Required Text

Schmallegger, F. (2014). Criminal Justice: A brief introduction, 10th Ed. United States: Pearson. ISBN: 0-13-300979-3

Course Description:

This course surveys the criminal justice process from arrest through release. Students examine the relationships and responsibilities of and among police, prosecutors, courts, and probation and parole systems. Important background information on crime, classifications and definitions of offenses, and victims and offenders is discussed as well. The focus of this introductory course includes: 1) Police organization, roles and functions, and responsibilities; 2) Court organization, processes, and outcomes (e.g. sentencing); 3) Punishments issues including probation, jail, prison, and community corrections.

General Education: Computer Literacy Skill Development

Learners will be able to:

1. Use a working vocabulary based on the terminology used in the three components of the Criminal Justice System.
2. Differentiate between the workings and responsibilities of the three major components of the American Criminal Justice System: the police, the courts and corrections.
3. Describe the theories, models and concepts within the Criminal Justice System and determine their strengths and weaknesses.
4. Explain how laws are made, categorized and enforced and the process of deciding how these laws are applied to case based situations.
5. Identify the reasons why experts in the field think the term Criminal Justice System is a myth and a true system is non-existent.
6. Examine the current major issues within the Criminal Justice System and be able to explain those issues giving case based examples of what they are.

Assignments

All written assignments need to be completed in a standard APA or MLA format. Be sure to cite all sources, even if only the textbook is used. For information on how to write academic papers and for standard source citations see <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/> (<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/>).

Your assignments are:

- Weekly 15-point assignments. Submit via canvas
 - Due the next Monday (start of the module week). These are short papers 2-3 double spaced pages (not counting a cover and references page). The paper must be typed in 12-point font (Times New Roman). These are fact papers! While your opinion may be solicited, be sure to back up your points with solid resources. WIKIPEDIA is never considered an acceptable source.
- Weekly 10-point discussion posts.
 - These are to be written in complete sentences and are not to be treated like text messages. Always use the utmost courtesy and appropriate etiquette in your communications. Since this course is online, this is the primary means of communication between students and with the instructor. You will be required to post your own opinion first and then respond to at least two other classmates. Each weekly post counts as 10 points toward participation. Your post will be due the Friday of the week assigned and all responses to posts must be completed by Sunday at midnight.
- Weekly 10-point multiple-choice quizzes.
 - These quizzes are directly from the text and weekly modules. You will have 30 minutes to complete each quiz. The quiz must be completed in one sitting and must be done by midnight Sunday of the assigned week. 20 questions, each worth 1/2 point.
- Final Research Paper 100 points. Submit via Canvas
 - This is an academic research paper. It should be at least 5 pages in length (cover page and reference page do not count and please no longer than 10 pages). The paper must be typed in 12 point font (Times New Roman), 1 inch margins, and MUST have a cover page and references page in APA or MLA documentation style (no abstract is needed, but list all references).
 - The paper may be on any topic within the area of criminal justice. You must discuss and decide on your topic and GET IT CLEARED BY THE INSTRUCTOR by week 5.
 - You may not use Wikipedia as a reference since it is not peer reviewed (see me for all sources that you are unsure about using). You must have at least 2 peer-reviewed references.
 - The paper must be turned in via Canvas by March 23 NO LATE PAPERS WILL BE ACCEPTED!!!
 - Plagiarism will result in a 0 grade for the course and may have potential academic discipline beyond the scope of the course.
- Final Examination 50 points
 - Multiple Choice Question (some repeats from previous quizzes). 100 questions each worth 1/2 a point.

Schedule

The following schedule is tentative and may be modified with notice. Students are responsible for ANY and ALL changes that are made to this schedule. The assigned readings should be completed prior to class and all test date submissions are due on the dates specified, with no exceptions, unless permission has been given.

Expectations & Information

Attendance: All students are expected to check into the class daily and complete each module. Obviously, if students do not attend to the class regularly and study, the opportunity to perform well in this course is greatly diminished.

Course Requirements: All students are expected to read the required chapters of the textbook as outlined online and in the schedule section of this syllabus. Students are also expected to read the required chapters to attend the online classroom regularly, finish online requirements, take notes, ask questions, and participate in online discussions.

Late Policy: Any papers or other assignments will be accepted on a case by case basis. Typically late papers will be deducted 3 pts per day and will not be accepted after 3 days past due. No extra credit will be awarded if the assignment that has the extra credit question is turned in late.

Make-up Policy: Any make-up tests are allowed only at the discretion of the instructor and immediate notification from the student is imperative. Additionally, all make-up exams (for any un-excused circumstance) will adhere to the following criteria: 1) administered only by the instructor during office hours/or instructor's choosing; 2) cumulative in nature; and 3) given in a format of the instructors choosing.

Veterans: I thank you for your service to our country and let me know if you need help in any way (tutoring, advising, job opportunities or any other services at the college).

Running Start Students: If this is your first class please plan on meeting with me in person for a short chat during the first two weeks of class. I want to help make this college transition successful for you.

Incomplete:

If a student fails to complete all the required work for course, an instructor may assign the grade of Incomplete ("F"). The student must complete the coursework by the end of the next quarter, or receive the assigned letter grade (usually an ("F").

F Grade:

Students who fail a course will receive a letter grade of "F."

Final Examination Schedule:

The Social Science Division will adhere to the final examination schedule as stated in the BC schedule. Final examinations will be held at the end of each quarter at fixed times. Instructors will not give examinations in advance of the regular schedule. A student who is absent from any examination held at any time during the quarter may forfeit the right to make up the examination. If, for illness or some other circumstances beyond the student's control, the student is unable to be present at any scheduled examination and has contacted the instructor on a timely basis, the student may be permitted to take such examination at a time designed by the instructor.

Withdrawal from Class:

College policy states students must formally withdraw from a class by the end of the seventh week of the quarter (Registration Office, B125). If a student has not withdrawn by that date, an appropriate letter grade will be assigned for the course.

Hardship Withdrawal:

Instructors may assign the grade of "HW" (hardship withdrawal) at their discretion in the event that a student cannot complete the coursework due to extreme circumstances. Students may also contact the Enrollment Services office BEFORE grades are assigned in cases of hardship.

Distribution of Grades:

Grades will not be posted in the Social Science Division or in faculty offices, and secretaries will not give out grades. Students should access their grades online through Blackboard Vista.

Return of Papers and Tests:

Paper and/or Scantron score sheet returns will be arranged in the following ways ONLY: by mail, if students supplies the instructor with stamped, self-addressed envelope (with appropriate postage); or by the instructor designating a time and place whereby the student may retrieve his/her papers. Unclaimed papers and/or Scantron score sheets must be kept by the instructor for a minimum of sixty (60) instructional days following the end of the quarter.

If you are accused of cheating, stealing exams and/or plagiarism, there is a Bellevue College Student Discipline and Appeals Procedure (the right to due process) which you may pursue. Contact the office of Division Chair (D110), the Dean of Student Services (B231A) OR THE Associated Student Body (C212) for information regarding the appeals process.*

Affirmation of Inclusion

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination.

We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect. <http://bellevuecollege.edu/about/goals/inclusion.asp>

Student Code

"Cheating, stealing and plagiarizing (using the ideas or words of another as one's own without crediting the source) and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to: talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Vice President of Student Services for possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College. Specific student rights, responsibilities and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct, available in the office of the Vice President of Student Services." The Student Code, Policy 2050, in its entirety is located at: http://bellevuecollege.edu/policies/2/2050_Student_Code.asp
