning outcomes section

⁸ Each student should evaluate this commitment in light of their work and personal commitments and make appropriate adjustments.

- and each student can contribute to the class result. The contribution can be achieved thru; asking questions, answering questions, commenting on class content, divergent and convergent discussions on any class and book topic.
- Some anti-contribution items include late or no attendance and any other behavior that can be perceived as a class or student distraction.
- Active participation in class discussions is an important element of a collegiate program; it is evaluated by instructors and is reflected in the assignment of course grades. Participation includes the quantity and quality of comments and class discussions, lively fellowship, positive contributions to group assignments, ability to respond to questions by classmates and the instructor and ability to work as a member of a group. Students are expected to synthesize, analyze, and integrate all reading assignments. It is obvious that consistent attendance and being on time is an essential ingredient of participation.
- 266

My goal is to have this class be interactive and to share information and insights with you and you with me. This goal is best achieved by expecting everyone to participate in the class and share your ideas and insights with the class. I will expect this of each of you.

- 270 271 Attendance
- 272

273 It is important to be on time and attend class regularly. Attendance is mandatory. Excessive absences 274 and tardiness disrupt the entire class. Material on the examinations will include information and analysis 275 from our class sessions that is not necessarily included in the text. If you are not present when attendance is taken, you will not be marked as attending the class. You will need to see me directly after 276 277 that class and will be marked late. I will do this up to three (3) times for any one person. That said, 278 please do not hesitate to come to class if you are a few minutes late. Be courteous to your classmates, come in quietly, and take a seat near the door. I recognize that travel in the Seattle metropolitan area is 279 280 unpredictable. Additionally, if you are ill (flu etc.) use your best judgment as whether to attend class or 281 not attend class. If you are truly ill, please do not attend. When you will not be attending class, please 282 advise me via email.

- 283
- 284 Emails 285

Emails are my preferred way of getting in contact with me outside of class or we can meet face to face outside of class or during my office hours. All emails to me need to include in the subject line, your class, i.e. BUS&201, hour of the class, i.e. 12:30, your full name, and a brief subject, i.e. "absence". Emails sent without this information will not be readily identifiable and probably end up in a spam folder and automatically deleted. Five (5) points will be deducted from your grade on an examination for each email without this information. Due to the threat of viruses, generally I do not open attachments.

293 Preparation (General)

In concert with the concept outlined above that learning requires diligent effort and individual work. Read each reading assignment prior to class including all the cases.⁹ Consider the Questions and Case Problems at the end of the chapter. As a MINIMUM, all students are EXPECTED to have READ and ⁹ This is critical in many classes and especially so in a law class. It is also your responsibility to others in the class to be prepared so as to demonstrate you value their time and attention. One of the things that most students want is a class that engages them or is "interesting". If members of the class come to class prepared we can discuss the concepts, search out new and interesting examples as a group, and in general have an enjoyable learning experience. If class members come to class unprepared, there is little we can engage about and the classroom experience will evolve to the instructor lecturing and you listening. This is not what I want this course to be.

thought about the information provided in the assigned chapters BEFORE class commences! This is a professional responsibility to yourself and your classmates.

301 Assignments

302 303

314

344

345 346

Generally

304 305 All assignments will be completed in a professional manner and on time, unless prior arrangements have 306 been made with me. Assignments are due within the first five (5) minutes of class and will be considered 307 late if submitted after they have been collected in accordance with the policies listed below. All 308 assignments must be word processed. All assignments are to be stapled in the upper left corner. This is your only assurance that your work will not become separated and graded as incomplete. Your work will 309 not be accepted if it is not stapled together. All assignments must meet APA Format¹⁰ standards with the 310 following exceptions: (1) I prefer single spaced, and (2) the font must be black and Times New Roman or 311 312 Ariel, 10-point font. It is expected you will follow the requirements of the assignment memo. Please do 313 not use any folders or binders.

Memos: In the business world it is expected that communications be professional. Keeping this in mind will help you better communicate with others, help others better understand your work, and reflect a higher quality of work and your seriousness about it. In the business world, memoranda or "memos" are used. An email is really a memo, although less formal.

All work submitted except the reports as outlined should be in memo format. A memo heading should be used which includes who the work is being presented to, your name, the date it is submitted (not just the due date), and a subject line which includes the assignment title, your class identifier and time. See the assignment memo attached as the last two pages of this syllabus for an example of a memo header and memo format.

Any deviation from these requirements will result in deductions (at minimum one full grade) from your assignment grade.

Bellevue College and I am concerned about the recent academic trend to cite to non-authoritative sources. While it is true that citation to scholarly work demonstrates appropriate collective reasoning and analysis, some sources are unreliable as lacking thorough editing and proper peer-review. Of note in this area is the website "Wikipedia." While an excellent research tool, and jumping off point for many topics, materials from this site are not appropriate for academic citation.

