"If a nation expects to be ignorant and free, in a state of civilization, it expects what never was and what never will be" ~ Thomas Jefferson

"Democracy is not being, it is becoming. It is easily lost, but never fully won." ~ William Hastie

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is an introductory course that is designed for students new to the study of American politics. By the end of the quarter, I hope you will understand the structure of American government and have an increased ability to critically reflect on American politics. Specific topics of study include: the Revolution, the Constitution, Congress, the Presidency, the Supreme Court, civil rights, civil disobedience, patriotism, the role of money in politics, informed and active citizenship, and much more. This is not a current events course, but we will spend time on the discussion board each week addressing news topics related to the course content.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. To develop a critical understanding of American government and politics.
2. To become more informed and discriminating consumers of political information.
3. To foster self-reflection about the rights and responsibilities of citizenship.
4. To learn to constructively engage in the political process.

COURSE POLICIES

This is a college-level course, which means you are responsible for your own learning. I will do my best to facilitate our interactions on-line in a fun and interesting way, and to assess your learning fairly. I expect you to do your best to complete assignments in a timely and appropriate fashion, to log on to the course website each work day prepared for the day's work, and to actively participate in on-line discussions and activities. If you do not understand something you need to take the initiative to find out the answer—post a question on the Ask the Professor discussion board, email me, etc. I cannot read minds so it is up to you to try to seek clarity when it is lacking.

RULES OF ENGAGEMENT FOR CLASS DISCUSSIONS

This course involves the discussion of controversial political issues. Remember that reasonable people often disagree. Your challenge and responsibility is to maintain civil discourse. We will achieve this by being respectful of each other and avoiding inflammatory, derogatory and insulting words, phrases and labels. Please use your common sense to avoid any other conduct that might distract or offend me or your classmates. Thank you!

A NOTE ABOUT IDEOLOGY

I have no intention of trying to convert you to my belief system. The issues we will be exploring are often contentious and sometimes there will be no right or wrong answers. That being said, I believe there are good and bad arguments. Good arguments will be entertained on the discussion board (i.e. those that are logically sound and supported by the available evidence); bad arguments will be discouraged.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS AND MISSED EXAMS

All major due dates are indicated on the calendar on our course website. Because I believe that one of the major lessons that students learn in college is the importance of meeting deadlines, all late work will be penalized unless cleared with me in advance. Specifically, all assignments turned in late will be penalized 10% if they are turned in within one day of the due date, 25% if turned in between one and seven days of the due date, and 50% if turned in eight or more days after the due date. Note: make-up exams will not be administered unless you receive prior permission from me or you can document a catastrophe (such as being medically unable to take the exam).

DISABILITY RESOURCES

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) serves students with a wide array of learning challenges and disabilities. If you are a student who has a disability or a learning challenge for which you have documentation or have seen someone for treatment and if you feel you may need accommodations in order to be successful in college, please contact the DRC staff as soon as possible. The DRC office is located in B132 and the reception desk phone number is 425-564-2498. For application information and other helpful links the DRC website is <http://www.bellevuecollege.edu/drc>. Deaf students can reach the DRC by videophone at 425-440-2025 or by TTY at 425-564-4110. Finally, if you have either an apparent or non-apparent disability and require assistance in case of an emergency situation, such as a fire, earthquake, etc., please let me know early in the quarter so that we can develop an appropriate safety plan for you. Thank you.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Cheating and plagiarism (using the ideas or words of another as one's own without crediting the source) are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College (http://bellevuecollege.edu/policies/2/2050P_Student_Code_%28Procedures%29.asp).

Such behavior will result in a grade of 0.0 for the assignment/exam in question. Please note that these are serious offences, which can result in possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College and go on your permanent record. If you have questions about academic integrity, please familiarize yourself with BC's Student Code of Conduct and/or send me a message via email.

