Course Description and Goals

This course will examine the many different areas of study in sociology including race, gender, class, politics, etc. Critical thinking and discussion will be important components of the course.

To make appointments, please go to drle.youcanbook.me or scan the code above. Download a free QR Code Reader from your App Store to scan this as well as those in your textbook.

Course Outcomes

After completing this course, successful students should be able to:

- Critically examine the social landscape in which you live and how life experiences differ according to race, class, gender and sexuality.
- Identify the ways in which cultural and social institutions shape the everyday experiences of individuals, groups and communities.
- Describe fundamental sociological concepts, theories, and theorists, and apply them to real-life situations.

(This is also how the book should be cited in your own work. Click on the link to view the free textbook.)

Additional readings for the course will be available through our Canvas course in the Files tab (in the Readings folder).

Attendance and Schedule

As this is an online class, attendance will be counted by your online access to the course and the meeting of deadlines. In order to be considered an active member of the course, students must log into the course within the first two days of the quarter, or you will be withdrawn from the class.

Each week for this course begins on Monday and ends on Sunday. All assignments listed as due for each week will be due on Sunday by 11:59pm PST with the exception of initial discussion board posts, which are due each week on Thursday by 11:59pm PST.

Classroom Policies

As this is a college course, this classroom shall be treated as a professional environment. I expect everyone to be respectful of others. There will be zero tolerance for disrespect including but not limited to racism, sexism, ageism, ableism, and heterosexism.

Netiquette

The following are general guidelines to follow in an online classroom environment. These guidelines will help foster a positive and constructive learning environment.

1. Avoid using ALL CAPS as this suggests you are shouting and is more difficult to read.
2. Avoid using emoticons (e.g. :-), >:(, etc.) and texting slang (e.g. lol, btw, etc.).
3. Keep your written communications focused and to the point.
4. Remember that your posts are public to the members of this class. Do not say anything online that you wouldn't say to someone's face.
5. Obey copyright laws. Do not use text, images, or other content without permission or proper citation.
6. As with all college courses, academic dishonesty (including plagiarism, cheating, multiple submissions, etc.) will not be tolerated.

Course Requirements

Discussion Posts

(360 points total, 30 points each)

A new topic of discussion will be available each week. Initial posts—your own response to the discussion topic—are due each week on Thursday by 11:59pm PST. Response posts—responses made on your classmates' threads (not including replies made on your own thread)—are due each week on Sunday by 11:59pm PST. You are required to make a minimum of THREE posts each week (one initial and two response posts) but are encouraged to post more to demonstrate your engagement with your peers and the topic. Each post should use critical thinking, be thoughtful, concise, and include related research from the textbook or news sources.

TIP: thoughtful response posts should include critical reflection, meaningful questions, and/or related content or research from the textbook or news sources. Simple agreement or disagreement will not count toward your minimum number of posts.

Quizzes

(240 points total, 30 points each)

Quizzes will be available eight times during the quarter and cover the material from that week. They will be multiple choice with potentially one short answer question. The quizzes will be available for the full week (Monday through Sunday) and are due by Sunday at 11:59pm PST. Only one attempt will be allowed for each quiz and it will be timed.

Sociological Imagination Papers

(400 points total)

Throughout the quarter, you will be writing two short papers (600 words max) and one long paper (1500 words max) relating sociology to your life. The larger paper will be made up of sections of the three papers before it along with additional content. Assignment guidelines will be available on Canvas.

Paper 1 – Family (100 points)

Paper 2 – Education (100 points)

Paper 3 – Sociological Portrait (200 points)

Each paper should follow proper citation guidelines using either MLA or APA style. This website contains helpful guidelines: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/>. The format for all papers should be double spaced, Arial 12 point font, with 1 inch margins on all sides, and no title page or running header. Guidelines and a grading rubric will be available for students to review. Papers are to be uploaded on Canvas on or before the due date.

Grade Distribution

TOTAL: 1000 points

A = 930 - 1000+

A- = 900 - 929

B+ = 870 - 899

B = 830 - 869

B- = 800 - 829

C+ = 770 - 799

C = 730 - 769

C- = 700 - 729

D+ = 670 - 699

D = 630 - 669

D- = 600 - 629

F = 0 - 599

Discussion Posts – 360 points (30 points each) = 36%

Quizzes – 240 points (30 points each) = 24%

Paper 1 – 100 points = 10%

Paper 2 – 100 points = 10%

Paper 3 – 200 points = 20%

To excel in this course, a student should stay on top of course readings and view the topic slides. All students are expected to have read the assigned material before posting to the discussion board. I want you to do your very best in this course; and I will help all students as much as I can.

Note: There will be no curve in this class, including individual assignments. Your grade is what you earn.

Extra Credit

Video links will be posted in the Canvas assignment link. These videos must be watched and analyzed using course content. Extra credit papers will be due by 11:59pm PST on the last day of finals week. Students may complete ONE of these extra credit opportunities for a possible 15 points. These extra points are added onto a student's total points for the course. No late work will be accepted. Please view the full assignment sheet on Canvas.

Late Policy

Any missed assignments must accompany an approved absence in order for an extended due date to be given. Approved absences include hospitalization, childbirth, major accident or injury, or bereavement. It is the student's responsibility to provide the instructor appropriate documentation within a reasonable timeframe. Unapproved late assignments that result in zeros cannot be made up with the exception of late initial discussion posts, which will receive deductions based on the grading rubric and the number of days late (up to three days). No response posts made after the deadline will be counted for credit. Approved late papers will receive a 10% deduction per day late.
