

BIOLOGICAL ANTHROPOLOGY

ANTH& 215 with lab

Bellevue College, Winter 2013

Welcome to Biological Anthropology!!!

Anthropology is the holistic study of our species, Homo sapiens. Anthropologists combine methods, theories, and data from natural sciences, social sciences, and the humanities to examine the human experience in the broadest framework possible. Anthropology courses explore human biology, origins, prehistory, cultural diversity, and religious experience. This class focuses on humans as bio-cultural organisms, emphasizing an understanding of humans from an anthropological perspective.

Course Description

Biological Anthropology (ANTH& 215) offers an anthropological view of how human biological characteristics arose, our relation to non-human primates, and how we continue to be shaped by evolutionary forces. Major topics include human genetics, adaptation, monkeys, apes and prosimians, fossil evidence for human evolution and the study of biological diversity in contemporary human populations. ANTH& 215 is a 5-credit course that counts as a science credit (Item 5071). (Please note that either ANTH& 205 OR ANTH& 215 may be taken for credit, but not both. Only ANTH& 215 counts toward the Anthropology Concentration).

At the conclusion of Anthropology& 215 you should be able to:

1. To demonstrate an understanding of the historical contexts and consequences of natural science and social science concepts developed for and directed at a holistic and comparative approach to human behavior.
2. To recognize, identify and use the scientific method, in particular the principles of biocultural evolution, and to distinguish coherent arguments based on such principles from other claims.
3. To show knowledge of the general elementary principles of molecular, Mendelian and population genetics and their synthesis with evolutionary explanation.
4. To apply contemporary concepts in human biocultural variation, and distinguish such approaches from older paradigmatic formulations.
5. To recognize behaviors found throughout the primate order with particular attention to the social ecology of primate behavior.
6. To compare the gross anatomy of modern hominids and non-human primates and gain knowledge of their taxonomic classification.
7. To demonstrate detailed paleoanthropological knowledge of fossil hominoids and hominids, enabling the contrast, comparison and construction of hypothetical phylogenetic interpretations of hominid lineages and the selective evaluation of competing theories of hominization.

How Course Outcomes will be Met

Outcomes will be addressed through visual materials, readings, discussions, labs, and exams.

What is the rhythm of this class?

READ THIS SECTION VERY CAREFULLY. IF YOU CANNOT ADJUST YOUR SCHEDULE TO THE RHYTHM OF THE CLASS, YOU WILL HAVE A DIFFICULT TIME SUCCEEDING IN THIS COURSE.

The on-line class has a very different rhythm from on-campus classes, and each on-line course is different from other on-line courses.

In this class, the first day of the 'on-line week' begins on a Monday morning at 12:01 AM and runs until a Sunday night at 11:59 PM when all work for that week must be completed. For example, Week 2 begins on Monday, Jan 7 at 12:01 AM and ends on Sunday, Jan 13 at 11:59 PM.

Components of Course Assessment

A variety of instructional methods and learning opportunities exists for you to master class content. .

Discussions

A major part of the learning in this class comes from the exchange of ideas with other students. There are six discussions total worth 25 points each, including the introductory discussion. This dialogue will occur in the form of five major discussions about relevant topics. The discussion topic will be provided to you and there will usually be a reading to tie in the discussion to the week's material.

There are 3 steps to the discussion:

1. When there is an article that is the focus of the discussion, read it first and think about the material.
2. Each student is to post an initial commentary (i.e., your informed analysis about the article in response to the question provided). This step must occur BEFORE Fridays at 9:00 am. Each initial commentary should be well written, proofread for grammatical and spelling errors, and substantive in content. About 200-300 words is an estimate of what is expected for an initial commentary. If you use any source at all, you must cite it. NO Wikipedia. Period.
3. Each student will comment on the initial posting of 2 other students. This step of the discussion will begin at 9:01 am on Fridays. Points will not be given if you comment on others' posts before 9:01 am on Fridays. All comments must be posted before the following Sunday at 11:59 pm. Each response posting should be about 100 words. Responses such as "I agree" or "Terrific job" do not count for credit. If you use any source at all, you must cite it. NO Wikipedia. Period.

