Course Information

This course will survey the development of civilizations around the world from ancient times to approximately 1000 CE. Topics include Mesopotamia, Egypt, India, China, Greece, Rome, and the development of agriculture, cities, empires, and major world religions.

Outcomes (what you'll be able to do after taking this class)

After completing this class, students should be able to:

- Analyze and critically evaluate primary and secondary sources.
- Communicate effectively both orally and in writing.
- Articulate a comparison of the rise and decline of a variety of civilizations and cultures.
- Identify and assess the causes and consequences of the major economic, social, political, religious, and cultural developments in world history up to the period of the early Middle Ages.

How Outcomes Will be Met (The Assignments)

Syllabus Quiz	10
Art and Architecture Submissions (in class, 6 at 10 points each)	60
Map Quizzes (5 at 20 points each. Lowest score dropped)	80
History Workshops (10 at 15 points each)	150
Essays (5 at 60 points each)	300
Midterm Exam	150
Final Exam	150
Participation	100
	1000 Points total

Syllabus Quiz: Online. In Canvas. Complete this by Tuesday, January 8 by midnight!

Art and Architecture Submissions: Mostly in Class. On six of our Friday meetings, we will look at art, architecture, and other media. Each session will have a 10-point assignment to complete and submit. These can sometimes be made up, but make-ups require an in-person consultation with the instructor during office hours.

Map Quizzes: In-class. No make-ups. There will be 6 map quizzes to enhance geographic literacy (knowing where stuff is on the map). Your lowest score will be dropped. The maps will be available on Canvas prior to the quiz along with a list of places you need to know. Then, in class you will receive the map with the names of places removed and replaced with a number. There will be a list of places below and you will write in the correct number on the map. You will then match the listed places to the correct number on the map. Again, these cannot be made up, but your lowest score will be dropped so you can miss one without worry.

History Workshops: In-class. In our workshops, we will use a range of primary and secondary sources (official government documents, images, cartoons, poetry and song, and much more) to make sense of some of the most important events and developments of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. Worksheets and instructions will accompany each workshop. These can sometimes be made up, but make-ups require an in-person consultation with the instructor during office hours.

Essays: Homework. These are writing assignments you will do throughout the course. There are five of them. Each one will be approximately 800 words in length. With these, we will consider primary and secondary historical sources and the larger debates and questions to which they speak. These assignments will be submitted online through Canvas by the start of class on the due date and will be subjected to VeriCite. The topics of these essays will often form the basis for in-class debates and discussions. Detailed instructions are posted in Canvas.

Midterm and Final Exam: In-class. Expect a mix of fill-in-the-blank, short answer, and essay. We will review in class and you will get a study guide about a week before each exam. If you score below an 80% on the midterm exam, a consultation with the instructor is mandatory. The final exam will not be cumulative.

Participation: You will need to come to class and actively participate. This means completing assigned readings and assignments on time, joining in during discussion, staying on task while working on in-class assignments, and asking questions. Attendance is mandatory, and you are allowed three absences. Every absence after three will result in a 10-point deduction from your participation grade. If you disrupt class (chatting, side conversations) you will be marked absent for the day. Students who are consistently late to class as well as those students who pack up early will earn fewer points.

Grading

The assignments in this course will add up to 1000 possible points. Final letter grades correspond as follows:

A	930 and above	B+	870 - 899	C+	770 - 799	D+	670 - 699
A-	900 - 929	B	830 - 869	C	730 - 769	D	630 - 669
		B-	800 - 829	C-	700 - 729	D-	600 - 629
						F	Under 600

Books and Materials Required

1. Textbook (free and online!): World History: Cultures, States, and Societies to 1500

2. All other materials and readings are either available through Canvas or will be distributed in class. For online materials, log in to <http://bellevuecollege.edu/canvas/> and look for the link to HIST 101. If you need help with Canvas, start here.

Bellevue College Inclusion Statement

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination. We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect. For more information, click here.

Disability Resource Center (DRC)

The Disability Resource Center serves students with a wide array of learning challenges and disabilities. If you are a student who has a disability or learning challenge for which you have documentation or have seen someone for treatment and if you feel you may need accommodations in order to be successful in college, please contact the DRC as soon as possible.

The DRC office is located in B 132, 425.564.2498. Hearing impaired students can access a video phone at 425-440-2025 or by TTY at 425-564-4110. Visit www.bellevuecollege.edu/drc for application information into the DRC program.

