WELCOME TO SURVEY OF ANTHROPOLOGY!

Anthropologists are scientists who study both biological and cultural characteristics of human beings, both modern and ancient. We travel far and wide and generations back in time in order to understand where we came from, where we are now, and where we are going. As a comparative science, anthropologists also study the traditions and customs of our own society. This course will offer a new perspective of your own culture, and a deeper understanding of human history and diversity, as it emphasizes global perspectives.

Course Description and Objectives

Anthropology& 100 (Item# 5056, section B) is a 5-credit course that introduces you to the discipline of anthropology. You are exposed to the basic underlying principles, theories, and methods of anthropology through lectures, textbook readings, articles, discussions, and visual materials. This introductory course will explore the 4 subdisciplines of anthropology: cultural anthropology, linguistics, biological anthropology, and archaeology. Numerous contemporary cultures, as studied by the ethnologist, will be discussed in a comparative fashion. We will explore the general topic of evolution and specifically how it applies to humans. We will look at our primate relatives and come to understand our similarities and differences with them. The viewpoint of archaeology will enhance your understanding of human history, and an introduction to linguistics will provide you with the basics of studying human communication. We will also discuss how various types of anthropologists go about collecting their data, and the rewards and challenges of conducting fieldwork in anthropology.

Books and Materials Required

- REQUIRED TEXTBOOK
McGraw Hill, Conrad Phillip Kottak
2012 Window on Humanity (5th Edition) ISBN -13:978-0-07-803489-3 or ISBN-10: 0-07-803489-2
- Additional Articles will be assigned throughout the quarter

IMPORTANT CLASS POLICIES

Make-up tests (including the final) are only offered at the discretion of the instructor and must be arranged at least one week before the originally scheduled test date. In the case of a conflicting final exam schedule, you must notify your instructor at least 2 weeks prior to the exam.

If you are requesting a make-up test because you know in advance that you will have to be absent, you must give a legitimate reason. You will need to e-mail ahead of time explaining why you need to miss the assessment, and you will be required to provide appropriate documentation to explain your absence. Vacation, attendance at social activities, sleeping in, work, picking up someone from the airport, forgetting etc. are not valid excuses for missing exams and you will not be able to make up exams for these reasons. Consideration for make-up exams is provided ONLY if you have contacted me BEFORE your absence and IF you have provided appropriate documentation. A make-up exam may be composed of essay questions under strict time constraints and must be taken as soon as possible. If you are ill on the day of a test you must notify your instructor immediately and meet with instructor upon your return to discuss the possibility of a make-up.

Discussions: There are 4 formal discussions (20 points each) and there are no make-ups for these. You must be present the day of the discussion in order to earn points and to be prepared for writing the assigned paper.

 Submission Process: Assignments are to be turned in IN-CLASS and will not be accepted via email. You may email me a copy to keep on file, however, I will not open the emailed version. This policy is for your protection and mine. Due to the large number of students and the potential that work may be misplaced or not turned in, an electronic copy sent on time will serve as evidence. Emailed documents should be sent on or before the due date of the assignment. These files will not be opened unless there is a problem. If you do not send an electronic form of your work, and the hard copy is not graded, no allowance will be made and the points will be lost. When you send your work to me over email (to make the retrieval process easier) the subject line needs to contain all of the following information:

1. Your name 2. Survey of Anth 3. The title of the assignment (eg., Paper 1, 2 or 3)

Late work: Will be subject to a point reduction of 10% per day including, the due date, non class days and weekends.

Course Requirements

The Syllabus: You are required to review this syllabus and the attached Procedures and Guidelines of the Social Science Division. Enrollment in the course constitutes an agreement to abide by the policies set forth in these items.

Attendance: Attendance is required for success in the class. You must be present to earn participation points. Regular attendance throughout the quarter is expected for full points. If you are absent for any class, it is your responsibility to communicate with your instructor and to obtain class material for that day.

Active Participation: Active Participation will be expected of each of you. You should read all material for each class ahead of time in preparation for constructive participation. Participation figures importantly in borderline final grades. (Participation: 40 points).

