Books & Materials

Health Economics and Policy, by James W. Henderson; ISBN-13: 97813775713880

You may use earlier edition of this boodk for reading materials for less price.

Other online sources for Discussions will be updated and posted on the weekly modules.

Discussion Questions (DQs)

Weekly Discussion Questions (DQs) constitute 30 percent of your final grade. There will be articles and quotes from various sources to start up your thinking, followed with some questions that I pose along with guidelines/rubric/criteria on how to respond to the questions.

Since we are not meeting person-to-person in class for lectures, much of our learning takes place through participations in DQs postings. You are required to participate in posting answers to the weekly discussion questions (DQs). Your responses must be substantive that include your own thoughts. You are also required to respond to your classmates' posts. Substantive answers include making comments using concepts found in the assigned reading materials or offering examples from your experience. Hence merely providing a brief "yes, I agree" or "no, I do not agree" postings are not adequate posts. I will provide the guidelines regarding the points that you can earn, on the first week of DQ.

It is intended that your involvement in discussions be of a collaborative nature. Collaboration is quite different from confrontation. Due date for each DQ will be on Monday night 11.55pm, but you are free to make your comments and participate right after the DQ is posted. At the end of the quarter, the points earned are totaled and expressed as a percentage.

Take a note that it is unacceptable behavior to post rude or personal attacks in discussion messages or using information from the personal biographies posted to harass fellow students. The instructor reserves the right to remove messages posted, downgrade the assessment of the exercise, and/or refer the student(s) to the appropriate authorities.

Quizzes

Weekly Quizzes constitute 30 percent of your final grade. I will upload weekly quizzes, each week will cover the topics of the week. This hopefully help you to digest the material in smaller bite-size, and help you better understand the materials. Each quiz will contain 20-25 multiple choice questions.

Essay/Paper

The essay/Paper constitutes 20 percent of your final grade. The essay consists of a minimum 5 pages and maximum 8 pages (excluding attachments); submit online, under Assignments on Canvas. Please make sure that at least 80 percent of the essay are original, based on your own analysis, with 20 percent may come from other sources as quotes or references. More information will be announced around the middle of the term.

Final Exam

The Final Exam constitute 20 percent of your final grade. Final Exam consist of 50 multiple-choice questions, in two-hour duration. For this ONLINE class, you will do it via Canvas, and you will be given a window of time to access the exam, and further information or instruction will be given a week prior to the scheduled exam date. Please do not miss the exam. If it is an emergency, you must notify me beforehand, and forward me the proof of the reason, from authorized sources.

Final Examination Schedule

The Social Science Division will adhere to the final examination schedule as stated in the BC Schedule. Final examinations will be held at the end of each quarter at fixed times. If, for illness or some other circumstance beyond the student's control, the student is unable to be present at any scheduled examination and has contacted the instructor on a timely basis, the student may be permitted to take such examination at a time designated by the instructor.

Withdrawal From Class

College policy states that students must formally withdraw from a class by the end of the seventh week of the quarter (Registration Office, B125). If a student has not withdrawn by that date, an appropriate letter grade will be assigned for the course.

Hardship Withdrawal

Instructors may assign the grade of "HW" (hardship withdrawal) at their discretion in the event that a student cannot complete the coursework due to extreme and exceptional circumstances. Students may also contact the Enrollment Services office BEFORE grades are assigned in cases of hardship.

Distribution of Grades

Grades will not be posted in the Social Science Division or in faculty offices, and secretaries will not give out grades. Students should access their grades through the BC Web site.

Return of Papers and Tests

Unclaimed papers and/or Scantron score sheets must be kept by the instructor for a minimum of sixty (60) instructional days following the end of the quarter.

Accessibility, Affirmation of Inclusion, Religious Holidays, Anti-Discrimination, Confidentiality

Accessibility

The online elements of this course are designed to be welcoming to, accessible to, and usable by everyone, including students who are English-language learners, have a variety of learning styles, have disabilities, or are new to online learning. Be sure to let me know immediately if you encounter a required element or resource in the course that is not accessible to you. Also, let me know of changes I can make to the course so that it is more welcoming to, accessible to, or usable by students who take this course in the future.

Affirmation of Inclusion

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination. We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect.

Affirmation of Inclusion (<https://www.bellevuecollege.edu/inclusion/>)

Religious Holidays

Students who expect to miss classes, examinations, or any other assignments because of their religious observance should be provided with a reasonable alternative opportunity to complete such academic responsibilities. It is the obligation of students to provide faculty with reasonable notice of the dates of religious holidays on which they will be absent, preferably at the beginning of the term. Students who are absent on days of examinations or class assignments should be offered an opportunity to make up the work without penalty (if they have previously arranged to be absent), unless it can be demonstrated that a makeup opportunity would constitute an unreasonable burden on a member of the faculty. Should disagreement arise over what constitutes an unreasonable burden or any element of this policy, parties involved should consult the department chair, or Dean.
