COURSE DESCRIPTION:

From 1890 to now the United States matured into a global hegemonic power. We shall trace all facets of this development in both the foreign and domestic sphere. We will also delve into the myriad socioeconomic and cultural challenges that we have overcome and/or still face. Finally, we will treat with the national and world historical persons who have shaped this process.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The primary learning outcomes of History 148 are to:

- A. Develop critical/analytical thinking.
- B. Develop an historical awareness of national cultural development within the larger global context.
- C. Develop an appreciation for the unique contributions of the various and myriad immigrant populations and how their interaction with established American culture led to significant socio-cultural collisions.
- D. Develop an appreciation for the human element within the trends of historical development.

These outcomes will be accomplished by:

- A. Discerning historical bias.
- B. Differentiating between fact and fiction.
- C. Recognizing cogency of reasoning.
- D. Recognizing fallacious reasoning.
- E. Comparing and contrasting data.
- F. Assessing accuracy and thoroughness of data.
- G. Identifying cause and effect in history.
- H. Developing inferential abilities.
- I. Developing critical judgments about historical developments.

Students will then be able to apply these skills in the following areas:

- A. Comprehend the development of historical trends and ideas.

- B. Comprehend the forces and factors unique to our nation as well as the larger contexts in which we have developed.
- C. Gain knowledge of basic geopolitical entities.
- D. Gain knowledge of the shifts in geopolitical boundaries through time.
- E. Recognize the role that geophysical realities have played in shaping historical developments.
- F. Understand the role that human emotions/behaviors have played in historical trends.
- G. Appreciate the role that cultural outlooks/attitudes have played in the formation of each of the following in a national context.
  - a. Religion
  - b. Political Systems
  - c. Social Stratification
  - d. Gender Relationships
  - e. Economic Systems
  - f. Military considerations/necessities
  - g. Plastic and Literary Arts
  - h. Resource Exploitation and Environmental Degradation
  - i. Science and Technology

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

There will be two take home exams. To receive credit for this class, a cumulative passing average must be attained on these tests. If the final is not attempted, you CANNOT receive a passing grade!

MIDTERM

Due: Monday, May 19, 2014 (30% of your grade)
Questions will be distributed in advance.

NOTE: Exam I (mid-term) is an exercise in the narrative synthesis of historical material.

FINAL EXAM

Due: Thursday, June 19, 2014
One question will be comprehensive, the others covering the later one-half of the course. Questions will be distributed a minimum of one week prior to the exam date.

NOTE: Exam II (final) is an exercise in narrative, analytical, and historiographical synthesis of material presented during the duration of the entire term.

On the Midterm Exam, there will be a choice of questions to answer. There will be NO choice on the final exam.

LATE EXAMS: I will NOT accept a late mid-term exam. If the mid-term is not delivered on time in the classroom on the required date, it will be recorded as a zero and calculated as such in the overall average score to determine a final grade. As the Mid-term and the final are distributed well in advance of the due date, there is neither excuse nor reason to not submit them when they are due!

NOTE: The two exams are “Take home”. You will receive each in ample time to prepare them at minimum adequately, if not excellently. Once each is submitted, each is “As good as a trillion” – To wit: There are no “Do Overs””.

QUIZZES: There will be five (5) quizzes. Each quiz will cover one of the assigned books. Each quiz will be worth 10% of your grade. I will delete the lowest quiz score from consideration. Thus, it is possible to ‘blow off’ one of the quizzes without suffering. However, there will be NO, NADA, NON make-ups available for any reason—illness, travel, revelry, etc. AMEN!!!

Each quiz is open book, in class, therefore, you may bring your book, only the book and nothing but the book to each quiz. Web enhanced, note enhanced or print out enhanced responses are VERBOTEN.

Thus, for each quiz there will be none of the above in the classroom. I will supply the paper for each quiz. You are allowed only a writing implement and the assigned book.

1. Friday, April 25, 2014
2. Friday, May 09, 2014
3. Friday, May 23, 2014
4. Friday, June 06, 2014
5. Monday, June 16, 2014

GRADING POLICY:

I will assign the final letter grades on a straight-forward percentage basis, as follows:

A	(4.0) 95-100	C	(2.0) 72-76
A-	(3.7) 91-94	C-	(1.7) 70-71
B+	(3.3) 88-90	D+	(1.3) 66-69
B	(3.0) 83-87	D	(1.0) 60-65
B-	(2.7) 80-82	F	(0.0) BELOW 60
C+	(2.3) 77-79

I do not curve grades – but I do make allowances for extenuating circumstances (we all have bad days), and, I tend to emphasize improvement in assigning a final grade.

If you decide that this course is not your “cup of tea”, please do yourself a favor and withdraw, rather than simply evaporate “into the mystic”. Please be aware of the college policy for dropping classes as detailed in the academic calendar located on page 5 of the spring 2014 BCC Quarterly Schedule. I do not offer and will not assign an incomplete (I) grade.

ODDS AND ENDS: My basic approach is to use lecture and appropriate media materials to enhance your comprehension of the subject matter. We will seldom delve into formal discussions due to the volume of material to be covered and the limited time we have available. I DO ENCOURAGE QUESTIONS. The only “stupid” question is the one which needs to be answered but is not asked.

NO CLASS DAYS: Monday, May 26, 2014 (Memorial Day)

ATTENDANCE DISCLAIMER:

I have not, do not and never will utilize class attendance as a factor in assessing a grade, for a variety of reasons (whether a student is present or not for class is a personal decision). I would hope that I have something to offer vis-à-vis enhancement and/or comprehension of the course material and that might entice students to show up at least for the entertainment value. However, be aware that decisions like coins have two sides and an edge. The other side of the attendance coin is this: if announcements or pronouncements are made that are relevant to any and all aspects of the class, especially the course calendar, I am not responsible if a student is not here to hear them!

CLAIMING ASSIGNMENTS:

If any assignment is not claimed within one week from its assessment and returned to the class, each assignment will accrue a Ten point penalty subtracted from the collective quiz score for each unclaimed assignment after final exams have been submitted.