COURSE MATERIALS

The primary texts for the course are Schubert, Dye, and Zeigler's The Irony of Democracy (17th Edition) and Hennessey and McConnell's The United States Constitution: A Graphic Adaptation. Both books should be available in the bookstore, but they are probably cheaper online. They are currently priced at $60.26 and $11.10 respectively at Amazon.com. The former is also available as a rental for $20.04. One copy of each text will also be made available for short-term check out (up to two hours) in the library. Finally, supplemental texts and movies will be made available on our course website. I will try to find free copies of all of the movies, but you may be asked to rent one or two movies this quarter. To access the supplemental materials click on the "Modules" button and you will find them uploaded in the order in which they have been assigned. Please note that you are responsible for downloading (and reading and/or watching) all supplemental materials as they are assigned. For those of you who do not have a printer at home you can print in a student computer lab or if you prefer you can just read the materials on-line. Please also note that all assigned materials should be completed before the class session for which they are scheduled, so that you can participate in discussions and other activities that I have planned. Any material covered by an assigned reading/video may be included in examination questions, regardless of whether it is specifically discussed on the discussion board. If adjustments are made to the reading/viewing schedule, you will be informed via the announcement board on our class website. The assigned reading/viewing is the core of this class—if you don't keep up you are going to find it hard to succeed. The quarter's tentative reading/viewing schedule appears at the end of this syllabus. Please review it carefully and let me know if you have any questions or concerns so that we can address potential issues before they become problems.

READING/VIEWING PROMPTS

To help you get the most out of the course materials, you will be provided with a prompt for (nearly) every reading and video assigned in this course. These prompts will be made available at least one week before the reading is due and they will include a handful of reflection questions as well as a comprehensive list of key concepts. Each day's prompts can be found under the heading "Reading/Viewing Prompts” in the module for that week. I suggest engaging with these prompts before, during, and after doing the reading and/or viewing. My primary purpose in creating these prompts is to help you focus on what is important in the assigned materials, to help you get ready for our discussions, and to help you prepare for assignments and exams. You are encouraged to print the reading/viewing prompts and to write your answers to the reflection questions that I have provided on the prompts themselves as well as to define the key concepts that I have listed. These prompts will prove to be a valuable resource on the midterm and final exams as the review sheets that I create draw extensively from them. Please note that you do not have to print or engage with the prompts—you are not graded on whether you do so—but I have found that students who do engage with them do better in the course.

KEEPING UP WITH THE NEWS

Please keep up with current events related to American government and politics. Our discussions on the discussion board will sometimes touch on current events and it is important that you keep up-to-date on the major political goings-on. Please find a few news sources that work for you (representing different mediums and viewpoints) and make a habit of reading, listening, and/or watching them throughout the quarter. If you have questions about the appropriateness of a particular news source for this class, please ask me sooner rather than later. I suggest that at least one of your sources be a national newspaper such as: the New York Times (www.nytimes.com), the Washington Post (www.washingtonpost.com), or the Wall Street Journal (www.wsj.com). I also encourage international sources such as the BBC (www.bbc.co.uk) and Al Jazeera (<http://english.aljazeera.net>). If you speak another language I encourage you to follow the news in that language and bring that perspective to class.

CITIZENSHIP EXAM (5 PTS) (DUE JULY 2ND)

Immigrants who want to become citizens have to meet a number of requirements, including passing a civics test that covers U.S. government and history. The test is conducted orally and in order to pass the test the applicant has to answer 6 out of 10 questions correctly. The questions for this civics test are selected from a list of 100 sample questions. Some of the questions are easy—For example: “When do we celebrate independence day?” Others are more difficult. Presumably most of you are already American citizens so you should be able to pass the test. This particular assessment is a credit/no-credit quiz so it doesn't matter how many questions you get right or wrong—at least not for your grade. The exam itself should only take five or ten minutes. Please do NOT refer to outside sources (the Internet, your textbook, friends, etc.) while taking the quiz. When you finish, the computer will give you a score out of five points. I would like you to post your scores on the discussion board along with your reflections on the quiz and your performance. At the end of the week I will go back in and change your grade to either five points if you took the quiz and posted your results and reflections on the discussion board or zero points if you did not. The best way to access this assessment is to find in the Week One “Module,” but you can also access it by clicking on the “Quizzes” heading.

SYLLABUS QUIZ (5 PTS) (DUE JULY 3RD)

For this assignment you need to read the syllabus and answer ten logistical questions about the class. The quiz will be made available on our course website. To access the quiz just click on the “Quiz” button and you should see it. The purpose of this quiz is to make sure you (a) read the syllabus, (b) are familiar with the course schedule and my expectations, and (c) can navigate your way around our course website. I would recommend printing the syllabus so that you can easily refer to it during the quiz.

PROFILE PICTURE ASSIGNMENT (5 PTS) (DUE JULY 5TH)

For this assignment, you need to upload a profile picture of yourself to our course website. If you prefer not to share a picture of yourself, please upload an (appropriate) image with which you would like to be associated. Thank you!

