What You Can Expect From Me

My role as your instructor is to facilitate the learning process and offer assistance concerning resources for this course and the larger campus community. I will come to class prepared to respectfully engage your thoughts, ideas and suggestions. You can also expect me to assess your work in a timely manner, and provide careful and thoughtful feedback. You are, of course, entitled to discuss your assessment with me at any time. My classes, whether online or on-ground, are safe places where respect is a value that is present in nearly everything we do, and how we communicate with each other. My classroom embraces our differences and will take advantage of our unique individual attributes, lifestyles, experiences and backgrounds. I will not tolerate any intentional disrespect towards any member in the classroom. No matter the religion, creed, sexual orientation/identity, socioeconomic background, native language or cultural practices and traditions, everyone has an important and equitable role in our class, the learning process, and the success we will obtain throughout the quarter!

Course Description, Objectives and Learning Outcomes

English 101 supports students to reach college-level critical reading and writing skills fundamental to college preparation. In this course, student writing is at the center of the course, and reading and writing are taught and learned as an integrative process. Students' comfort, confidence, and competence in academic writing are the main goals of the course. Based on this purpose, I will help you improve your writing skills and prepare you for the writing required in college. Upon completion of this course, and based on individual commitment, you will find your analytical and writing abilities have improved, giving you the skills and confidence needed to succeed in college, and to find success throughout your academic careers.

Course Objectives (Student Learning Outcomes):

After completing this course, students will be able to:

Think and read critically: carefully read, analyze, interpret and evaluate claims, beliefs, texts and/or issues.

- frame questions, define problems, and position arguments.
- consider multiple points of view and differentiate between assumptions, beliefs, facts, opinions, and biases.
- read and respond to various texts critically for purposes of interpretation, analysis, synthesis, evaluation, and/or judgment.
- demonstrate an understanding of a text's main point/thesis and its relevant supporting details.

Compose and revise in context: shape written responses for different audiences and purposes.

- consider flexible strategies for prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing.
- develop and support thesis statements that are appropriately complex and significant.
- construct unified paragraphs with topic sentences and supporting details that advance the thesis.
- apply various methods of development such as illustration, comparison and contrast, and/or analysis.
- balance their individual voices with those from other texts.
- employ style, tone, and mechanical conventions appropriate to the demands of a particular audience or purpose.

Reflect and evaluate: recognize and incorporate newly acquired skills.

- develop the ability to critique their own and others' work.
- gain a clearer perspective of habits that may detract from the effectiveness of their own writing.
- respond to comments from their instructor and peers.

Bellevue College E-mail and access to MyBC

All students registered for classes at Bellevue College are entitled to a network and e-mail account. Your student network account can be used to access your student e-mail, log in to computers in labs and classrooms, connect to the BC wireless network and log in to MyBC. To create your account, go to: <https://www.bellevuecollege.edu/netid/>

BC offers a wide variety of computer and learning labs to enhance learning and student success. Find current campus locations for all student labs by visiting the <http://depts.bellevuecollege.edu/helpdesk/students/>

Affirmation of inclusion

Bellevue College is committed to maintaining an environment in which every member of the campus community feels welcome to participate in the life of the college, free from harassment and discrimination. We value our different backgrounds at Bellevue College, and students, faculty, staff members, and administrators are to treat one another with dignity and respect. <http://www.bellevuecollege.edu/policies/id-4000/>

Public Safety

The Bellevue College (BC) Public Safety Department's well trained and courteous non-commissioned staff provides personal safety, security, crime prevention, preliminary investigations, and other services to the campus community, 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. Their phone number is 425.564.2400. Public Safety is located in K100 and on the web at: <http://bellevuecollege.edu/publicsafety/>

Values Conflicts

Essential to a liberal arts education is an open-minded tolerance for ideas and modes of expression that might conflict with one's personal values. By being exposed to such ideas or expressions, students are not expected to endorse or adopt them but rather to understand that they are part of the free flow of information upon which higher education depends.

To this end, you may find that class requirements may include engaging certain materials, such as books, films, and art work, which may, in whole or in part, offend you. These materials are equivalent to required texts and are essential to the course content. If you decline to engage the required material by not reading, viewing, or performing material you consider offensive, you will still be required to meet class requirements in order to earn credit. This may require responding to the content of the material, and you may not be able to fully participate in required class discussions, exams, or assignments.

Student Code of Conduct and Academic Integrity

Cheating, stealing, and plagiarizing (using the ideas or words of another as one's own without crediting the source) and inappropriate/disruptive classroom behavior are violations of the Student Code of Conduct at Bellevue College. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to, talking out of turn, arriving late or leaving early without a valid reason, allowing cell phones/pagers to ring, and inappropriate behavior toward the instructor or classmates. The instructor can refer any violation of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Student Success for investigation. Specific student rights, responsibilities, and appeal procedures are listed in the Student Code of Conduct at: <http://www.bellevuecollege.edu/policies/id-2050/>