All postings should be thoughtful, informed, respectful, substantive, and constructive.

If you miss a discussion, you cannot make it up since the moment will have passed. The discussion closes at the end of the week on Sunday night.

Tutorials and Quizzes

A number of on-line tutorials are assigned. These tutorials will supplement and support the lecture materials and textbook. You are expected to complete these tutorials when assigned.

At the end of each tutorial, there is a quiz that you must take. While taking the tutorial quiz you will then copy your two favorite multiple-choice quiz questions and all possible answers (with correct answer indicated by *) for the week's tutorial (only 2 questions / week) into the appropriate discussion board by the end of the on-line week (Sunday at 11:59 pm). Each time you post 2 questions from the week's assignment, you receive 5 points for a maximum of 50 points.

The subject heading for these posts will be as follows:

Your name – "Tutorial" – week #

Christine Dixon– Tutorial – Week 3

To access the online tutorials, click on (or copy and paste into a browser) the links on found on each week's overview page. Remember to mark the correct answer.

Sample multiple choice question format:

1. The person credited with the idea of natural selection is
A. Charles Darwin B. Alfred Russel Wallace C. Gregor Mendel. *D. both A and B.

Lab Activities

There are a total of 10 labs for this course (worth 40 points each). These labs are designed to reinforce key concepts in the course, enhance your knowledge of course material, and provide you with a hands-on learning experience. You will need to pick up your lab kit at Bellevue College. For those of you outside of the Bellevue College area, a lab kit will be mailed to the address that each of you specify after DAY 10 of the course. This kit will include the supplies needed to complete the labs for this course.

NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED WIHTOUT PRIOR APPROVAL BY THE PROFESSOR.

Quizzes

A major portion of your grade will be derived from 4 quizzes and a comprehensive final exam. A quiz may consist of multiple choice and true/false questions and may contain essay questions as well. Quizzes are worth 100 points each and the final exam is worth 200 points.

To take the quiz, you will need to be familiar with CANVAS. Be sure you know how to successfully submit your answers when completed. Quiz questions are derived from assigned readings, learning modules, videos/DVDs, handouts, discussions, activities, internet links, lectures, labs, and any other instructional material presented in class. It is helpful to turn off all electronic devices before the start of the exam so that you can fully concentrate.

Preventing Plagiarism

Preventing Plagiarism: Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty occurring when students use information or material from outside sources and do not properly cite those sources. This is grounds for disciplinary action. It is your responsibility to understand plagiarism and its consequences. Plagiarism occurs if:

- a. You do not cite quotations and/or attribute borrowed ideas.
- b. You fail to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks.
- c. You do not write summaries and paraphrases in his/her own words and/or doesn't document his/her source.
- d. You turn in work created by another person.
- e. You submit or use your own prior work for a current or past course, or work from one current course in another course without express permission from your professors. This may also be considered academic dishonesty.
- f. Consequences: If it is determined that you have plagiarized or engaged in other forms of academic dishonesty, you will likely fail the assignment and possibly the course, despite points earned through other work. Acts of academic dishonesty are reviewed for disciplinary action.

For all of your written work: Submit proofread work only. Work not proofread will be returned once for a rewrite, expected to be handed in within 48 hours. If you need help with your writing, please make use of the following student support services:

What Other Anthropology Courses Are Offered at Bellevue College?