VOTER REGISTRATION ASSIGNMENT (5 PTS) (DUE JULY 6TH)

For this assignment, you need to register to vote by 11:59 PM on June 30th. Once you have registered to vote, all you need to do for this assignment is upload some sort of proof that you are registered (for example, a screen shot of the confirmation page if you registered online or a picture of your voter registration card if you have one). If you are registered in the state of Washington, one way to get proof is to log into the MyVote website and print and/or take a screen shot of your voting registration information. Please black out any information that you do not want to share with me (for example, your mailing and/or residential address). If you are registered to vote in another state there should be an equivalent website where you can download your voting information. If you are not a U.S. citizen or you are under eighteen you can still get credit for this assignment if you get one American citizen to register to vote and prove that they (are) registered. If you are philosophically against voting or being registered to vote, you may write a 500-word explanation of why you do not want to register. Alternatively, you can write a reflection about raising or lowering the voting age. Please let me know if you have any questions.

CITIZEN PLEDGE (20 PTS) (DUE AUGUST 16TH)

For this assignment, you need to write a citizen pledge that you will recite, record, and share on the course discussion board. This assignment is due by 11:59 pm on Thursday, August 16th. I encourage you to draw inspiration from other pledges, oaths, and inspiring texts, but the pledge that you write and recite needs to be your own. See the course website for more details on this assignment (including link to other pledges, oaths, and inspiring texts).

SURVEY WRITING ASSIGNMENT (50 PTS) (DUE JULY 15TH)

This writing assignment requires you to conduct a survey of twenty questions to ten people. The first ten questions are drawn from the U.S. Citizenship exam and the second ten questions are drawn from the geography exam you took at the beginning of the quarter. You will need to make at least one front-to-back copy of the questionnaire provided in order to complete this assignment. This is an in-person interview survey—not a self-administered questionnaire—so you will need to read each question to each respondent. When the respondents give you an answer make sure you mark it down. It is important that you prevent the survey respondent from seeing the questionnaire itself. Once you have completed ten surveys, you will need to input the data that you collect into the excel template that I have provided for you on the course website. Once the data have been inputted, I would like you to analyze and reflect on the data in light of the first day's readings and our class discussion about civic ignorance. Your write-up should be at least one-page, single-spaced, typed with Times New Roman, 12 pt font, and 1-inch margins. It should also include a clear and descriptive title as well as proper spelling, syntax and grammar. Click on the "Assignments" button on the course website to see more detailed directions. Please let me know if you have any questions. This assignment is due by 11:59 pm on Sunday, July 15th.

ACTION ASSIGNMENT (50 PTS) (DUE AUGUST 5TH)

This assignment requires you to choose a political issue that you care about, research it, take political action, and reflect on your action. Start by thinking about what political issues you care about and why you care about them. Choose an issue and do some research into what, if anything, is being done locally, nationally, or internationally in regards to this issue. Once you've decided on an issue, carefully decide on one or more actions that you would be willing to take that would help resolve this issue. For example, you might start a petition, contact an elected official, attend a political protest or rally, volunteer for a cause you believe in, etc. Please clear your action with me before doing it—if you don't you will be penalized. After you've acted, you need to write a one-to-two pages, single-spaced reflection on the issue that you chose, what you did, why you did it, and what you learned (both about the issue and about taking action). I would also like you to share an abbreviated version of this write-up with your classmates so they have a chance to engage with you about your action—these write-ups should be posted on the discussion board called "Action Assignment." The write-up for me should be one-two-two pages, single-spaced, typed with Times New Roman, 12 pt font, and 1-inch margins. It should also include a clear and descriptive title as well as proper spelling, syntax and grammar. Click on the "Assignments" button on the course website to see more detailed directions for this assignment. Please let me know if you have any questions. This assignment is due by 11:59 pm on Sunday, August 5th.

Success Tip: Pick a political topic that you care about and clear your action with me early in the quarter so that you are not rushing to do something meaningless to both you and me at the last minute.

FINAL REFLECTION (40 PTS) (DUE AUGUST 16TH)

For this assignment, I would like you to summarize what you have learned in this course about your rights and responsibilities as a citizen in a democracy. Please be specific and cite specific course content in your response (e.g., Bellamy, Carroll, Jefferson, King, Lincoln, Liu, Loeb, Wolf, Zinn, etc.). This write-up should be one-page minimum two two-pages maximum, single-spaced, typed with Times New Roman, 12 pt font, 1-inch margins, and a clear and descriptive title. You can choose whatever citation method you feel most comfortable with as long as you are consistent and it is clear where your ideas originated. I will be grading you on the clarity of your thinking and writing, the depth of your reflection, and the extent to which you incorporate the appropriate course content. I would recommend citing at least five to ten course materials to support your arguments in this reflection. Click on the "Assignments" button on the course website to see more detailed directions for this assignment. Please let me know if you have any questions. This assignment is due by 11:59 pm on Thursday, August 16th.

