Course Description

This course serves to introduce students to the three main components of the criminal justice system: police, courts, and corrections. Important background information on crime, classification and definitions of offenses, and victims and offenders is discussed as well. The focus of this introductory course includes: 1) Police organization, roles, functions, and responsibilities; 2) Court organization, processes, and outcomes (e.g. sentencing); 3) Punishment issues including probation, jail, prison, and community corrections.

▪ Course Outcomes

After completing this class, students should be able to:

1. Use a working vocabulary based on the terminology used in the three components of the Criminal Justice System.
2. Differentiate between the workings and responsibilities of the three major components of the American Criminal Justice System: the police, the courts and corrections.
3. Describe the theories, models and concepts within the Criminal Justice System and determine their strengths and weaknesses.
4. Explain how laws are made, categorized and enforced and the process of deciding how these laws are applied to case based situations.
5. Identify the reasons why experts in the field think the term Criminal Justice System is a myth and a true system is non-existent.
6. Examine the current major issues within the Criminal Justice System and be able to explain those issues giving case based examples of what they are.

▪ Books and Materials Required

DIGITAL TEXTBOOK (see McGraw-Hill Connect) link for textbook.

Introduction to Criminal Justice (9th Edition), by: Bohm & Haley ISBN: 9781260310139. McGraw Hill Publishers, 2018.

You will use the digital textbook every week and quiz material will be from the digital textbook. You must read each chapter and have the digital book by day one of the class. It is your responsibility to get the textbook on time and read it in accordance with the course outline below.

Online Course: Since this class does not meet face to face on campus you are expected to attend the online classroom for AT LEAST 1-2 hour 4-5 times a week (I can see your time that you are logged and each page--very creepy but it does show me what you are doing or not doing in the class). To be successful in this class, you will need to be reading the textbook, viewing the PowerPoint, posts, and all other helps and guides posted on Canvas. You must also submit weekly discussion (which is similar to questions that would be asked in a classroom format). If you have never taken an online course I would recommend taking the online tutorial at: <https://bc.instructure.com/courses/411354> to familiarize yourself with Canvas.

Adobe Flash Player: Make sure you have flash player for the two real world scenarios (Police Patrol and Courtroom Workgroup) worth 20 points each. There will be interactive videos and assignments to complete in which you need the flash player (link below).

Link \(Links to an external site.\)Links to an external site.

Software: Microsoft Word is the only word processor supported at the college. You must use Microsoft Word or have the assignment in PDF format to submit any documents for the class. Documents submitted in any other format will not be accepted.

Web Browser: You must use a Web browser supported by Canvas and it must be properly "tuned." Information about supported browsers and how to tune them is posted on the E-Learning website: <http://www.bellevuecollege.edu/elearning/Links to an external site.>

Rhythm of this course: READ THIS SECTION VERY CAREFULLY. IF YOU CANNOT ADJUST YOUR SCHEDULE TO THE RHYTHM OF THE CLASS, YOU WILL HAVE DIFFICULTY SUCCEEDING IN THIS COURSE. DEADLINES ARE NOT FLEXIBLE. LATE ASSIGNMENTS ARE NOT ACCEPTED. The on-line class has a very different rhythm from on-campus classes, and each on-line course is different from other

on-line courses. In this class, the first day of the 'on-line week' begins on a Monday morning at 12:01 AM and runs until a Sunday night at 11:59 PM when all work for that week must be completed. There are seven major components to the course: 1) reading the textbook & taking practice quizzes (10 points each--unlimited tries); 2) viewing the Lectures (PowerPoint slides which are not narrated); 3) discussions (10 points each week-interact with other students); 4) scenario video assignments (2-police and courts worth 20 points each); 5) "what do you think" assignments (severity of offenses, rule of law and you are the prosecutor--worth 15 points each) 6) quizzes (in Canvas); and 7) a final comprehensive exam.

1) Reading the Textbook: it will be extremely difficult to pass this course without reading the textbook (either online or book format). It is your responsibility to purchase the textbook. It is up to you to decide the best time to complete each week's assigned readings, but they should be completed before other assignments are due in the same week.

2) Viewing the PowerPoint Lectures: For each major section of the course, there are accompanying PowerPoint slides that you can download and/or print. Additional information and resources are contained in these lectures, which are similar to those given in the on-campus version of this course. These slides are not narrated so that you can proceed at your own pace.

3) Discussions: There are six discussions in this course (not including your introduction discussion) and each discussion has three main parts. First, you must do an initial post (your analysis/research and scientific consideration about the discussion topic) before you post replies to your peers. This post should be submitted each Friday by 9am PST. Second, you need to read the postings of other students and will be required to read at least half of the initial posts of others. As the professor, it is possible to see how many postings each student has viewed. Third, each student is to make a minimum of 1-2 replies on the postings of other students' posts by the end of the on-line week by Sunday, by 11:59 PM. Ideally, replies should be submitted after your initial post, and later in the week. No late discussions or replies are accepted for any reasons, so please do not ask the professor to make exceptions just for you.

