5112 Spring 2011

Instructor: Erica Clower

E-mail: erica.clower@bellevuecollege.edu

Course Meetings: NONE

Office location: D 200E

Office Hours: TBA

Course Outcomes

- Be able to evaluate economic examples as they related to personal incentives, voluntary exchanges, and to recognize the key concept of opportunity cost.
- Be able to set-up and identify, both graphically and in words, a competitive market model's associated components and outcomes (demand, supply, price, equilibrium) and their link to utility theory, and various production decisions
- Apply the basic model's approach to factor markets
- Expand the basic model to address elements of market failures
- Be able to calculate both marginal and average values for a variety of data sets and be able to use them appropriately within decision-making evaluations of choices.
- Understand the value of the competitive market model's outcome as a benchmark for evaluating more realistic models of industrial organization and government activity.
- Recognize and apply 'economic thinking' to various policy issues and applied problems, incorporating appropriately both positive and normative elements of analysis, with measures of efficiency and equity In addition, students may be introduced to a subset of the following:
 - Elasticity as a measure of quantity's responsiveness to changes in prices or income
 - Coase Theorem and transaction costs as they pertain to market failures
 - Maximizing behavior and the limitations of rationality assumptions for households, firms and government agents.
 - Discuss, in depth, alternative mechanisms of allocation beyond the market mechanism of the price signal.

Grading

Homework Assignments: 20%

Discussion questions: 20 %

EXAM ONE: 30%

EXAM TWO: 30%

Total: 100%

TENTATIVE First Exam Due Date: Tuesday, May 10th, at 12 midnight

TENTATIVE Second Exam Due Date: Thursday, June 16th, at 12 midnight

Homework Assignments:

Problem sets will be assigned every week. These will need to be completed online at the Aplia website. Some important policies to be aware of:

1. Homework assignments are due every Sunday by 11:45 pm. No late assignments will be excepted.
2. The assignments are available on the Aplia website. Aplia provides a check list every week of things to be completed each week. Please note that some assignments are practice and some are graded.
3. Make sure you are familiar with how to Aplia grades assignments. Usually you will have the option to complete similar problems up to three times if you do not get it correct.

Discussion Questions:

Discussion questions will be posted every Sunday night on the Blackboard Site for the course. You will have a week to complete the discussion question requirement. However, please review the requirement below:

1. Some discussion questions will require you to read additional articles and/or watch short video clip. There will be accompanying questions to be answer.
2. There are three main requirements to be met:
 - i. Provide a well composed and well thought out original posting.
 - ii. Provide two responses to other students postings.
 - iii. These must be completed on THREE DIFFERENT DAYS.
3. Complete descriptions of grading criteria are provided in an additional form.

Exams:

Exams will be due on the Aplia website on the days listed in the course schedule. They will be posted at 12 AM and you will have 24 hours to begin the exam. Once you begin the exam you will have 120 minutes to complete it. Please make sure you have 120minutes available to take the exam. You will not be able to stop the exam timer once you have started. Some things to note:

1. The exam will include problems similar to your Aplia assignments. They will include a mixture of multiple choice, short answer, and problem solving problems.
2. One week prior to the exam a review sheet will be posted on the Blackboard website. This will include sstudy tips and a list of topics included on the exam.

Make-Up Exams:

I do not provide make-up exams. If you miss an exam you will receive a zero unless you have a documented emergency. If you have a documented emergency the score from the other exam will contribute to your final grade as both exam scores. Hence the exam you do not miss will make-up 60% of your final score.

Final Grades:

- Bellevue College utilizes a consistent, published letter grading system to reflect the student's achievements. For students who do not wish to take a course for a letter grade, an optional Pass/Fail grading system is available, as is the option to audit a course. The student is responsible for initiating the removal of an incomplete grade or for correcting a grade he or she believes is incorrect. Students who have received a "D" or "F" in a course have the right, under certain circumstances, to repeat the course.
- I will drop your lowest homework and discussion question grades in determining your final grade.

The link to the College Grading Policy is located on page 10 of the Course Catalog and also on the web at:

Affirmation of Inclusion

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination.

We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect. <http://bellevuecollege.edu/about/goals/inclusion.asp>

Student Code

“Cheating, stealing and plagiarizing (using the ideas or words of another as one’s own without crediting the source) and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to: talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Vice President of Student Services for possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College. Specific student rights, responsibilities and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct, available in the office of the Vice President of Student Services.” The Student Code, Policy 2050, in its entirety is located at: http://bellevuecollege.edu/policies/2/2050_Student_Code.asp

Preventing Plagiarism: Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty occurring when students use information or material from outside sources and do not properly cite those sources. This is grounds for disciplinary action. It is your responsibility to understand plagiarism and its consequences. Plagiarism occurs if:

- a. You do not cite quotations and/or attribute borrowed ideas.
- b. You fail to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks.
- c. You do not write summaries and paraphrases in his/her own words and/or doesn’t document his/her source.
- d. You turn in work created by another person.
- e. You submit or use your own prior work for a current or past course, or work from one current course in another course without express permission from your professors. This may also be considered academic dishonesty.
- f. Consequences: If it is determined that you have plagiarized or engaged in other forms of academic dishonesty, you will likely fail the assignment and possibly the course, despite points earned through other work. Acts of academic dishonesty are reviewed for disciplinary action.
