

CEO INSIDER

BELLEVUE COLLEGE • NOVEMBER 2017 • VOLUME 3

WINTER 2018 REGISTRATION BEGINS SOON!

1. Check your registration time online!
2. Review your Ed Plan to make sure you're on track.
3. Meet with your case manager or instructor to approve your classes.
4. Jump online when your registration door opens and snag the best classes!

HOLIDAY PARTY DECEMBER 13 12:00-2:00

Very few of you have stepped forward to participate in the "CEO's Got Talent" show – alas! It's not too late! We know there are outstanding comedians among you! This is a required event unless you have met your 2 hours for December with your case managers. We'll have a surprise guest speaker and yummy food! See you there!

Follow CEO on FB!

CEO CLUB SPOTLIGHT!

FRIDAY THE 13TH

The Spooky Food Potluck & Costume Party was a grand success! Major kudos to Sue McCashland who provided the décor AND used her Tarot Card skills to see into our futures!

Costume Party Winners

The CEO Club is for ALL CEO students. The leadership team welcomes new members – come put your great ideas into action and have fun. Many positions still available! Contact Jessi Walker, Club President for date and time of the next leader's meetings!

jessidwalker@gmail.com

DATES TO REMEMBER!

CEO CLUB

- Don't miss these activities!
- Nov 9 Billionaire Book Club
 - Dec 13 Holiday Party

CLASSES

- Nov 10 - No classes
- Nov 13 – Registration week begins
- Nov 23-24 - Thanksgiving weekend
- Dec 7 - Quarter Ends

Don't forget to get your attendance verification forms to your case managers by the 20th of each month!

CEO INSIDER – Student spotlight

Qorban Ferrell– aka Qorb the Borb – Future Billionaire!

I wasn't the ideal high school student – I had way too much energy and found those classes totally boring, which resulted in lots of failed classes and angry parents. That made me think that I hated learning, until I realized that learning and school can be separate things. I found books more interesting than teachers and started learning everything I wanted rather than things I that were imposed by the school. I officially left HS at the end of my junior year and never looked back! My math tutor had told me about CEO, and I didn't hesitate to join up in the Fall of 2015.

I'm working in property maintenance around 24 hours per week – the rest of the time I'm at the gym and listening to podcasts about investing and financial markets. I love reading, especially books about enlightenment and self-improvement, along with biographies of the smartest minds that ever existed. That's why I wanted to start the Billionaire Book Club – so I could share my passion for learning about the world and the way it works. Come share your views about life and success at our monthly meeting on the second Thursday of the month at 3 pm in the L building lobby. See you there!

Maria Emerson – CEO Leadership Team

North Bend has been my home for the past decade or so. CEO was the obvious choice since I was home schooled - my Mom found the program after my sister tried Running Start and didn't do so well. CEO has been a totally great experience. I had Paul and Jenna in my first quarter and they really made it fun. In my free time I play video games and I like working with chainmail to create scale maille and chains. I'm also into manga and anime. The coolest thing I've ever done was go to Japan...twice! First time was in March of 2011 for 2 weeks with my family. We were there when the earthquake hit and I remember running out into the street and watching huge cranes sway back and forth while people swarmed out of the buildings. We waited outside our hotel with other guests in their kimonos. They were nice and tried to speak a bit of English with us. This last summer I went back to Japan with a friend and we visited her cousin who flies helicopters out of an airbase near Yamato. I liked how easy it was to travel around on the train and how being there on my own made me more responsible for myself. Russia might be interesting to visit next. I'm not sure about my future career, maybe I will go back to Japan to teach English. I have two more years here at BC, so I'm just waiting to see what comes up.

Who's Next?
If you have a story
to share, or content suggestions for the INSIDER, email

Christy.Coulibaly@bellevuecollege.edu