WEEKLY JOURNAL (60 PTS) (DUE EVERY SUNDAY)

I would like you to keep a reflective journal this quarter. The purpose of this journal is to stimulate your thinking about the material being covered in class and to serve as a starting point for on-line discussions. You are responsible for writing one outside-of-class journal entry per week for a total of seven entries. Each journal entry should be at least 300 words in length. Each week's journal prompts will be posted on our course website by 11:59 pm on Monday and you must complete your journal entry by 11:59 PM on Sunday. There will be seven journals, each journal entry is worth ten points, and I will drop your lowest score at the end of the quarter. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Success Tip: Take the journal prompts seriously and keep up with the assigned entries. Make sure you follow the instructions regarding the number of words.

WEEKLY DISCUSSION (60 PTS) (DUE EVERY SUNDAY)

Each week I will post between approximately ten to fifteen discussion questions on the discussion board, which can be accessed via the "Discussions" link (on the left hand side of the course website) or via the "Modules" page. It is your responsibility, as a member of our class, to respond thoughtfully to not only to my questions, but also to your classmates' comments—this requires reading (most of) your classmates' comments. I would like at least four of your posts to be in response to a question that I pose and at least one of your posts to be in response to something that a classmate posts. I would also like at least one but not more than two of your posts to be related to current events. To receive full credit on this portion of the class, you need to participate thoroughly in each week's discussion. Your final grade will be based on the level of your involvement and the thoughtfulness of your contributions. I expect you to post throughout the week. Please don't wait until the end of the week to post—if you do, your classmates will not benefit from your insights and you will be downgraded for doing so. I expect you to read (most of) your classmates' posts and to make a minimum of five intellectually meaningful posts throughout the week. I recommend that you check the discussion board at least once a day between Monday and Friday. By checking the discussion board frequently, you will be able to identify more opportunities where you can add something to the conversation (thus improving your grade). Please follow the following guidelines when making posts.

- Your posts should be in sentence/paragraph format, and you should avoid "text message" grammar (that means no "u" instead of "you").
- Please write complete sentences/paragraphs and fully explain and elaborate your points, using examples, evidence, and logic.
- Be precise about what you are saying; don't be vague or general.
- Respond to the topic, not the author. This does not mean that you should ignore the person who wrote the original post, but it means you need to focus on the ideas in the post and how to further the conversation on the topic, not tell the author what you think of his or her post.
- Minimize prejudices, biases, unfounded beliefs, and emotional reactions.
- Feel free to be personal and interpersonal as this will help us bond as an online community, but please do not go too far off onto personal tangents. In other words, I would like you to stay focused on the topics that I post for you. If you want to carry on other discussions, please use the "other" forum on the discussion site. The course content forums are reserved for addressing the course content of the week.
- Examples of good discussion posts include: clarifying or expanding the discussion

- if important points are unclear or missing; looking at the issue from another angle or perspective; adding pertinent information; and asking a question that forces your classmates to think more in depth about the topic.
- As much as possible, please cite page numbers and/or a web address so that your classmates can benefit from access to the sources of your information.
 - I'm looking forward to an engaging and interesting discussion board!

As with the journals, there will be seven opportunities to participate in the weekly participation, each participation assignment is worth ten points, and I will drop your lowest score at the end of the quarter.

FIRST EXAM (100 PTS) (JULY 22ND)

Your first exam must be submitted by 11:59 pm on Sunday, July 22nd. This exam will consist of a mix of question types, including: true-false, multiple-choice, identifications, short answer, and essay. A study-guide will be made available to you a week before the exam.

Success Tip: Keep up with the assigned material and do not leave your exam preparation until the night before the exam. I will provide you with a review sheet a week before the exam: take advantage of the review sheet and the reading prompts and let me know if you have questions.

SECOND EXAM (100 PTS) (AUGUST 12th)

Your second exam must be submitted by 11:59 pm on Sunday, August 12th. Like the first exam, this exam will consist of a mix of question types, including: true-false, multiple-choice, identifications, short answer, and essay. Also, like the first exam, a study-guide will be made available to you a week before the exam.