All assignments will be completed in a professional manner and on time, unless prior arrangements have been made with me. Assignments are due within the first five (5) minutes of class and will be considered late if submitted after they have collected. _All assignments are to be word processed.

339 I classify assignments in two categories:

(1) Primary Assignments, i.e. those specified on this syllabus and in which an "Assignment Memo" is provided, e.g. Current Business Law Topic Memo, etc.

- (2) Daily assignments which become part of your class participation grade.
 - Primary Assignments

348 If you will be absent for that class you are expected to have the Primary Assignment submitted to me via 349 an email attachment to me by the beginning of class time. Email submissions avoid only the late penalty

¹⁰ Excellent APA Guides and assistance is available through the Bellevue College Writing Lab: http://bellevuecollege.edu/writinglab/

350 if a hard copy of your original email attachment and a copy of your email and my response to your email if 351 you receive one is attached to your work and submitted at the next regularly scheduled class period you 352 attend. All emails must have a readily identifiable subject line with the following: "BUS 201, "your last 353 name", "the name of the assignment" or they will not be identified as work submitted which will result in a 354 late penalty. Late assignments if submitted after the due date or time will be discounted 10% for each 355 day or part of each day late up to 4 days late. Late assignments submitted later than 4 days of the due date will earn zero (0) points. These policies will be applied unless prior written approval for a late 356 357 submission is obtained from the instructor. You must make this request in writing via email. Approval will 358 not be unreasonably withheld but the request must be because of a substantial situation beyond the student's control or option. 359 360 361 Daily Assignments 362 363 Daily Assignments are work assigned during class periods for completion and submission at the next or 364 within the next few class periods. They are designed to be contemporaneous learning experiences and 365 are closely tied to the material we are discussing in class. As such, these assignments will not be 366 accepted late. 367 368 Classroom Approach and Courtesy 369 370 It is my expectation that since we are studying business, classroom behavior and activities should be 371 business like. That does not mean we cannot have fun, it means that we should be professional. 372 373 In conjunction with our professional approach, cell phones and pagers should either be off or set to a 374 quite (vibrate) mode. I recognize that many of us have family and other responsibilities that in the modern 375 business world people now be expect to be able to reach us nearly 24/7. If this is your situation, please 376 disrupt the class as little as possible by making an unobtrusive exit out of the classroom before you 377 answer your phone or page. If your cell phone goes off during class, please see me after class. This is a 378 requirement. 379 380 If you come late to class, please take a seat near the entry door so as to disrupt the class as little as 381 possible. 382 383 The study of business law often prompts discussions and debate. Please be courteous to all in the class 384 by limiting sidebar discussion with your neighbors. I encourage you to interact with the class instead. As 385 part of the course requirements you are required to participate, i.e. speak up in class, so do so. 386 387 Be aware that inappropriate/disruptive classroom behaviors are violations of the Student Code of Conduct¹¹ at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to: talking 388 389 out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, using 390 computers during class for personal email, Facebook, etc. and inappropriate behavior toward the 391 instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the 392 Dean of Student Services for possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College. Specific student 393 rights, responsibilities and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct. 394 395 Accommodation, Disability Resource Center, (DRC) (From the DRC) 396 397 The Disability Resource Center serves students with a wide array of learning challenges and disabilities. 398 If you are a student who has a disability or learning challenge for which you have documentation or have 399 seen someone for treatment and if you feel you may need accommodations in order to be successful in college, please contact me as soon as possible.

444 Evaluation and Grading

447

448

449

446 It is important to all learners that evaluations be guided by the following principles:

- Multiple (more than one evaluation) •
- Varied (different methods of evaluation) •
- Fair (clear directions and criteria) •
- 450 451 Grading System
- 452

453 Criterion Referenced Grading will be used. I have described the learning outcomes of the course, my expectations, and the grading criteria. How well you perform against that criteria will determine your

- 454 455 grade.
- 456

457 More specifically, the Criterion Referenced Grading framework model is based on the curriculum, course, 458 and assignments. By establishing absolute standards, grades are assigned by comparing a learner's 459 performance to a set of standards. Learners meeting the learning targets receive higher grades than 460 those learners not meeting the targets. Grades are based and awarded for performance on participation 461 in class and performance on written assignments. Because the Criterion Referenced Grading model 462 compares individual student performance versus a standard, all students are assured they are being 463 evaluated fairly and objectively.

464

465 Grading Weights

Class Attendance, Participation, Contribution, In-Class
Team Work, and Case Leads	20 %
Current Business Law Topic or Visit to the Court	20 %

Case Problem Assignments (Written)	20 %
Final Exam, Examination #3 ¹²	20 %
Total	120 %

467

468 Your grade will be calculated in accordance with these grading weights. Note also that grading weights

469 are distributed so that no one activity is overly or under weighted. Note also that the grading activities 470 vary in character, i.e. oral presentations, exams, written memos, written reports, team work, etc. Thus, vary in character, i.e. oral presentations, exams, whiten memos, whiten reports, team work, etc. Thus, students are assured that multiple opportunities are provided for evaluation and varied opportunities for evaluation are provided.