4) Scenario Video Assignments: You will watch two video sections throughout the quarter that show a deeper picture of some of the issues or dilemmas facing police and the courts today. You will be prompted through the scenario(s) with questions you need to answer. No late video essays will be accepted.

5) What do you think? Assignment: You will read through short question(s) on a variety of topics in which you take your opinion as well as the information you have learned from the chapters and PowerPoint to apply your knowledge. No late what do you think? assignments will be accepted.

6) Quizzes: Each quiz opens on a Friday night at 8 PM and closes on a Sunday night at 11:59 PM. There are multiple choice and short answer questions. 50 minutes is allotted to complete a quiz, the same amount of time for on campus quizzes. No late quizzes are accepted for any reason. In order to submit the quiz on time, it needs to be started at least 50 minutes before the due date/time.

7) Final Comprehensive Exam: The final exam is comprehensive and covers all course materials. It will consist of multiple choice questions. It will be due on 12/4/18 by 11:59 pm. 100 minutes are allotted to complete the final exam. No late final exams are accepted for any reason.

Course Calendar

The following schedule is tentative and may be modified with notice. Students are responsible for ANY and ALL changes that are made to this schedule. The assigned readings, which should be completed prior to the class week, and all test dates are in bold.

Help with Canvas

Classroom Learning Atmosphere

• Instructor's Expectation

Netiquette: What is Netiquette? Netiquette is the conduct or behavior that is expected when you are working on the internet or in cyberspace. Netiquette is a set of rules for appropriate behavior. Respect for opinions voice in the online class is essential, and I expect all students to treat each other courteously. Any type of disruptive or discourteous behavior is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. I will post some rules about Netiquette during the first week of class for everyone to review.

Attendance: All students are expected to attend the online classroom 4 times a week for an average of 1-2 hours at a time. Obviously, if students do not attend the online classroom regularly, the opportunity to perform well in this course is greatly diminished.

Course Requirements: All students are expected to read the required chapters of the textbook as outlined online and in the schedule section of this syllabus. Students are also expected to read the required chapters to attend the online classroom regularly, finish online requirements, take notes, ask questions, and participate in online discussions.

McGraw-Hill Connect: Since the book is available through the publisher please use it--it has so many tools to help you really integrate what you have read into understanding key terms, concepts and the chapter reviews will help for the quizzes as well. You will have a 10 point chapter review (FOR EACH CHAPTER--11 in total) and you can go back over the questions up to three times. If you get a question wrong it will prompt you to the area in the chapter to review--SO helpful. Use these as "practice" before the quizzes in Canvas.

Make-up Policy: Any make-up assignments or quizzes are allowed only at the discretion of the instructor and immediate notification from the student is imperative. Excused absences: death of immediate family member (death notification needed), medical emergency (ER discharge papers required) or other emergency with documentation.

You are responsible for any issues with Canvas (meaning don't wait until the last few minutes before an assignment is due) since you WILL NOT be able to make-up any assignment or quiz or paper due to technical issues. Give yourself time to complete the work and contact Canvas help (upper right corner of screen) well before deadlines to make sure any issues are resolved BEFORE the deadline. Please contact me via e-mail BEFORE the due date of any assignment you have technical issues with and we can work on a solution; AFTER the deadline I cannot accept any work.

Any excused absence (with documentation) will be allowed to take the make-up the assignment and/or quiz without point penalty. Any un-excused or undocumented missing assignment and/or quiz will NOT be allowed to make-up. Since this is an online course you have plenty of time to work on the coursework around any emergencies, work obligations, family obligations, vacations, etc.

Discussion Threads: Participation in the discussion forums maximizes your learning experiences and that of your classmates. You are required to participate in discussion threads online and in classroom activities and discussions. As part of an online and in class group you will have the opportunity to interact with others for deeper understanding of the materials offered. Most importantly, you have the opportunity to understand differing points of view and how they are arrived at by your classmates.

You may not agree with those points of view, and others may not agree with yours. There is no right or wrong answers in discussion forums. The focus of the discussion thread and classroom activities is to use resources from your book and on the internet to support your conclusions and more effectively understand the other person's point of view. Please be grammatically accurate and somewhat brief (2 or 3 paragraphs) in your responses. You must have one initial post and at least one reply post (2 reply posts are ideal).

• Affirmation of Inclusion

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination.

We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect.

