Grading

Assessment and Grading

In my grading philosophy, I encourage students to take responsibility for their own learning and to learn how to do thoughtful and realistic self-assessment. In my feedback, I will provide a percentage score as well as written feedback in which I will focus on the strengths and weaknesses of your work and help you in setting improvement goals for yourself. I would also like you to reflect on your own work and hold yourself accountable for meeting a standard of excellence. I always think of written work as “works in progress” and you are always encouraged to redo a piece of work if you would like to improve your grade. (I must receive your redo within one week of handing back the assignment.) Your final grade in Psychology 100 will be computed by dividing the points you have earned divided by the total points possible in the class. Your grade is thus based on the following:

1. Class participation & class assignments (20% of final grade). Attendance and participation is required in this class. I will collect your in-class work every week to assess participation, as well as doing spot checks during class as you work in groups. In addition, I will distribute a self-evaluation form for you to use to evaluate your own participation at the end of the quarter.
2. In-Class quizzes (20 % of final grade) – We will have quizzes for each chapter on terms and concepts from the reading. Chapter 1 is a freebie then 2-14... Due dates are on the chapter schedule!! And are always first meeting of the week!!
3. Exams (30% of final grade). We will have at least 2 exams that will be completed individually. Due dates are on the schedule, but are subject to change with at least one class days’ notice. Documentation of illness or family emergency will be required in order to turn in a late exam.
4. Behavior Recording and Assessment (10%)
 - A) Weeks 1-3 Recording Behavior (choose what and how to measure)
 - B) Weeks 3-5 Behavior Assessment (determine methodology and potential risks and benefits)
 - C) Weeks 5-8 Behavior Change (strategy for change) Details explained in Class
5. Presentations (20% of final grade) – You will give 2 group presentations (assignment on back page of syllabus.) See due dates on the schedule below. Documentation of illness or family emergency will be required in order to make up a missed a presentation.

Classroom Learning Atmosphere

Instructor's Expectations

Class Environment

Our intention will be to create a space for learning that affirms and develops creative, critical and courageous inquiry in a search to cultivate new questions as we participate in a process of creating knowledge together. We will intentionally cultivate within ourselves the ability to think critically and act courageously.

This course will be a discussion based and student oriented inquiry. We will strive to create an atmosphere where all of us feel free and motivated to share our experiences, insights and questions. Thus we need to be willing to listen and engage in ways that are respectful and open to our different perspectives as well as those we hold in common. At the center of all dialogue will be a respect for the dignity and integrity of all our classroom community. This does not mean we cannot challenge each other or agree to disagree. It means we will agree to do so in an environment that affirms the dignity of all.

We will practice, to the greatest extent possible, collective decision making and responsibility for the creation of our learning context and course direction. Student feedback and suggestions on all aspects of this course are encouraged and will be respectfully considered. We will develop other guidelines for the course as we move through it together.

All students should clearly understand that the classroom is a safe environment for all. Respect for each student's integrity, diversity of thought, and learning style is an important part of the learning environment. This is the expected right of all students. The instructor will strictly monitor protocols of civility and respect for the dignity of each person.

In addition, it is the right of each student to be able to participate without undue interruption or distraction. To this end, it is important for all students to be punctual. Along the same lines, do not hold side conversations when another student or an instructor is speaking. Such side conversations are disrespectful and distracting to everyone. Please turn off your cell phones.

Because this course will rely heavily on class participation, attendance at all class sessions is required in order to successfully complete our full agenda. If you are ill, please contact your instructor as soon as possible, or have someone do it for you. If you miss a due date for an assignment, a doctor's written excuse is required, or your grade will be severely penalized for late work (10% per calendar day).

Students with documented physical or learning disabilities that require accommodations will be supported so that adjustments may be made to provide equal access to the learning environment.

Accessibility

The online elements of this course are designed to be welcoming to, accessible to, and usable by everyone, including students who are English-language learners, have a variety of learning styles, have disabilities, or are new to online learning. Be sure to let me know immediately if you encounter a required element or resource in the course that is not accessible to you. Also, let me know of changes I can make to the course so that it is more welcoming to, accessible to, or usable by students who take this course in the future.

Professional Article Review

(Presentation 1) Review 1 Professional Article. Presentation outline and PowerPoint.

(Presentation 2) = same exact format reviewing 3 articles together. Outline and PowerPoint

(Compare, contrast and summarize the information from all 3 article together)

Directions for Professional Article Summary and Evaluation

You must find a professional journal article on a topic of your choosing related to any class material. Outline must be written in APA format. Format: 1 inch margins, size 12 font (TNR or Ariel), Double space all, Perfected references!! Your review should have four parts:

First: Article Reference Your article must be from a professional, peer reviewed, scientific (research based) journal conducting original research. (If you're not absolutely certain the article you want to review is from a pro journal/source, check with me)

You must provide a complete APA style reference for your article. This must include the full title of the article, the authors, and the journal, book or source for your article.

Second: The Summary (1 paragraph)

The summary should be a complete but condensed version of the article. It should mention each of the main points stated in the article, for instance, if there is a paragraph in the article that discusses the effectiveness of a specific medication for depression, there should be at least one sentence that summarizes that point.

The summary should be dry and factual. There should be none of your passion or voice in the summary and you should be careful not to present the passion or voice of the article author as if it were your own. This is not a report of on what you think is most relevant in the article, it is a factual summary of what the article is. There will be space for your opinion in the response section.

Third: Critical Evaluation (1 paragraph)

This section should be a paragraph or so that evaluates the information offered in the article. The article is almost always making a claim of some sort. The author is almost always trying to convince you of something. Your job is to figure these things out and evaluate whether or not the article is convincing. Be skeptical but also be fair.

This section should include but is not limited to questions like:

- What claims are being made?
- What evidence has been provided to support the claims (research study, expert opinion...)?
- Is the evidence credible (are the tests relevant, can they be repeated, examine validity and reliability).
- Did the author provide good examples and define terms well enough to make the point clear?
- What contemporary theoretical perspective in psychology best explains the claims being made?

Fourth: Response (1.5 Paragraph)

This is the place for you to offer your personal opinion. Do you agree or disagree with the claim (why or why not), Can you apply what the article said to something in your own life or experience.....I want to know what you think/ feelabout what you have learned.
