Course Outcomes

After completing this course, successful students should be able to:

- Critically examine the social landscape in which you live and how life experiences differ according to race, class, gender and sexuality.
- Identify the ways in which cultural and social institutions shape the everyday experiences of individuals, groups and communities.
- Describe fundamental sociological concepts, theories, and theorists, and apply them to real-life situations.

Required Text

Conley, Dalton. 2013. You May Ask Yourself: An Introduction to Thinking Like a Sociologist. 3rd Edition. (Feel free to purchase earlier editions of the text.)

Attendance

Attendance is required. Students are allowed to miss TWO class periods without documentation. All other absences must be university excused absences; please review the Bellevue College Student Rules on excused absences. More than two undocumented absence will result in a reduction of your overall grade, taken from your participation score for the course (this includes zeros for each absent day's participation and an additional one-third of a letter grade reduction if absences total $\frac{1}{3}$ or more of the class sessions). A sign-in sheet will be distributed at the beginning of class each day to record attendance.

Classroom Policies

Please silence cell phones before the beginning of class. Students whose cell phones ring in class will be required to answer one oral pop quiz question. Any student who I see using their phones will receive one warning after which they will receive no credit for that day's class participation (equal to one absence for each offense). Repeat offenders will be asked to leave the class for the rest of the day.

Students are permitted to use computers to take notes if they wish. However, note taking is the only activity allowed during class. If any students engage in other activities on their computers during class meetings they will receive a zero for that day's class participation (equal to one absence for each offense).

As this is a college course, this classroom shall be treated as a professional environment. I expect everyone to be respectful of others. There will be zero tolerance for disrespect including but not limited to racism, sexism, ageism, ableism, and heterosexism.

Course Requirements

Quizzes

(70 points total, 10 points each)

Weekly quizzes will take place on the last day of a week five times in the quarter and cover the material from that week. They will be multiple choice in format and only available online. No makeup or late quizzes will be accepted. You will have a full 24-hour period to take the quiz but it will be timed.

Exams

(300 points total, 100 points each)

There will be three exams in this course. Each exam is worth 100 points. The exams will be composed of multiple choice questions and potential short essay questions. However, there will be no scantron or bluebook needed.

Sociological Imagination Papers

(430 points total)

Throughout the quarter, you will be writing three short (2-3 pages) and one long paper (5-7 pages) relating sociology to your life. The larger paper (5-7 pages) will be made up of sections of the three papers before it along with additional content. Assignment guidelines will be available on Canvas.

Paper 1 – Family (90 points)

Paper 2 – Education (90 points)

Paper 3 – Social Forces (100 points)

Paper 4 – Sociological Portrait (150 points)

Each paper should follow proper citation guidelines using either MLA or APA style. This website contains helpful guidelines: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/>. The format for all papers should be double spaced, Times New Roman 12 point font, with 1 inch margins on all sides, and no title page or running header. Guidelines and a grading rubric will be available for students to review. Papers are to be uploaded on Canvas on or before the due date.

Vine Project

(50 points total)

The final project for this class will involve creating a Vine (a 6 second video) about what sociology means to you OR to demonstrate your favorite concept(s) from class. You will need to download the free Vine app from your App Store or borrow a classmate's mobile device during our designated workday. Creativity and originality are very welcome. Students are required to make an original Vine, write a paper, and make a presentation. Assignment guidelines will be available on Canvas.

Reading and Film Worksheets

(50 points total)

A worksheet will be provided to you twice during the quarter. Follow the directions for the worksheet and submit by the due date.

Attendance and Participation

(100 points total, 50 for attendance, 50 for participation/pop quizzes)

Attendance is required. A sign in sheet will go around each class period. You may miss up to 2 classes without penalty. You will be penalized if you have 3 or more unexcused absences (see BC policy regarding excused vs unexcused absences). This penalty includes an overall reduction in grade relative to the number of unexcused absences and an additional $\frac{1}{3}$ letter grade reduction if absences total one-third or more of the class sessions.

Participation includes pop quizzes, answering questions when called upon, participating in discussions, and asking insightful and engaging questions related to course material.

- Pop quizzes will occur randomly throughout the term based on the material you are expected to have read for that class day. These quizzes will amount to one-half of your participation grade or 2.5% of the overall grade.

To excel in this course, a student should stay on top of course readings. All students are expected to have read the assigned material before each class meeting. Attendance is always helpful (and required) to get a better understanding of the material. If you have any questions at all, please utilize my office hours. I want you to do your very best in this course, and I will help all students as much as I can.

Note: There will be no curve in this class, including individual assignments. Your grade is what you earn.

Extra Credit

There may be opportunities for extra credit throughout the quarter. These opportunities are generally events on campus, which involve a lecture, documentary showing, debate, or a cultural event with an educational component. The requirements for the reflection paper are on Canvas. The papers will be due by 11:59pm one week after the event. Additionally, video links will be posted in the Canvas assignment link. These videos may be watched and analyzed similar to the events. Video link extra credit papers will be due by 11:59pm on the last regular course day. Students may complete TWO of these extra credit opportunities for a possible 15 points each or 30 points total. These extra points are added onto a student's total points for the course. No late work will be accepted without a pre-approved reason. Please view the full assignment sheet on Canvas.

Late Policy

Exams

All missed exams must be pre-approved by the instructor PRIOR to the due date. Make-up exams will be given at the discretion of the instructor and must occur before the due date. Missed exams without prior approval can only be made up if the absence accompanies an approved excuse and if immediate notice is given to the instructor.

Assignments

Any missed assignments not pre-approved by the instructor must accompany an approved excuse in order for an extended due date to be given. Unapproved absences that result in missed in-class assignments or zeros cannot be made up. The only exception to this policy is late papers, which will receive a 10% deduction per day late, or presentations, which will receive a 10% deduction per day late if class days remain.
