Class Format

This is an online course that does not require us to meet face to face on campus. You are expected to attend the online classroom for AT LEAST one hour, four times per week. To be successful in this class, you will need to be reading the textbook, viewing the materials, videos and any power points, and reviewing guidelines and grading rubrics posted within the weekly Modules and Files Section on the Canvas classroom page. The requirements, expectations, grading rubrics and other important information will be listed below. PLEASE READ SYLLABUS THOROUGHLY.

Course Overview

Surveys the study of crime, causation, and criminals. Topics include types and characteristics of offenders and criminal behaviors, recidivism, environmental influences, diagnostic methods, prediction, prevention, and social policy.

Course Outcomes

After completing this class, students should be able to:

- Define, recognize, and explain, key concepts related to the field of study called Criminology.
- Explain the various methods of measuring crime, including the techniques of scientific methodology employed in each measure, the strengths and weakness characteristic of each measure, and the sociological, political, and economic usefulness of each measure.
- Distinguish and explain the principle theories that attempt to explain various criminal behavior patterns that exist in the United States.
- Compare and contrast the crime rate in the United States with that of other industrialized countries around the world.
- Use theory to explain criminal behavior as it is commonly portrayed in the movies.
- Identify the authors of the principle theories that attempt to explain various criminal behavior patterns.
- Describe and articulate the historical development of criminological theories as they occurred and progressed throughout the world.
- Critically analyze, compare and contrast the basic approaches to the control of crime utilized in this country.

Course Materials

Required Text: Introduction to Criminology (9th Edition); Author: Frank E. Hagan; ISBN No.: 9781506337524. NOTE: You are required to have this text (in your format preference). Older versions of this text are not to be used.

Software: Microsoft Word is the only word processor supported at BC. You must submit assignments/papers in Microsoft Word or PDF format. Documents in any other format will not be accepted. NOTE: Documents submitted via email will not be accepted unless explicitly stated within the instructions.

Course Requirements

- Reading: It is imperative that you read the required text as it is assigned, if you do not utilize the textbook it will be difficult to get through this course. Make sure you are prepared with the textbook and are keeping up to date with where we are at in the book throughout the quarter.
- Power Points: Similar to the reading, power points will be important to review when they are assigned, quizzes and exams will be based on the reading and power points.
- Discussion Boards & Responses: There will be eight (8) discussion board posts (worth 20 points each), not including your Introduction post (worth 10 points) in the 'Getting Started' module. Discussions board posts need to be thorough and thoughtful, utilizing the materials that were assigned in that week's module. You will need to respond to the discussion board prompt for each week AND respond to two (2) classmates by Sunday at 11:59pm PST every week. If you engage in a conversation or debate with classmates on a thread as a result of your response that only counts as one (1) response.
 - NOTE: Late discussion board posts AND/OR replies will not be accepted.
- Assignment(s):
 - Reviews: For this assignment, you will need to analyze the outside source(s) provided within the assignment. Formats will differ for this assignment, materials could include articles, documentaries, podcasts, etc. You will need to give a summary of the material(s); explain how it is relevant to the theory/theories you are addressing and then explain if you think the findings/conclusions of the material(s) are useful (if applicable); if they could be improved and how you propose to make improvements; and lastly, if you agree with the research/evidence presented. Each assignment/review is worth 30 points.
 - You will need to complete one (1) assignment/review for each of the following (directions for each will be available within the module):
 - Assignment #1 – Foundations of Criminology (Due 09/30/18)
 - Assignment #2 – Criminological Theories (Due 10/28/18)
 - Assignment #3 – Crime Typologies (Due 12/02/18)
- Quizzes: There will be three (3) quizzes throughout the quarter. They will be based on the textbook, power points, and other assigned materials and will consist of multiple choice, true/false, and short answer questions. Quizzes will open on Friday at 5:00pm PST and will be due by Sunday at 11:59pm PST.
 - NOTE: The quizzes cannot be unlocked early. In addition, if your quiz is not completed by 11:59pm it will be locked out and you will not have a chance to submit or complete partial quizzes.
- Final Comprehensive Exam: The final exam will be comprehensive and cover all material covered throughout the quarter. This will be a timed test with multiple choice, true/false, and short answer questions. It will open on Monday, 12/03/18 at 12:00am PST and be due by Tuesday, 12/04/2018 at 11:59pm PST. Further information will be posted about the final exam in November. The final exam is worth 100 points.
 - NOTE: If your final is not submitted by 11:59pm on 12/04/2018 it will be locked out and you will not have a chance to submit or complete the final.

