Welcome to ANTH/CES 180! What is American culture? How has it changed over time? How has politics, class, and race defined or shaped American life and values from the origins of the United States to the present? How has popular culture and gender and race ideologies impacted American life and culture? These are the areas we will explore as we delve into what structures our daily lives and social world. To achieve an anthropological perspective, we must be open-minded and respectfully speak and listen to each other.

Course Overview

A view of American culture from the broad lens of anthropology. Topics include American popular culture, the historical background to American social and cultural values, and the effect of economic and political changes in American life. - Analyze contemporary anthropological views on ethnicity and nationalism, economic power and politics, and social characteristics (e.g., family, gender, etc.), as these views pertain to American culture and history.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the complex history of multicultural America, with an emphasis on immigration and inequality.

The Bellevue College grading policy is found here:

<http://www.bellevuecollege.edu/policies/id-3000/>. Please note that an A grade is assigned to work that EXCEEDS expectations, so to get an A in this course, you will need to go beyond the minimum asked in assignments.

Your final grade in this class will be based on five Components:

- Attendance/Engagement in Class = 10%
  - Assignments (mostly in class) = 35%
  - Quizzes = 10%
  - Race: Are We So Different? chapter reading notes/questions = 25%
  - Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet Essay = 20%
- TOTAL = 100%

Attendance/Engagement in Class

You are expected to attend class, participate in class discussions, and engage and contribute to the class learning environment. These points will be divided among the number of class days.

Assignments (mostly in class)

There will be multiple in-class worksheets based on videos and discussions.

Quizzes

There are 2 quizzes, each covering the PowerPoints and concepts from class. The exams will consist of multiple choice, true-false, matching, fill-in-the-blank questions.

Race: Are We So Different?* reading notes/questions

You will be responsible for reading the book, taking notes. Each student will be responsible for leading a chapter discussion.

To be fair to students who submit their work on time, written assignments that are submitted after the day they are due will be subject to a 10% reduction in points for every day they are late, including weekends, non-instruction days, and holidays. After one week, late assignments will not be accepted and a 0 will be awarded. However, I understand and respect that life happens and unexpected circumstances occasionally occur that prevent students from submitting work on time. Please contact me as soon as possible and emergency situations will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Being busy, going on vacation, being pressured with outside work, or having competing academic commitments are not valid reasons to grant extensions.

Grading Scale (maximum of 100 points)

Safe Zone

Affirmation of Inclusion

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination. We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect.

This class is designed to explore and discuss controversial issues. Sometimes these issues evoke emotional or personal responses. It is important for students to be able to speak their minds without worrying about ridicule, demeaning remarks, or hurtful statements. Any occurrences of such comments will be dealt with immediately.

Religious Holidays

Students who expect to miss classes, examinations, or any other assignments as a consequence of their religious observance should be provided with a reasonable alternative opportunity to complete such academic responsibilities. It is the obligation of students to provide faculty with reasonable notice of the dates of religious holidays on which they will be absent, preferably at the beginning of the term. Students who are absent on days of examinations or class assignments should be offered an opportunity to make up the work without penalty (if they have previously arranged to be absent), unless it can be demonstrated that a makeup opportunity would constitute an unreasonable burden on a member of the faculty. Should disagreement arise over what constitutes an unreasonable burden or any element of this policy, parties involved should consult the department chair, or Dean.

College Anti-Discrimination Statement (Title IX)

Bellevue College does not discriminate on the basis of race or ethnicity; color; creed; national origin; sex; marital status; sexual orientation; age; religion; genetic information; the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability; gender identity or veteran status in educational programs and activities which it operates.

For further information and contacts, please consult College Anti-Discrimination Statements.

Academic Integrity

Cheating and plagiarism will not be accepted. Proper citation of ideas, concepts and quotes that are not your own is required. Cheating and plagiarism will result in a zero score on that assignment and will be reported to BC administration. All assignments submitted to the Assignments section in Canvas will also be checked by a plagiarism detection service.

Student Code of Conduct and Academic Integrity

Any act of academic dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism (using the ideas or words of another as one's own without crediting the source), and fabrication and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to, talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Student Success for investigation. Specific student rights, responsibilities, and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct at: Student Code

Preventing Plagiarism: Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty occurring when students use information or material from outside sources and do not properly cite those sources. This is grounds for disciplinary action. It is your responsibility to understand plagiarism and its consequences. Plagiarism occurs if:

- a. You do not cite quotations and/or attribute borrowed ideas.
- b. You fail to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks.
- c. You do not write summaries and paraphrases in your own words and/or don't document your source.
- d. You turn in work created by another person.
- e. You submit or use your own prior work for a current or past course, or work from one current course in another course without express permission from your professors. This may also be considered academic dishonesty.
- f. Consequences: If it is determined that you have plagiarized or engaged in other forms of academic dishonesty, you will likely fail the assignment and possibly the course, despite points earned through other work. Acts of academic dishonesty are reviewed for disciplinary action.

If you are a student with a documented autism spectrum disorder, there is an additional access program available to you. Contact Autism Spectrum Navigators Email and phone number is on the web page. ASN is located in the Library Media Center in D125. The DRC office is located in B132 or you can call our reception desk at 425.564.2498. Deaf students can reach us by Skype: the address is DRCatBC (NOTE: There is no @ sign...it is actually DRCatBC). Be sure to let me know immediately if you encounter a required element or resource in the course that is not accessible to you. Also, let me know of changes I can make to the course so that it is more welcoming to, accessible to, or usable by students who take this course in the future.

Public Safety and Emergencies

Public Safety is located in the K building and can be reached at 425-564-2400 (easy to remember because it's the only office on campus open 24 hours a day—2400). Among other things, Public Safety serves as our Parking Permits, Lost and Found, and Emergency Notification center. Please ensure you are signed up to receive alerts through our campus alerting system by registering at RAVE Alert Registration

If you work late and are uneasy about going to your car, Public Safety will escort you to your vehicle. To coordinate this, please phone ahead and let Public Safety know when and where you will need an escort.

Please familiarize yourself with the emergency postings by the door of every classroom and know where to go in the event of an evacuation. Your instructor will be asked if anyone might still be in the building, so check in before you do anything else. Emergency responders will search for anyone unaccounted for.

If a major emergency occurs, please follow these three rules:

- 1) Take directions from those in charge of the response -We all need to be working together.
- 2) Do not get in your car and leave campus (unless directed to) - Doing so will clog streets and prevent emergency vehicles from entering the scene. Instead, follow directions from those in charge.
- 3) In an emergency, call 911 first, then Public Safety.

Please do not hesitate to call Public Safety if you have safety questions or concerns at any time. You may also visit the Public Safety web page for answers to your questions.
