UMOJA Scholars Program

Umoja is a Kiswahili word meaning: Unity.

The UMOJA Scholars Program at Bellevue College is being built in partnership with the UMOJA National Consortium to provide a supportive learning community, as well as critical resources dedicated to enhancing the cultural and educational experiences of Black, African American, and other students.

We believe...

that when the voices and histories of students are deliberately and intentionally recognized and honored, the opportunity for self-efficacy emerges and a foundation is formed for academic success. The Bellevue College UMOJA Scholars Program actively supports and promotes student success through ethnocentric curriculum and pedagogy responsive to the legacy of the African, and African American Diasporas and experiences.

The UMOJA Scholars Program at Bellevue College provides culturally relevant:

- College entry knowledge and support
- Coaching with financial aid application process
- Dedicated academic advising to create an academic road map to achieve your goals
- Dedicated instructors with culturally relevant teaching practices
- Access to mental health counseling (African American Counselor)
- Dedicated tutoring from faculty and peers
- Intentional connections to campus and community resources
- Assistance with university transfer process

Bellevue College will adopt the 18 UMOJA core practices to support student success.

Raising Intentional & Deliberate • Ethic of Love—the Affective Domain • Manifesting • Umoja Counseling: Affirming, Integrated, Intentional • The Porch • Live Learning • Language as Power • Tapping African American Intellectual, Spiritual, and Artistic Voices • Awareness of Connectedness to African Diaspora • Community-building Communal Intelligence • Acceleration—English, Math, ESL, and Counseling • Occupy Study Spaces on Campus • Mentoring • Mattering • UMOJA as Power Base • Encircling Diversity • Gifting • Everybody's Business
