U.S. Economic History

Texts:

History of the American Economy, 11e, Walton and Rockoff (WR)
A People's History of the United States: 1492 to the Present, Howard Zinn (Zinn)

Course Objectives:

This course will explore the economic and social foundations of American capitalism. We will focus on the rise and the success of the American case, while at the same time highlighting its oddities. Topics covered will include but not be limited to: the colonial efforts, the American Revolution, tariff policy, the Civil War, economic instability, the labor movement, and the Great Depression. By making use of multiple perspectives this class will also provide a context for the critical appraisal of competing historical explanations. It is my hope that your understanding of the facts will improve and simultaneously you will begin to relate the events of the past to the economic problems of the present.

Grading:

Evaluation of student performance will be based on two exams, two argumentative essays (past/present pieces), and class participation/notecards. The relative weights are as follows. A grade scale is listed below and each component is described in more detail.

Midterm	25%	5/6
Final	25%	6/15 @ 9:30
Past/Present Piece #1	20%	4/22
Past/Present Piece	20%	6/3
Notecards	10%	Daily
Total	100%

100-94 A, 93-90 A-, 89-87 B+, 86-83 B, 82-80 B-, 79-77 C+, 76-73 C, 72-70 C-,
69-67 D+, 66-60 D, 59 > F

Exams

Both exams will be in-class long format essays. The final will emphasize second half material, but will also require your continued command of material from the first half of the class. Prompts, study guides, or some other aid will be given to help you organize what you have learned. You will need to bring an examination book (a.k.a. blue book). You can purchase these at the bookstore. I suggest you buy 4 of them at the beginning of the semester. If you fail to bring a blue book you will be penalized 5% for that exam. Make up exams will only be given for school excused absences, catastrophic accidents, profound personal tragedy, severe illness, or other extraordinary circumstances. Poor planning, being overloaded with work, or travel plans do not constitute valid reasons for make-up exams

Past/Present Pieces

The Past/Present Pieces (PPP) should be 4-6 page argumentative essays. You will pick a historical event, period, condition, or actor and argue for why they are relevant to modern day policy discussions. Your PPP should establish your understanding of the past event, the present event, and the connection between the two. Lastly, please be sure to argue for a specific understanding or course of action for the present, given your understanding of the past. Assume you are writing for someone who only has a basic understanding of economics.

Some general rules apply to the writing assignments. First, all of these assignments should be typed, double-spaced, using standard font sizes and margins. Second, your grade will be based in part on whether or not you have expressed yourself clearly. Spelling, grammar, and organization matter. Third, if you use material from any source, you must clearly indicate your source, and if you directly quote any material, you must clearly indicate what has been quoted (along with indicating your source). If you quote material without clearly indicating so, you will receive a 0 for the assignment. If you have any questions about this, please discuss them with me. Finally, you may not turn assignments in late. If you know that you are going to miss class on the day an assignment is due, please make some arrangement for getting the work to me before class. Late work will be docked 10% a day.

Class Participation

Participation points will be based on one mandatory office visit and daily homework assignments. Each student must meet with me for a private consultation in the first two weeks of the semester. If office hours are not convenient, then we can schedule a phone consultation. Students will also be expected to arrive each day with a 3x5 index card that has three main points from the reading, three questions for discussion about the reading, or any combination of the two that adds to three. If the note cards devolve into the restatement of definitions from the margins of the text and other banal reiterations, then I will resort to pop quizzes. These note cards should prep you to engage the material and they should also help you when it comes time to study for exams. Eleven of these will be graded throughout the semester. I will drop one and the remainder will equal 10% of your final grade. Attendance and preparation matter to your grade!!!

Instructor Expectations

I expect students to show up to class prepared, participate in discussion, and not distract other students. If you and your personal electronics become a distraction to other students, then you will be dismissed for the day and warned. If it is a recurrent problem, then you will be referred to the Vice President of Student Services for removal from the class and any disciplinary action that office deems appropriate.