536 Class Participation and Contribution

Class participation and contribution is described in detail above. It includes "Speed Law" group activities.
It should be regular and thoughtful. This will also include taking the lead on case discussions in class.
Cases may be assigned to individuals prior to the class they will be discussed.

542 Current Business Law Topic (CBLT) or Visit to the Court (VTTC)

535

537

The Current Business Law Topic will be a one-page memo summarizing an item of interest from a business periodical which is related to business law and your thoughts on the issues and concepts presented. A copy of the selected article must accompany the memo. Part of this assignment will be a short (5 minutes or less) presentation to the class with a brief PowerPoint presentation. I will be providing you a memo outlining the details of the assignment in week two (2).

- 550 OR
- 551

A student electing the VTTC assignment is required to go to a court and observe the court's proceedings for at least one hour. You should not be a party to the proceedings of the court for this assignment. After you observe the court, you should reflect upon your experience and then draft a memo that summarizes the courtroom events you observed and your observations and reactions to them. You are encouraged to do this in groups and discuss your observations and reactions with your classmates. You will then develop a memo outlining your experiences, observations, and conclusions about your visit. I will be providing you a memo outlining the details of the assignment in week two (2).

560 Mid-Term Examinations

There will be two mid-term examinations spaced during the course as scheduled below. The examination will be one class hour in length and will cover the work to date. This will include material presented in our text, class discussions, class lectures, and videos.

566 Case Problem Assignments

567
568 You will be assigned selected questions from the course materials and resources. You will be expected 569 to address them in a thoughtful manner in the form of a memo. These will be used as the basis for class 570 discussion and must be completed prior to the class they are due. No makeup will be allowed for this 571 activity.

573 Guidelines for the Final Examination

574
575 The Final Examination will be given in accordance with the BC Final Exam Schedule available on 576 www.bellevuecollege.edu The Final Examination will cover all work covered in the course. This will 577 include material presented in our text, class discussions, class lectures, and videos.
578

579 Note as above, the grading for the course will be based on two of the three exams as per the following: 580

- (1) The Final Examination (Examination #3) is mandatory.
- (2) I will use the higher grade of Examination #1 and Examination #2 for the calculation of your final grade. The lower grade will be discarded. This will provide you an opportunity to better understand the expectations on the exams in a law class without being penalized.

587 Academic Honesty and Integrity

581

582 583

584

- 589 Academic honesty is the expected mode of behavior. Ethical behavior in business and academia is 590 extraordinarily important and expected in the world today. All honesty violations will be treated seriously 591 as prescribed by the college.
- 592 593 Bellevue College's policy quoted in part, ""Cheating, stealing and plagiarizing (using the ideas or words of 594 another as one's own without crediting the source) and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are 595 violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior 596 include, but are not limited to: talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, 597 allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The 598 instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Student Services for 599 possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College. Specific student rights, responsibilities and 600 appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct, available in the office of the Dean of 601 Student Services."
- 602
- Students are expected to conduct themselves with honor and integrity. If you choose to cheat and/or aid someone else in cheating, you violate a trust and jeopardize your future in this class. Cheating includes but is not limited to:
- Turning in assignments or papers or tests/quizzes that have been used in other classes, including a previous enrollment in this class by you or another person
- Copying answers on any written or practical exam/quiz
- Two or more different people working together on the same assignment and each person submitting the same or nearly identical work as their individual work
- Giving and/or receiving help during an exam/quiz
- Disk copying, purchasing/selling answers to any portion of the course
- Lack of reference for the source of cited information
- Disk or file copying, purchasing or selling answers to any portion of the course
- Copying information for written work and representing it as your writing
- 616 If you cheat, some or all of the following actions will be taken:
- You will receive a grade of zero on the assignment or exam. This item may not be resubmitted for credit or review.
- A report of the incident will be sent to the Dean of Students who may file a report in your record and/or take other disciplinary action. For a description of the process, see WAC 132H-120, available in the Student Body Government office.
- 622 If you are involved in more than one cheating incident in this class, you will be given an "F" grade for the 623 course.
- 624
- Plagiarism is perhaps the most common and misunderstood form of academic dishonesty. It involves the taking of ideas, writings, etc. from another and passing them off as one's own. Plagiarism includes using any source to complete academic assignments without proper acknowledgment of the source. THE INSTRUCTOR FOR THIS COURSE IS PARTUCLARLY UNFORGIVING OF STUDENTS WHO INTENTIONALLY OR UNINTENTIONALLY PLAGARIZE MATERIALS! A frequently misunderstood
- 630 principle of attribution is that citation of a source makes a legal argument more persuasive, rather than
- 631 less. Even paraphrased materials can be considered plagiarized if their source is not properly cited. An
- 632 improper citation may result in a small reduction in grade, but an omitted citation may result in a failing

633 grade for the assignment or the course along with other possible penalties from the college. Here is the 634 only legal advice the instructor will directly give the students: DON'T!¹³

635

636 Commitment to Pluralism and Non-Discrimination

637
638 Bellevue College and this instructor are committed to maintaining an environment in which every member 639 of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and 640 discrimination. We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff 641 members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect.

