REQUIRED TEXT BOOK:

Berger, Kathleen. Invitation to the Lifespan, third edition, Worth Publishers, 2016.
Any format is acceptable, including eBook, notebook, paperback, or cloth edition.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Psychology 200 presents research and theories regarding human growth and change across the life span. Students explore factors that affect psychosocial, cognitive, and physical development from psychological and socio-cultural perspectives.

COURSE FOCUS:

Psychology 200 is an introductory course on the science of human development from conception through death. It will discuss theories that provide the organization and framework for explaining the lifespan perspective, interaction between heredity and environment, plasticity, multicultural awareness, risk analysis, the damage-repair cycle, and family bonding.

COURSE FORMAT:

This is a hybrid course with both in-class and online components. Hybrid courses combine classroom interaction and online resources. Many course interactions are conducted on our course website, reducing the amount of face-to-face class meeting time. To succeed in this course, you must regularly use a computer with Internet access. If you don't have a home computer with Internet access, and you live close to campus, an open computer lab is available in N250 to all BC credit students.

If you have questions about the course, please read the Getting Started folder on our course website first before asking your professor. Take active responsibility for your own education. You will be expected to read the weekly chapters before completing the assignments. Challenge assumptions, and consider the implications and applications of course material. Thinking deeply about the course material will not only help you remember it better – it'll make it more fun and useful now and in the future.

PREREQUISITE:

Psychology 100 General Psychology

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this course, the successful student will be able to:

- Compare and contrast stage theory and transition theory, discussing continuity, stability and chronology issues.
- Identify the three major research methods: descriptive, correlational and experimental designs and relate them to the unique challenges of developmental research.
- Describe the interactions of genetic and environmental influences at each stage of the life span.
- Compare and contrast the cognitive theory of Jean Piaget with the information processing theories of cognitive development.
- Compare and contrast the psychosocial theory of Erik Erikson with the psychosexual theory of Sigmund Freud.
- Articulate the prenatal health issues and birthing options as influences on prenatal development.
- Apply knowledge of cross-cultural research to developmental differences across the life span.
- Articulate common issues and perspectives for each life stage in order to communicate effectively across the life span.

EMAIL COMMUNICATIONS:

All email communication must be done through the Canvas learning system during the quarter. My regular BC email is only in the event of an emergency when Canvas is down. No communication regarding course work or grades will be sent to student's personal non-Bellevue College email accounts.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS & GRADES:

The final grade is based on a total of 1,000 points. These points are calculated as follows:
Exams	4 x 100 points each	400 Points
Case Studies	9 x 20 points each	180 Points
Written Assignment	Interview an Older Adult	60 Points
Weekly Quizzes	4 x 10 points each 6 x 20 points each	160 Points
Attendance	Plan to Attend Every Class	200 Points
Total		1,000 Points

In conformity with BC's grading policy, the grades will be assigned as follows:

A 100% – 94%	B+ 89% – 87%	C+ 79% – 77%	D+ 69% – 67%
A- 93% – 90%	B 86% – 84%	C 76% – 74%	D 66% – 60%
	B- 83% – 80%	C- 73% – 70%	F 59% - Below

EXAMS:

There will be four (4) exams, each worth 100 points. Each exam will cover information that is contained in the study guide. The exam format may contain multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank, or short answer questions. No exams will be available outside of the regular open exam window without written documentation. It is expected that if you go out of town, you will find a way to access the Internet (free Wi-Fi spots, hotel offices, public libraries, etc.) in order to take your exams during the open exam window. There will be no comprehensive final exam.

CASE STUDIES:

There will be nine case studies during the quarter. While studying the weekly module students will write an analysis of a case corresponding to that module's specific stage in development and corresponding to a distinct challenge faced in the lifespan. Each case study and specific details including how to write a case study are located in the course modules.

INTERVIEW:

Students are required to interview a person from either the Older Adult (ages 65-90+) or the Adult (ages 25-64) age group using the developmental perspectives studied in this course. Formal interviews help students learn information about family history, culture, and traditions. Instructions for conducting the interview can be found in the course modules.

WEEKLY QUIZZES:

These short weekly quizzes are incorporated into the various chapters of the textbook and used to help integrate terms and concepts to further learning. There will be ten quizzes over the course of the quarter.

ATTENDANCE:

Students are expected to attend every class, to be on time and stay for the entire class. Work schedules, public transportation schedules, and personal vacation times need to be arranged to allow regular attendance and participation for the entire quarter.

DUE DATES AND DEADLINES:

All assignments for the course will be open from the first day of the quarter, but have weekly due dates and times when work is due. Because of this generous and open schedule, no late work will be accepted, except under the following circumstances:

- If you are able to provide written documentation, such as a letter from your health care provider, which explains your need for an exception, it will be considered.
- It is each student's responsibility to know the due dates and times for all assignments and make sure there is an alternate computer (public library, on campus, friend or family member) from which to complete assignments and take exams.
- Computer malfunction or technical problems are not valid excuses to grant an exception to the due date. Plan ahead.
- Put all due dates and exam times in your phone to help manage your time efficiently. Save your work early, often, and in multiple locations, such as the cloud, a memory stick, or another computer.

Psychology

As your instructor for this course, I will make every effort to answer your email questions in a timely manner. This may include answering a question in class or through Canvas, whichever is more appropriate. My goal is to respond to a question within 24 hours of receiving it Monday through Thursday between the hours of 9am and 7pm, and on Friday between 9am and noon. Outside of these times I will reply only if I happen to visit the course site. Note that this response time is only applicable to email questions, not to graded assignments. I will also hold virtual office hours on a weekly basis throughout the quarter. See the course schedule for details. Instructions for participating in online office hours is available in the Getting Started folder.