Policies

Affirmation of Inclusion: Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination. We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect. <http://www.bellevuecollege.edu/inclusion/>

Religious Holidays: Students who expect to miss classes, examinations, or any other assignments as a consequence of their religious observance should be provided with a reasonable alternative opportunity to complete such academic responsibilities. It is the obligation of students to provide faculty with reasonable notice of the dates of religious holidays on which they will be absent, preferably at the beginning of the term. Students who are absent on days of examinations or class assignments should be offered an opportunity to make up the work without penalty (if they have previously arranged to be absent), unless it can be demonstrated that a makeup opportunity would constitute an unreasonable burden on a member of the faculty. Should disagreement arise over what constitutes an unreasonable burden or any element of this policy, parties involved should consult the department chair, or Dean.

College Anti-Discrimination Statement: Bellevue College does not discriminate on the basis of race or ethnicity; color; creed; national origin; sex; marital status; sexual orientation; age; religion; genetic information; the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability; gender identity or veteran status in educational programs and activities which it operates.

Confidentiality and Mandatory Reporting: As an instructor, one of my responsibilities is to help create a safe learning environment on our campus. It is my goal that you feel able to share information related to your life experiences in classroom discussions, in your written work, and in our one-on-one meetings. I will seek to keep information you share private to the greatest extent possible. However, I am required to share with the Title IX Coordinator any and all information regarding sexual assault and other forms of sexual misconduct (e.g. dating violence, domestic violence, stalking) that may have occurred on campus or that impacts someone on campus. Students may speak to someone confidentially by contacting the BC Counseling Center at (425) 564-2212. The Title IX Office can be contacted at 425-564-2441 and more information can be found at www.bellevuecollege.edu/titleix/.

For further information and contacts, please consult College Anti-Discrimination Statements.

Bellevue College E-mail: All students registered for classes at Bellevue College are entitled to a network and e-mail account. Your student network account can be used to access your student e-mail, log in to computers in labs and classrooms, connect to the BC wireless network and log in to MyBC. To create your account, go to: <https://www.bellevuecollege.edu/netid/default.aspx>

All e-mail communication from you should come to me from your BC account (not your g-mail, hotmail, yahoo, etc.). Please e-mail me through CANVAS for the quickest reply. I will respond to you within 24-48 hours (except on weekends). BC offers a wide variety of computer and learning labs to enhance learning and student success. Find current campus locations for all student labs by visiting: <https://bellevuecollege.teamdynamix.com/TDClient/Home/>

Make-up Policy: Any make-up assignments or quizzes are allowed only at the discretion of the instructor and immediate notification from the student is imperative. Excused absences: death of immediate family member (death notification needed), medical emergency (ER discharge papers required) or other emergency with documentation. Any excused absence (with documentation) will be allowed to take the make-up assignment and/or quiz without point penalty. Any un-excused or undocumented missing assignment and/or quiz will NOT be allowed to make-up. Since this is an online course you have plenty of time to work on the coursework around any emergencies, work obligations, family obligations, vacations, etc.

Cheating, Stealing and Plagiarizing*: Cheating, stealing and plagiarizing (using the ideas or words of another as one's own without crediting the source) and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to: talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Student Services for possible probation or suspension from Bellevue College. Specific student rights, responsibilities and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct, available in the office of the Dean of Student Services.

Incomplete: If a student fails to complete all the required work for course, an instructor may assign the grade of Incomplete ("F"). The student must complete the coursework by the end of the next quarter, or receive the assigned letter grade (usually an ("F").

F Grade: Students who fail a course will receive a letter grade of "F."

Withdrawal from Class: College policy states students must formally withdraw from a class by the end of the seventh week of the quarter (Registration Office, B125). If a student has not withdrawn by that date, an appropriate letter grade will be assigned for the course.

Hardship Withdrawal: Instructors may assign the grade of "HW" (hardship withdrawal) at their discretion in the event that a student cannot complete the coursework due to extreme circumstances. Students may also contact the Enrollment Services office BEFORE grades are assigned in cases of hardship.

Distribution of Grades: Grades will not be posted in the Social Science Division or in faculty offices, and secretaries will not give out grades. Students should access their grades online through Canvas.

Public Safety: The Bellevue College (BC) Public Safety Department's well trained and courteous non-commissioned staff provides personal safety, security, crime prevention, preliminary investigations, and other services to the campus community, 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. Their phone number is 425.564.2400. The Public Safety website is your one-stop resource for campus emergency preparedness information, campus closure announcements and critical information in the event of an emergency. Public Safety is located in D-171 and on the web at: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/publicsafety/>

Disability Resource Center (DRC): The Disability Resource Center serves students with a wide array of learning challenges and disabilities. If you are a student who has a disability or learning challenge for which you have documentation or have seen someone for treatment and if you feel you may need accommodations in order to be successful in college, please contact us as soon as possible.

If you are a person who requires assistance in case of an emergency situation, such as a fire, earthquake, etc, please meet with your individual instructors to develop a safety plan within the first week of the quarter.

The DRC office is located in B 132 or you can call our reception desk at 425.564.2498. Please visit our website for application information into our program and other helpful links at www.bellevuecollege.edu/drc