Article and Film Discussions: To enhance your learning, the class will participate in three class discussions. These will vary in format; some will require you to read a designated article (available on MyBC) before class and others will require your response to questions about an in-class film. You are expected to provide thoughtful, respectful comments that are based on your educated opinion from course materials (60 points total). There are no make-ups for this portion.

Reflective Papers: Three short papers (2-3 pages long) will be required from the three above discussions. These are for you to summarize your individual thoughts and ideas on the topic discussed in class and to help you further process your understanding of the material. The exact instructions will be given to you in class.

Tests: A major part of your course grade will be derived from four tests. Each test has 50 questions and is worth 100 points (400 points total). Please show up prepared and on time. Questions are derived from class lectures, discussions, films, assigned readings, exercises, handouts and any other instructional material presented in class. Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated (see below). Test conduct will comply with the College policy for academic honesty.

A Note About Course Content

Since anthropologists examine just about every aspect of the social world, we talk about provocative material. Please be advised that we will likely explore controversial topics, they will always be framed within an academic context. When we find ourselves in a space outside of our comfort zone, it provides a great example of our own cultural constructs and is a powerful opportunity for learning. If you have any questions or concerns about content or climate, feel free to speak with me about it right away.

Bellevue College E-mail and access to MyBC

- For this course you will need access to MYBC and your BC email. Your student network account can be used to access your student e-mail, log in to computers in labs and classrooms, connect to the BC wireless network and log in to MyBC. To create your account, go to: <https://bellevuecollege.edu/sam>
- Class materials will be posted on MyBC.

Learning Outcomes for Survey of Anthropology

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Articulate an understanding of the breadth of anthropology, its main fields (archaeology, biological anthropology, cultural anthropology, linguistics) and their ties to the sciences and humanities.
2. Recognize, identify, and employ the scientific method in anthropology, and to distinguish coherent arguments based on such principles from other claims.
3. Identify critical components in anthropological thought, especially in regard to ethnocentrism and cultural relativism.
4. Demonstrate knowledge of the range of human cultural and biological variation in the past and present from an evolutionary perspective.
5. Convey the importance of language in culture and society.
6. Explain the relevance of the anthropological perspective to global issues and cultural diversity.

General Education Ratings for Anth& 100: Survey of Anthropology

Survey of Anthropology (ANTH& 100) has the following General Education Ratings:

Critical Thinking, Creativity, and Problem Solving = 3

Cultural Diversity = 3

Quantitative/Logical Reasoning = 2

Nature of Science = 3

Research/Information Literacy = 2

Reading = 2

Historical & Intellectual Perspectives = 3

Listening, Speaking = 2

What do general education ratings mean?

0 = Course does not include instruction and assessment of this area.

1 = Course includes instruction and practice of the gen-ed area, and performance/knowledge of this area is assessed

2 = Course includes instruction and practice in two or more of the outcomes of this gen-ed area, performance/knowledge is assessed, and 20% or more of the course focuses on it.

3 = Course includes instruction and practice in at least half of the outcomes of this gen-ed area, performance/knowledge is assessed, and 1/3 or more of the course focuses on it.

Please consult BC's Course Catalog for more information on General Education Ratings.

Classroom Learning Atmosphere: General Class Conduct

It is important to make sure that the classroom environment is as conducive to scholarship as possible. You are encouraged to participate in discussions of the theories and concepts that will be presented to the class, as long as they pertain to class material. You are also encouraged to learn the names of your fellow students and to be respectful of them.

However, side comments directed to fellow students contribute to distractions, not to learning, and will not be tolerated. Please review BC's policy in the Student Handbook as well as the policies for this class. All infractions of policies will be reported to the Dean of Student Services, with the recommendation that the Dean take further action.

Classroom Learning Atmosphere: Attendance and Punctuality

This class is based on the assumption that you will be attending regularly, participate fully, and support the learning environment for your fellow students. I will take attendance once at every class session at the beginning of the class. If you are absent, you are responsible for obtaining lecture notes from fellow students and to gain information regarding announcements or changes to the schedule that you may have missed. Studies have shown that the students who attend class regularly also achieve better grades and a greater comprehension of course content. Please be on time for class. If circumstances prevent you from arriving on time, please take a seat closest to the door to reduce the number of students who are distracted by your late arrival. Students sometimes encounter circumstances in which they have to leave before the end of class. Once again, this creates a distraction for others. If you should have to leave early, please arrange to sit close to the door, inform the instructor of your need to leave early, and do not re-enter the room once you have left.