STUDENTS WHO REQUIRE DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS:

The Disability Resource Center serves students with a wide array of learning challenges and disabilities. If you are a student who has a disability or learning challenge for which you have documentation or have seen someone for treatment and if you feel you may need accommodations in order to be successful in college, please contact the DRC as soon as possible.

If you are a student with a documented autism spectrum disorder, there is an additional access program available to you. Contact asn@bellevuecollege.edu or (425) 564-2764. ASN is located in the Library Media Center in D 125. www.bellevuecollege.edu/autismspectrumnavigators/.

The DRC office is located in B 132 or you can call our reception desk at (425) 564-2498. Deaf students can reach us by TTY at (425) 564-4110. Visit their website for application information into their program and other helpful links at www.bellevuecollege.edu/drc/.

ADVISING:

The Psychology Department has an in-house advisor, Deanne Eschbach, located in D110C. Call 425-564-2216 or 425-564-2212 for personal appointment.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS IN THIS COURSE:

Log onto our Canvas site every day: In order to complete the weekly assignments and be informed about any changes to the schedule, assignments, and other information about the course it will be necessary for you to check Canvas course website regularly.

Read the Textbook: Reading the course textbook as well as assigned readings/ articles will be essential for understanding the course material. It will also give you the opportunity to experience the material in a different media. It will be assumed that you have completed the readings before completing the discussions and case studies so that you will be able discuss and reference the material that you have read.

Manage Your Time Efficiently: Do not wait until the last minute to start an assignment. Even though all assignments are open for the entire quarter, each assignment has a weekly due date. Starting your work early allows you to spend the appropriate amount of time on the assignment, and it allows you to contact the instructor if you have any questions. Plan ahead. Save your work early, often, and in multiple locations. Submit proofread work only.

Talk with me: I will be available for virtual office hours every Monday from 9:00am to 10:00am. You can also send me an email through our Canvas website where we can correspond or set up a private chat on our site.

SAFE SPACE:

This class is a Safe Space for all students. Lesbian, gay, bisexual, questioning, queer-identified, and transgender students along with students of all cultures, nationalities, and spiritual beliefs are welcome in this classroom and encouraged to share your thoughts and be an integral part of this course. If a student has any questions or concerns about this, feel free to speak with me or email me about it immediately. All are welcome in this class!

WITHDRAWAL FROM CLASS:

College policy states that students must formally withdraw from a class by the end of the seventh week of the quarter during the standard academic year (Registration Office, B125). If a student has not withdrawn by that date, an appropriate letter grade will be assigned for the course. Check Enrollment Calendar Deadlines, Refunds/Withdrawals, for additional details. As with most enrollment deadlines, it is the student's responsibility to be aware of these dates and act accordingly.

INCOMPLETE:

If a student fails to complete all the required work for the course, the professor may assign the grade of Incomplete ("I"). You must contact your professor before grades are assigned to be considered for this exception and you must complete the coursework by the end of the next quarter, or receive the assigned letter grade (usually an "F").

HARDSHIP WITHDRAWAL (HW):

HW indicates a withdrawal request made because of extenuating circumstances after the official withdrawal period is over. You must contact your professor directly to request this withdrawal option, and you must provide documented proof of the need for this exception. Also be aware that a hardship withdrawal cannot be used as an option to avoid receiving a failing grade for the course.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION:

If you would like a letter of recommendation I require that you notify me at least one month before the letter is due; complete a detailed questionnaire as completely as possible; and meet with me if I have any further questions.

BELLEVUE COLLEGE'S AFFIRMATION OF INCLUSION:

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination. We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect. Bellevue College does not discriminate on the basis of race or ethnicity; color; creed; national origin; sex; marital status; sexual orientation; age; religion; genetic information; the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability; gender identity or veteran status in educational programs and activities which it operates. For further information and contacts, please consult College Anti-Discrimination Statements.

The college's "Affirmation of Inclusion" is in line with the principle of free speech in a free society: We have the right to express unpopular ideas as long as we don't show disrespect for reasonable people who might believe otherwise. In an online course, you will be expressing ideas through the medium of the course site rather than face to face in the classroom. In that case, these expectations refer to the courtesy with which you communicate with one another through emails and discussions. Part of this respect involves professional behavior towards the instructor, colleagues, and the class itself.

PLAGIARISM AND OTHER CONDUCT POLICIES:

Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty that occurs when students use information or material from outside sources and do not properly cite those sources. This is grounds for disciplinary action. It is your responsibility to understand plagiarism and its consequences. Plagiarism occurs if:

- a. You do not cite quotations and/or attribute borrowed ideas.
- b. You fail to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks.
- c. You do not write summaries and paraphrases in his/her own words and/or doesn't document his/her source.
- d. You turn in work created by another person.
- e. You submit or use your own prior work for a current or past course, or work from one current course in another course without express permission from your professors. This may also be considered academic dishonesty.

KNOW THE CODE
INTEGRITY • RESPECT • RESPONSIBILITY

CONSEQUENCES:

If it is determined that you have plagiarized or engaged in other forms of academic dishonesty, you will likely fail the assignment and possibly the course, despite points earned through other work. Acts of academic dishonesty are reviewed for disciplinary action.

Cheating, stealing, plagiarizing, and inappropriate or disruptive online classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Student Services for possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College. Specific student rights, responsibilities and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct, available in the office of the Dean of Student Services.
