Course Outcomes

This course is a survey of the political, social, and cultural history of the United States during the nineteenth century. Upon completion of the course, students will have learned to analyze primary source documents; interrogate historical representations of gender, class, and society; and explain key concepts, events, and people in U.S. history. This course may count as a social science or humanities credit, but not both, at Bellevue College.

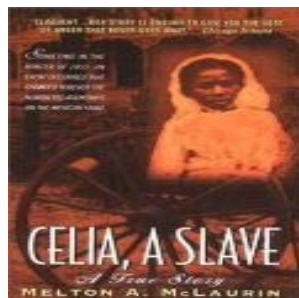

How Outcomes Will Be Met

Course outcomes will be met through the following assessments: in-class objective exams, 2 short essays, pop quizzes, class discussions, and a research project and presentation.

Course Books & Supplies

Supplies: 2 Scantrons & 2 Blue Books

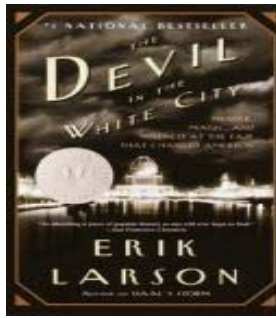

Two required books are available at our BC bookstore and at online book vendors. Additional readings for class assignments can be found on our Canvas website.