Classroom Learning Atmosphere: Technology in the Classroom

Electronic devices (cell phones, laptops, etc.) are a convenience, not a right. They create a distraction for your fellow students. Cell phones are to be turned OFF while in a classroom. If you have a need to use a laptop computer for note-taking, please see me immediately.

Classroom Learning Atmosphere: Cheating and Plagiarism

Cheating and plagiarism are concerns on every college campus. Cheating or plagiarism is legitimate grounds for failing the course and dismissal from class. Cheating behavior on tests includes, but is not limited to, looking at someone else's test, asking another student for answers, assisting another student with cheating, passing notes, writing on the desk, talking during the testing period or otherwise being disruptive, using sources for information, etc. If you quote from sources, you must acknowledge those sources; otherwise you will fail this course. If you are unfamiliar with what constitutes plagiarism, please inquire. All course work, except team reviews, is to be performed by you without the assistance of others. Cheating or plagiarism will result in failure of the course. Information about Bellevue College's copyright guidelines can be found at: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/lmc/links/copyright.html>. A good resource for Plagiarism is the Writing Lab: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/writinglab/Plagiarism.html>

For all of your written work: Submit proofread work only. If you need help with your writing, please make use of the following student support services:

- Academic Success Center: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/academicsuccess/>
- Academic Tutoring Center: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/tutoring/>
- TRiO Student Support Services: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/TRiO/>
- Writing Lab @ BCC: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/writinglab/>

Preventing Plagiarism: Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty occurring when students use information or material from outside sources and do not properly cite those sources. This is grounds for disciplinary action. It is your responsibility to understand plagiarism and its consequences. Plagiarism occurs if:

- a. You do not cite quotations and/or attribute borrowed ideas.
- b. You fail to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks.
- c. You do not write summaries and paraphrases in his/her own words and/or doesn't document his/her source.
- d. You turn in work created by another person.
- e. You submit or use your own prior work for a current or past course, or work from one current course in another course without express permission from your instructors. This may also be considered academic dishonesty.
- f. Consequences: If it is determined that you have plagiarized or engaged in other forms of academic dishonesty, you will likely fail the assignment and possibly the course, despite points earned through other work. Acts of academic dishonesty are reviewed for disciplinary action.

Classroom Learning Atmosphere: Quiz-Taking and Testing Expectations

Once the testing period has begun, you may not converse with your fellow students. Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated, per the regulations of this syllabus and the Social Science Division. All tests are closed book and closed notes. You may not use any sources when taking a test, including pocket dictionaries or electronic devices. You may not listen to any electronic device (e.g., iPod) while taking a quiz or while in attendance of any class. Once the testing period has begun, you may not leave the classroom. Prior approval to miss a quiz or other class assignments is necessary. Vacation, work, attendance at social activities, sleeping in, picking up someone from the airport, etc. are not valid excuses for missing class work and you will not be able to make up class assignments for those reasons. Make-up quizzes are given at the discretion of the instructor. Just because you missed a quiz or class assignment does not automatically entitle you to make it up. It is in your best interest to appear for all quizzes and class meetings.

Classroom Learning Atmosphere

Class discussions and team work, while enriching, can also be challenging and disturbing. You may find that your fellow students hold beliefs and opinions that conflict with your own. This is an opportunity to exercise your listening skills, perfect your critical reasoning skills, and learn to examine claims based on supporting evidence. It is imperative that this learning environment be safe and open for all students regardless of age, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, religion, gender, disability, or perspective. Students who do not adhere to this code of conduct will be asked to leave the class. This behavior will be reported to the Dean of Student Services. Discussion guidelines:

1. We are not here to persuade others to our point of view; rather to examine the merits of each position, based on evidence.
2. We can respect the person even if we don't share his/her opinions.
3. We will give each participant his/her time to express their views without interruption, argumentation, or disrespectful gestures, laughter, or facial expressions, etc.
4. We will question the evidence or the claim; not the person.

