Required Text: Criminology: The Core (Current Edition). By Larry J. Siegel

Course Description: The course is designed to make students aware that the objective of Criminology is the development of a body of general and verified principles and of other types of knowledge regarding the process of law, crime, and treatment or prevention. These bodies of knowledge are constructed from study and analysis conducted in accordance with the scientific principles of research methodology. At the end of the course, you should have a good understanding of crime and criminology. This knowledge will enable you to view the relevant issues surrounding the question of criminal behavior from more than one perspective.

Class Format: This class will be a combination of lectures and class discussions. You are responsible for coming to class prepared (i.e., having read the assigned material) to actively participate in class discussions. We will spend a considerable amount of time discussing cases and theories included in the materials and practical applications of class material. It is my intention to cultivate a classroom environment in which each of us feels free to express opinions and ask questions. Opinions expressed by students must be supported by social, legal, economic and/or political arguments. We do not discuss to demonstrate whether we are right or wrong. Rather, it is an exercise to develop a broader understanding of the complexities of theories. DISRESPECT IN ANY FORM WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

Assignments:

Participation. Participation is key to your understanding of concepts discussed in this course. Understanding or mastery of concepts may be demonstrated by appropriate application of criminological theories during classroom discussions. Students may have their grades increased by 1/3 through active participation.

Exams - 300 points. There will be three exams during the quarter, consisting of two midterms (100 points each) and a final (100 points). The exams are not cumulative. Each exam will include material from the book and class lectures. Material from the book will be covered even if we have not discussed it in class. The exams will be in-class, closed-book, and consist of multiple choice and essay questions. I will conduct a thorough review the day before the exam in class. No make-up exams will be allowed unless you have a medical emergency, with proof. BRING A PEN AND BLUE BOOK TO CLASS FOR EXAMS.

Research Paper on a Specific Criminological Behavior (I.E. Serial Killer, Habitual Felon, Etc.) - 100 points. At the beginning of the Fifth Week, an assignment sheet will be handed out describing structure and requirements for the paper.

Course Schedule: The following schedule is tentative and may be modified with notice. Students are responsible for ANY and ALL changes that are made to this schedule. The assigned readings should be completed prior to class.

Make-up Policy: No make-up exams without prior notification or extreme circumstances.

Veterans: I thank you for your service to our country and let me know if you need help in any way (tutoring, advising, job opportunities or any other services at the college).

Running Start Students: If this is your first class please plan on meeting with me in person for a short chat during the first two weeks of class. I want to help make this college transition successful for you.

Incomplete:

If a student fails to complete all the required work for course, an instructor may assign the grade of Incomplete ("F"). The student must complete the coursework by the end of the next quarter, or receive the assigned letter grade (usually an ("F")).

F Grade:

Students who fail a course will receive a letter grade of “F.”

Final Examination Schedule:

The Social Science Division will adhere to the final examination schedule as stated in the BC schedule. Final examinations will be held at the end of each quarter at fixed times. Instructors will not give examinations in advance of the regular schedule. A student who is absent from any examination held at any time during the quarter may forfeit the right to make up the examination. If, for illness or some other circumstances beyond the student’s control, the student is unable to be present at any scheduled examination and has contacted the instructor on a timely basis, the student may be permitted to take such examination at a time designed by the instructor.

Withdrawal from Class:

College policy states students must withdraw from a class without a “W” posted on their transcript by January 17.