There is a general introductory class (Survey of Anthropology) which highlights all four sub-disciplines of anthropology. BC offers in-depth courses in Anthropology which I encourage you to take: archaeology (Great Discoveries in Archaeology; Archaeology; Ancient North America; Incas & Their Ancestors; Aztecs, Mayas, & Their Ancestors), biological anthropology (Biological Anthropology; Bioanthropology with Lab; Cross-cultural Medicine; Forensic Anthropology), cultural anthropology (Food, Drink, & Culture; American Life & Culture; Cultural Anthropology; Sex, Gender, & Culture; Environment & Culture; REEL Culture; Religion & Culture) and linguistics (Language, Culture, & Society). Check BC's Course Catalogue for a full description of each course. We will also be offering several special topics courses spanning the discipline. Society of Student Anthropologists at Bellevue College

Anthropologists can and do study just about anything. In this class, you will learn about some of the usual topics...Join the club and find out about the other stuff. The SOCIETY of STUDENT ANTHROPOLOGISTS at BELLEVUE COLLEGE mission is to explore topics that other groups do not cover. You can expect to investigate topics from Bigfoot to indigenous hunting techniques and everything else in between. We also continually contribute to a Heifer International Fund. Please contact Anthropology Professor Tony Tessandori, club advisor, if you are interested in joining other budding anthropologists in their pursuit of understanding humanity. Procedures and Guidelines of the Social Science Division: Winter 2014

Cheating, Stealing and Plagiarizing*

Cheating, stealing and plagiarizing (using the ideas or words of another as one's own without crediting the source) and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to: talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Student Services for possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College. Specific student rights, responsibilities and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct, available in the office of the Dean of Student Services and at http://bellevuecollege.edu/policies/2/2050P_Student_Code_\(Procedures\).asp.asp)

Email Communication with instructors must be done through student email accounts only. Instructors cannot communicate with students about their course work or grades through student's personal email accounts.

Incomplete

If a student fails to complete all the required work for a course, an instructor may assign the grade of Incomplete ("I"). The student must complete the coursework by the end of the next quarter, or receive the assigned letter grade (usually an "F").

F Grade

Students who fail a course will receive a letter grade of "F."

Final Examination Schedule

The Social Science Division will adhere to the final examination schedule as stated in the BC Schedule. Final examinations will be held at the end of each quarter at fixed times. Instructors will not give examinations in advance of the regular schedule. A student who is absent from any examination held at any time during the quarter may forfeit the right to make up the examination. If, for illness or some other circumstance beyond the student's control, the student is unable to be present at any scheduled examination and has contacted the instructor on a timely basis, the student may be permitted to take such examination at a time designated by the instructor.

Withdrawal From Class

College policy states that students must formally withdraw from a class by the end of the seventh week of the quarter (Registration Office, B125). If a student has not withdrawn by that date, an appropriate letter grade will be assigned for the course.

Hardship Withdrawal

Instructors may assign the grade of "HW" (hardship withdrawal) at their discretion in the event that a student cannot complete the coursework due to extreme and exceptional circumstances. Students may also contact the Enrollment Services office BEFORE grades are assigned in cases of hardship.

Students Who Require Disability Accommodations:

Students with disabilities who have accommodation needs are encouraged to meet with the Disability Resource Centre (DRC) office located in B132 (telephone 425.564.2498 or TTY 425.564.4110), to establish their eligibility for accommodation. The DRC office will provide each eligible student with an accommodation letter. Students who require accommodation in class should review the DRC accommodation letter with each instructor during the first week of the quarter.

Students with mobility challenges who may need assistance in case of an emergency situation or evacuation should register with Disability Resource Centre, and review those needs with the instructor as well.

Distribution of Grades

Grades will not be posted in the Social Science Division or in faculty offices, and program assistants or coordinators will not give out grades. Students should access their grades through the BC Web site.

Return of Papers and Tests

Paper and/or Scantron score sheet returns will be arranged in the following ways ONLY: by mail, if student supplies the instructor with stamped, self-addressed envelope (with appropriate postage); or by the instructor designating a time and place whereby the student may retrieve his/her papers. Unclaimed papers and/or Scantron score sheets must be kept by the instructor for a minimum of sixty (60) instructional days following the end of the quarter.

If you are accused of cheating, stealing exams and/or plagiarism, there is a Bellevue College Student Discipline and Appeals Procedure (the right to due process) which you may pursue. Contact the office of Division Chair (D110), the Dean of Student Services (B231A) or the Associated Student Body (C212) for information regarding the appeals process.*