• Religious Holidays

Students who expect to miss classes, examinations, or any other assignments as a consequence of their religious observance should be provided with a reasonable alternative opportunity to complete such academic responsibilities. It is the obligation of students to provide faculty with reasonable notice of the dates of religious holidays on which they will be absent, preferably at the beginning of the term. Students who are absent on days of examinations or class assignments should be offered an opportunity to make up the work without penalty (if they have previously arranged to be absent), unless it can be demonstrated that a makeup opportunity would constitute an unreasonable burden on a member of the faculty. Should disagreement arise over what constitutes an unreasonable burden or any element of this policy, parties involved should consult the department chair, or Dean.

- College Anti-Discrimination Statement (Title IX)

Bellevue College does not discriminate on the basis of race or ethnicity; color; creed; national origin; sex; marital status; sexual orientation; age; religion; genetic information; the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability; gender identity or veteran status in educational programs and activities which it operates.

For further information and contacts, please consult College Anti-Discrimination Statements \(Links to an external site.\)Links to an external site..

- Division Statements

Incomplete: If a student fails to complete all the required work for course, an instructor may assign the grade of Incomplete ("F"). The student must complete the coursework by the end of the next quarter, or receive the assigned letter grade (usually an ("F").

F Grade: Students who fail a course will receive a letter grade of "F."

Final Examination Schedule: The Social Science Division will adhere to the final examination schedule as stated in the BC schedule. Final examinations will be held at the end of each quarter at fixed times. Instructors will not give examinations in advance of the regular schedule. A student who is absent from any examination held at any time during the quarter may forfeit the right to make up the examination. If, for illness or some other circumstances beyond the student's control, the student is unable to be present at any scheduled examination and has contacted the instructor on a timely basis, the student may be permitted to take such examination at a time designed by the instructor.

Withdrawal from Class: College policy states students must formally withdraw from a class (Registration Office, B125). If a student has not withdrawn by the date stated on the college calendar for the current quarter, an appropriate letter grade will be assigned for the course.

Hardship Withdrawal: Instructors may assign the grade of "HW" (hardship withdrawal) at their discretion in the event that a student cannot complete the coursework due to extreme circumstances. Students may also contact the Enrollment Services office BEFORE grades are assigned in cases of hardship.

Distribution of Grades: Grades will not be posted in the Social Science Division or in faculty offices, and secretaries will not give out grades. Students should access their grades online through Canvas.

Return of Papers and Tests: Paper and/or Scantron score sheet returns will be arranged in the following ways ONLY: by mail, if students supplies the instructor with stamped, self-addressed envelope (with appropriate postage); or by the instructor designating a time and place whereby the student may retrieve his/her papers. Unclaimed papers and/or Scantron score sheets must be kept by the instructor for a minimum of sixty (60) instructional days following the end of the quarter.

▪ Student Code of Conduct and Academic Integrity

Any act of academic dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism (using the ideas or words of another as one's own without crediting the source), and fabrication and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to, talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Student Success for investigation. Specific student rights, responsibilities, and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct at: Student Code \(Links to an external site.\)Links to an external site.

Accessibility

The online elements of this course are designed to be welcoming to, accessible to, and usable by everyone, including students who are English-language learners, have a variety of learning styles, have disabilities, or are new to online learning. Be sure to let me know immediately if you encounter a required element or resource in the course that is not accessible to you. Also, let me know of changes I can make to the course so that it is more welcoming to, accessible to, or usable by students who take this course in the future

• Public Safety

Public Safety is located in the D-171 building and can be reached at 425-564-2400 (easy to remember because it's the only office on campus open 24 hours a day—2400). Among other things, Public Safety serves as our Parking Permits, Lost and Found, and Emergency Notification center. Please ensure you are signed up to receive alerts through our campus alerting system by registering at RAVE Alert Registration \(Links to an external site.\)Links to an external site.

If you work late and are uneasy about going to your car, Public Safety will escort you to your vehicle. To coordinate this, please phone ahead and let Public Safety know when and where you will need an escort.

Please familiarize yourself with the emergency postings by the door of every classroom and know where to go in the event of an evacuation. Your instructor will be asked if anyone might still be in the building, so check in before you do anything else. Emergency responders will search for anyone unaccounted for.

If a major emergency occurs, please follow these three rules:

- 1) Take directions from those in charge of the response -We all need to be working together.
- 2) Do not get in your car and leave campus (unless directed to) - Doing so will clog streets and prevent emergency vehicles from entering the scene. Instead, follow directions from those in charge.
- 3) In an emergency, call 911 first, then Public Safety.

Please do not hesitate to call Public Safety if you have safety questions or concerns at any time. You may also visit the Public Safety \(Links to an external site.\)Links to an external site. web page for answers to your questions.