5. We will remain open to corrective feedback as to our views and/or the impact of our communication style.
6. We will remain aware of the time and seek to not dominate the discussion. (No more than two comments/questions before yielding the time to others.)
7. We will avoid phrases such as: "People like that..." "That's a stupid question....idea....etc." "They always..."
8. No one should be understood to be 'representing' the entire racial/ethnic, gender, class, etc. group to which he or she belongs. You speak only for yourself.

HOW CAN YOU SUCCEED IN THIS CLASS?

1. ATTEND CLASS: Attending class helps you gain a better education and better grades.
2. TAKE NOTES: Notes will highlight what the instructor has emphasized. Take notes that you can understand and use. Review your notes right after class and before the next class meeting to reinforce learning.
3. READ: all assigned chapters in the textbook (keep up with the reading). Material that is not covered in class, but is found in the reading assignments, is fair game for testing. You are responsible for your own reading and comprehension of material.
4. PARTICIPATE: Be prepared for every class by reading the assignments ahead of time. This preparation will help you to more fully comprehend material presented in class and feel more confident participating in class discussions.
5. STUDY FOR TESTS. Prepare for exams by reading the text ahead of time and reviewing class notes.
6. APPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR: Obtain a copy of the BC Student Handbook to familiarize yourself with policies and behaviors that are appropriate to the college environment. Lewd, abusive, disruptive, or harassing behavior will not be tolerated. Turn off all electronic devices before entering the classroom. Arrive to class on time.
7. ABSENCES: If you know you will be absent for in-class assignments or quizzes, email me in advance.
8. COMPREHENSION: If you are not understanding course material, come and see me right away. I want you to do well in this course, but I cannot help you if I don't know you need help or want help. Student success is important to me, but you must be serious and an active participant in your own learning.
9. ACCOMMODATION: "If you need course adaptations or special accommodations because of a disability, or if you have medical information that needs to be shared with me in the event that the building needs to be evacuated, please contact me during the first week of the quarter. If you require accommodations due to a diagnosed disability, please contact the Disability Resource Center office in B132. Phone: 425-564-2498 (Voice) TTY: 425-564-4110." I will be glad to help you.
10. TUTORING: If you are struggling with this class or any other class, there is help available on campus and on-line. You may contact the tutoring service on campus. Come and talk with me about how I can help you.
11. EXPLORE THE LMC! The Library Media Center is at your fingertips! I strongly encourage you to visit the LMC, but you can also access it via the web. Talk to a Reference Librarian at the Library (D-126), by calling (425) 564-6161, or by email: reference@bellevuecollege.edu.
 - Main Library Media Center: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/lmc/>
 - For the LMC online catalog: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/lmc/catalogs.html>
 - For article databases: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/lmc/periodicals.html>

WOULD YOU LIKE TO JOIN THE WEIRD ANTHROPOLOGY CLUB?

Anthropologists can and do study just about anything. In our classes, you will learn about some of the usual topics...Join the club and find out about the other stuff. The mission The Weird Anthropology is to explore topics that other groups do not cover. You can expect to investigate topics from Bigfoot to indigenous hunting techniques and everything else in between. We also continually contribute to a Heifer International Fund. Please contact Anthropology Instructor Tony Tessandori, club advisor, if you are interested in joining other budding anthropologists in their pursuit of understanding humanity. (tony.tessandori@bellevuecollege.edu) ALSO see our Facebook page Society of Student Anthropologists at BC.