647 Characteristics of Successful Students¹⁴

- 1. They attend classes regularly, and they are on time. If they miss a session, they feel obligated to let the instructor know why, and their excuses seem legitimate and reasonable. They get all assignments they missed and understand specifically what was covered in class.
- They read and have the syllabus for the class available in hard copy and use it to determine answers to their questions concerning the course, exams, etc. before interrupting the class with such questions.
 - 3. They demonstrate that they care about their grades and are willing to work to improve them. They do more than is required for each assignment. A strong effort is made to turn in all assigned work, even if it is not all brilliant. They seem driven to complete all work.
 - 4. They speak up in class, even if their attempts are clumsy, difficult, and not smooth. They ask the questions that the instructor knows many in the class are bound to have, provided they are listening including questions about upcoming assignments and exams after checking the syllabus and handouts for such information.
- 5. They see the instructor before or after class about grades and comments made on their papers. Sometimes they just want to ask a question or make a comment relative to the class discussion. They never ask "did we do anything in class Monday?"
 - 6. They turn in assignments that look neat and sharp. They take the time to produce a final product that looks good-- a reflection of a caring attitude and pride in their work.

 ¹³ An excellent resource and guide as to plagiarism is The Little Book of Plagiarism, Richard A. Posner, (2007) Pantheon Books. Posner is a judge on the United States Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals and senior lecturer at the University of Chicago Law School. The book discusses the dimensions of plagiarism in the modern technological world.

- 679 8. In class discussion they are sensitive to others. They ask others for their opinions and listen while 680 others speak. When they disagree they calmly and objectively state why and never belittle the 681 speaker.
- 683 9. When they disagree with their grade or a class policy, they wait until they are alone with the 684 instructor to discuss the issue. They never complain in class or compare grades with their friends.
 - 10. The most successful students end up at the instructor's office at least once during the semester. They believe it is worthwhile to engage the instructor in meaningful conversation.
- 689 11. Although it should be obvious, they rarely come to class unprepared. They have the reading done 690 before each class period and they come to class ready to hand in the assignments due that day. 691 They take learning seriously.

692 How to Succeed in the Course, in Summary 693

- 694 1. Attend all classes
- 695 2. Review and have the syllabus available
- 696 3. Read the text materials before class, consider this an ongoing assignment. It is important to have 697 the chapter and the cases read before the class in which they are discussed
 - Print all materials off the MyBC website including the syllabus and the assignment memos
- 699 5. Pay particular attention to the criteria that each assignment will be judged against, self assess 700 whether you have addressed the assignment thoroughly and are following the Assignment Memo 701 parameters 702
 - 6. Review study materials and website made available by the publisher
- 703 7. Devote time and effort to the homework and other assignments. Grades generally reflect the 704 effort a student has put into the assignment and the course 705
 - 8. Study in groups
 - 9. Make good use of your instructor
- 707 10. Focus on the course in class

It is my intention to cover as much material as possible in the allotted time. To accomplish our goals, we may need to be flexible with the schedule, particularly with respect to the sequence of topics and time allotted so please be prepared to be flexible with the schedule.

Assignment Memo

To: BUS& 201, Students

From: Frank Hatstat, MBA, JD Faculty Chair, Business Management Program Chair, Marketing Management Program Chair, Student Academic Grievance Committee

Date: September 23, 2013

Ref: Assignment Memo: Assignment #1 – Syllabus Review

This is your first assignment for the course. All major assignments will have an "Assignment Memo" associated with them similar to this one. However, this assignment is considered a "daily assignment" and will be graded as such. When an Assignment Memo is provided for an assignment, review it carefully and completely to insure you are responding to the assignment appropriately. The Assignment Memo will specify the specifics of the assignment and my expectations. It is your most authoritative guide to the grading parameters and expectations for the assignment.

- (1) Print out, review, and have available in class every day the syllabus for the course. Content of the syllabus may be included as part of the midterm examination.
- (2) After completing (1) above, email me and advise me you have completed the above and have read the syllabus. In the subject line of the email enter: BUS&201, "the hour of your class", "the item # of our class", Syllabus Review. In the body of the email put your first and last name. This is due at class time the first day of the second week of the term.
