Course Description

In this Intro to Sociology class we will examine concepts and theoretical frameworks that govern our current systems. We will examine concepts such as capitalism, political ideologies, and constructs of religion, race, culture, gender, class and inequality. By examining these constructs, we will better understand systems of hierarchy, stratification and communal regulations that impact our daily lives. Seeking to understand and question our own positionality and how our own multi-layered identities help us view the world in regards to pollution, Aids epidemic, poverty, political corruption so we can then begin the process of becoming active participants in the process of change.

We will be using the required texts in connection with outside articles and other educational tools to create an academic framework that allows us to question. Questioning is fundamental in the process of learning therefore, we must begin to question the ways of the world if we are ever going to change them.

Required Texts

Engaged Sociologist: Connecting the Classroom to the Community, Korgen, Kathleen and Jonathan M. White (2006)

Ishmael: An adventure of the mind and spirit, Quinn, Daniel (1991)

Books are now available at the Campus Bookstore

What is expected of you?

In this class I am looking for you to challenge yourself and display through assigned writings, quizzes and group presentations that you're wrestling with the course material. You're ultimate success in this class is contingent on your ability to engage with the material and your classmates.

Assignments

Opinion Papers / 80 points

There will be 4 opinion papers, worth 20 points each, on important sociological questions that will be assigned at the beginning of the week. This assignment will be two pages long, double-spaced and will be collected on the following Monday.

Quizzes /50 points

There will be 5 quizzes, all worth 10 points, over the course readings.

Book Review/ 40 points

You will be required to write a book review on the book Ishmael. The book review will be three pages in length. A handout will be distributed during week 4.

Group Presentation /50 points

During week six you will sign up for group presentations (max 5 people). You will choose from a list of sociologist and then create a PowerPoint Presentation. Details for this assignment will be given throughout the quarter.

Participation

It is imperative that you recognize that you are required to do more than attend. I expect students to engage and be active in the creation of a strong intellectual community. Being a passive participant will not be tolerated.

Grading Breakdown

Opinion Papers- 35%

Quizzes 25%

Book Review 15%

Group Presentation 25%

Bellevue College utilizes a consistent, published letter grading system to reflect the student's achievements.