Message from the Chair of Anthropology

The Anthropology Department consists of a group of dedicated educators. We all want our students to learn and grow as they progress through their educations. We all are passionate about our fields of study and believe that what we have to say is important. We all feel that it is important that you come to class and take part in the learning process. We also know that life happens outside of our classrooms and missing class is sometime unavoidable. In order for all of us to work together an open dialog between students and instructors is key. Most often an understanding can be reached when outside situation arise. If at any time during the quarter you find that you are having concerns with the way a situation is being handled there are some steps to be followed. First you should talk direct to the instructor ask for clarification or further explanation. If you feel you are not getting the results you require, contact me (Anthony Tessandori, Department Chair) at tony.tessandori@bellevuecollege.edu. I will do what I can to help resolve any issues. If I am unable to help alleviate your concerns, you should contact the Interim Dean of Social Science (Virginia Bridwell) at Virginia.bridwell@bellevuecollege.edu

Anthropology Paper Usage Policy

In an attempt to conserve resources the Anthropology Department has implemented a paper use reduction policy. We will use MyBC to post materials required for class (i.e. readings, activities, the complete syllabus...). When necessary we will make copies for class, but this will be when posting is not an option. You are not expected to print all materials. When we think it would be beneficial to print materials we will inform you of this. but will not require it. We know that it is not always convenient and understand that we all must make changes to attain a sustainable life style.

I look forward to the coming quarter and I hope to speak to each of you about the possibilities anthropology has to offer. Have a great quarter!

Affirmation of Inclusion

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination.

We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect. <http://bellevuecollege.edu/about/goals/inclusion.asp>

PROCEDURES AND GUIDELINES OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCE DIVISION Winter 2013

Cheating, Stealing and Plagiarizing*

Cheating, stealing and plagiarizing (using the ideas or words of another as one’s own without crediting the source) and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to: talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Student Services for possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College. Specific student rights, responsibilities and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct, available in the office of the Dean of Student Services and at http://bellevuecollege.edu/policies/2/2050P_Student_Code_\(Procedures\).asp.asp)

Email Communication with instructors must be done through student email accounts only. Instructors cannot communicate with students about their course work or grades through student's personal email accounts.

Incomplete

If a student fails to complete all the required work for a course, an instructor may assign the grade of Incomplete ("I"). The student must complete the coursework by the end of the next quarter, or receive the assigned letter grade (usually an "F").

F Grade

Students who fail a course will receive a letter grade of "F."

Final Examination Schedule

The Social Science Division will adhere to the final examination schedule as stated in the BC Schedule. Final examinations will be held at the end of each quarter at fixed times. Instructors will not give examinations in advance of the regular schedule. A student who is absent from any examination held at any time during the quarter may forfeit the right to make up the examination. If, for illness or some other circumstance beyond the student's control, the student is unable to be present at any scheduled examination and has contacted the instructor on a timely basis, the student may be permitted to take such examination at a time designated by the instructor.

Withdrawal From Class

College policy states that students must formally withdraw from a class by the end of the seventh week of the quarter (Registration Office, B125). If a student has not withdrawn by that date, an appropriate letter grade will be assigned for the course.

Hardship Withdrawal

Instructors may assign the grade of "HW" (hardship withdrawal) at their discretion in the event that a student cannot complete the coursework due to extreme and exceptional circumstances. Students may also contact the Enrollment Services office BEFORE grades are assigned in cases of hardship.

Students Who Require Disability Accommodations:

Students with disabilities who have accommodation needs are encouraged to meet with the Disability Resource Centre (DRC) office located in B132 (telephone 425.564.2498 or TTY 425.564.4110), to establish their eligibility for accommodation. The DRC office will provide each eligible student with an accommodation letter. Students who require accommodation in class should review the DRC accommodation letter with each instructor during the first week of the quarter.

Students with mobility challenges who may need assistance in case of an emergency situation or evacuation should register with Disability Resource Centre, and review those needs with the instructor as well.

Distribution of Grades

Grades will not be posted in the Social Science Division or in faculty offices, and program assistants or coordinators will not give out grades. Students should access their grades through the BC Web site.

Return of Papers and Tests

Paper and/or Scantron score sheet returns will be arranged in the following ways ONLY: by mail, if student supplies the instructor with stamped, self-addressed envelope (with appropriate postage); or by the instructor designating a time and place whereby the student may retrieve his/her papers. Unclaimed papers and/or Scantron score sheets must be kept by the instructor for a minimum of sixty (60) instructional days following the end of the quarter.