Accessibility

The online elements of this course are designed to be welcoming to, accessible to, and usable by everyone, including students who are English-language learners, have a variety of learning styles, have disabilities, or are new to online learning. Be sure to let me know immediately if you encounter a required element or resource in the course that is not accessible to you. Also, let me know of changes I can make to the course so that it is more welcoming to, accessible to, or usable by students who take this course in the future.

Public Safety and Emergencies

Public Safety is located in the K building and can be reached at 425-564-2400 (easy to remember because it's the only office on campus open 24 hours a day—2400). Among other things, Public Safety serves as our Parking Permits, Lost and Found, and Emergency Notification center. Please ensure you are signed up to receive alerts through our campus alerting system by registering at RAVE Alert Registration

If you work late and are uneasy about going to your car, Public Safety will escort you to your vehicle. To coordinate this, please phone ahead and let Public Safety know when and where you will need an escort.

Please familiarize yourself with the emergency postings by the door of every classroom and know where to go in the event of an evacuation. Your instructor will be asked if anyone might still be in the building, so check in before you do anything else. Emergency responders will search for anyone unaccounted for.

If a major emergency occurs, please follow these three rules:

- 1) Take directions from those in charge of the response -We all need to be working together.
- 2) Do not get in your car and leave campus (unless directed to) - Doing so will clog streets and prevent emergency vehicles from entering the scene. Instead, follow directions from those in charge.
- 3) In an emergency, call 911 first, then Public Safety.

Please do not hesitate to call Public Safety if you have safety questions or concerns at any time. You may also visit the Public Safety web page for answers to your questions.

Class Rules and Expectations

- I. I consider civility (acting appropriately) very important. Sleeping, talking during class, using your phone, and packing up before class ends are all completely inappropriate.
- II. Attendance
 - (1) Most faculty members agree that student success in a course correlates rather closely with good attendance; (2) Students are responsible for everything covered in every class meeting, including announcements and materials that are only covered in class and not covered in the readings; (3) Attendance is mandatory and you are allowed three absences. Every absence after three will result in a 10-point deduction from your participation grade. If you are repeatedly late for class, you will be marked absent. In the event of absence from an announced examination, students must present documentation of the reason for their absence immediately upon their return to class. Exam "make-ups" will be administered only to those students presenting such documentation.

III. Turning assignments in late

Out of respect for the efforts of the overwhelming majority of students who submit assignments on time, I cannot accept late work without a grade penalty, unless that lateness is the result of grave and unavoidable personal problems. Absent such circumstances, failure to submit a paper on time will result in the reduction of the grade by 10%.

IV. Student Code of Conduct and Academic Integrity

Any act of academic dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism (see below), and fabrication and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to, talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Student Success for investigation. Specific student rights, responsibilities, and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct at: Student Code. The College's official definitions of academic honesty are found here. I encourage you to familiarize yourself with it. If a student violates this policy in any way, I reserve the right to impose a sanction of failure on the assignment/assessment or failure in the course. If you have questions about appropriate citations, please ask.

Plagiarism

To lift phrases, sentences, or paragraphs verbatim (word-for-word) from the work of another without attribution is plagiarism. This course will also require you to submit your paper to our online software that detects plagiarism. College regulations can be quite severe in response to this offense, or any other act of academic dishonesty. The result can be an "F" grade for a specific assignment or, indeed, an "F" in the course itself. To avoid any problems of this sort, simply do your own work, write your own words, and, provide a brief citation for any quoted material. Detailed instructions for creating citations are provided in the essay instructions in Canvas and we will go over it in class, too.

Information about Bellevue College's copyright guidelines can be found at: College Copyright Policy

This link provides a good, short summary of how to avoid plagiarism: Avoiding Plagiarism

And a useful video on plagiarism (you must be logged in to BC to view): Plagiarism 2.0: Information Ethics in the Digital Age

V. Laptop Computers

I do not allow the use of laptop computers. On a case-by-case basis, I will approve the use of technology when documentation of special necessity is provided.

VI. Audio and Video recording of this class is not permitted as it is an invasion of other students' privacy.

Tips for doing well in this class:

Our agenda for this course is an ambitious one and will require a good deal of work and thought. Doing the following will help you succeed:

1. Show up, on time, to all the classes.
2. Take good notes and participate! You can't rely on the textbook and the internet to pass this course.
3. If something is unclear to you or things aren't going well, come see me or send me an email. It is important to me that you are successful in this class and I want to help you!
